Three R's 1956 Annuals Arrive, Bear New Title, Hawk

By KAY SLAUGHTER
Hi ya everyone. Again we greet you with the news of happenings in the walls of Newport High. I guess the No. 1 thing that has happened is the arrival of our 1956 annuals. The name this year has been changed from "The Gremlin" to "The Hawk." The cover is dark blue with gold letters. Last Friday all the grades in school met in the auditorium for the dedication. The editor, Willliou Mason, presented the first annual to Mrs. Margaret Mann, our senior teacher, to whom the annual was dedicated. A copy was also presented to Mr. Comer, our principal, and Mrs.

Simmons, our annual sponsor. We're sure everyone agrees this is the best annual ever and congratulations are due our fine annual staff. The seniors' commencement invitations, thank you notes, etc. arrived last week. They are very pretty and we are pleased with them. Looking at these reminds us that our high school days are drawing to a close. Only two-and-a-half months and high school will be a thing in the past. Last Friday an order went from Newport Senior Class to Mr. Joslyn's office for 31 diplomas. We hate to part from one another, but too we want our diplomas, something we've strived for 12 years.

Two new students have joined the senior class lately. They are Idell Riggs from Beaufort and Juanita Tiffany of Key West, Fla. We are very glad to have them join us and we hope their school days are as pleasant as ours.

I'm sure that each of you that have been in the library lately have noticed that it is looking better. Some of the librarians are working real hard to keep it straight. We have a nice looking library and let's keep it that way.

The freshmen home ec girls are learning to sew this month. Everywhere you look you see a box, pattern, thread, material, etc. We wish them much luck with their garments.

Not much has been said about the Ne-Po-No-Ca-Hi Staff in this column this year, but I'm sure we are all aware of their fine work on our school newspaper. This is a project of the junior class with assistants from the 10th grade.

The bulletin board downstairs in the main hall looks very pretty this week. Miss Bateman's sixth grade was in charge and it consists of water color pictures of flags.

Spring is in the air and baseball practice has begun. The team is made up of the following boys: Eugene Edwards, James Small, Jimmy Stewart, Berlyn Temple, Gilbert Garner, Bill Dugee Jr., Jackie Wade, Delance Mann, Ward Kellum, Reuben Lilly and O'Neal Pelletier. Under the fine coaching of Mr. Bob King, we're sure they'll win many games.

Meet Miss Senior
Miss Senior is Inez Slaughter, daughter of Mrs. A. J. Slaughter. Inez is very active in the senior

Table in Highway Causes Wreck; Two Hospitalized

Salem, Ore. (AP)—Two cars and a dining room table collapsed and two people went to the hospital. Richard A. Fawcett, Salem, told state police he jammed on his brakes when he came upon the table on the highway. His car spun around and crashed into a car going in the opposite direction.

War Surpluses Could be Blessing In Disguise, Says Val Peterson

America's vast farm surpluses could be a blessing in disguise if war should come, Federal Civil Defense Administrator Val Peterson told the first meeting of the National Advisory Council on Rural Civil Defense in Washington recently.

Peterson emphasized that "a year's supply of everything edible, properly stored in the United States as a wartime emergency supply, makes sense from a civil defense standpoint."

He said this is "because the great commercial food stocks of America are down in the target areas and they won't be in existence the minute the bomb goes off... And it won't be long until we have cleaned the shelves of the grocery stores."

Peterson said he had talked to one food adviser who had told him the bulk food couldn't be used in that form, but that C-rations, K-rations or other concentrates would have to be stored for emergency.

"That would be a lot nicer," the FCDA administrator said, "but money is scarce, and it may be we are going to have to use bulk items."

Top farm leaders at the February meeting also proposed that food surpluses be stored for use by city evacuees in a CD emergency. The committee report, read by Gordon K. Zimmerman of the National Guard, also urged stockpiling of gasoline and spare parts for farm machinery.

Among other farm leaders attending the conference were James G. Patton and Angus McDonald of the National Farmers Union.

Council members agreed to hold their next meeting at FCDA National Headquarters at Battle Creek, Mich.

Paid in Blood

Dallas, N. C. (AP)—Prisoners at the Dallas Prison Camp were offered 21 days off their terms for a pint of blood. All 83 prisoners accepted the offer and contributed blood to the Gaston County Blood Bank.

A highlight of the meeting will be a rural attack exercise. Rural leaders attending will cope with a simulated attack on the United States. They will make decisions on how to alert the rural population of a county to fallout danger, and how to feed and handle a flood of refugees from a nearby target city.

Stutterers Form Club
Austin, Tex. (AP)—Stutterers at the University of Texas, believing self-ridicule is one of the best forms of treatment, have organized themselves into The Spit and Sputter Literary Society. The society meets weekly and members take turns serving as chairman.
