Church Services Introduce Easter; Eighth Graders Prepare UN Exhibit

By LENA NEWSOME
The past week of revivals in Morehead could not have come at a better time. While our hearts are still warm from the wonderful messages we have heard, the Easter season, with all of its beauty and glory, has come upon us.
When we were little children Easter meant Easter baskets, colored eggs, and egg hunts on a grassy lawn. Now that we are older, Easter has taken on a deeper, more spiritual meaning. We give more thought to the why of Easter instead of the trimmings.
We realize that Easter is a celebration of right over wrong—the resurrection of Jesus—a symbol of all that we believe in and all that we hope to become.
Naturally, our thoughts turn to pretty clothes and holidays from school. But let us not allow these to overshadow the real, true meaning of Easter.
We of MCHS were very fortunate last week to have two visiting ministers, Dr. Douglas Branch and Dr. Henry Hitt Crane, speak to us. Both men were wonderful speakers and their messages have inspired all of us.
Dr. Branch is minister of the First Baptist Church of Rocky Mount. His message was on the building of the house of our character.
Dr. Crane, minister of the Central Methodist Church of Detroit, Mich., spoke to us on the narrow way that leads to a broad life.

The eighth grade of Morehead City School, in connection with their studies on the United Nations, prepared a colorful and informative exhibit which was displayed in the hall of our school.
The students drew a world map with New York as the center and showed colored lines reaching out to each country which is a member of the UN. They assembled a miniature UN building, collected cards showing scenes of New York, the home of the UN, and ordered flags of the various UN countries. Dolls, dressed in the costumes of different countries, were also displayed.
The Kissing Link, a three-act comedy, has been chosen as the junior play to be presented April 13. The play was picked by the junior class and their director, Mrs. Grace Walence.
This is an unusual farce, full of fast and furious action. The plot revolves around Penelope Link, who wants to be an author. She is told by the editors that her love scenes are forced and artificial.
Immediately she decides to kiss every man on the place in hopes of achieving emotional depth for her writing. No man is immune, and this starts all the trouble that she encounters. The characters are as follows:
Terry Lowe, Penelope Link (Penny), an ugly duckling who wants to be an author; Barbara Williams, Mrs. Alicia Link, her stepmother; Johnny McBride, Johnny Miller, a breezy young college student.
Billy Rich, Peter Wetherill, Miss Winona Wetherill's long-suffering nephew; Mildred Wheaton, Penny's aunt from Nevada; Watson Morris, X. Y. Zilch, a dumb detective; Grover Smithwick, Godfrey Gayheart, an ex-movie actor.
Joyce Robinson, Susan Piggot, a peppery cook; Lois Becton, Linda Link, Penny's half sister; James humor? Well, how was it on March 21 when the student body was in assembly and suddenly there was a loud bang? In my opinion if you thought this incident funny you are either the guilty party or someone who doesn't mind if our school gets a bad name. After assembly was over, it was found that a firecracker had been set off in the right-hand corner. More TEEN TOPICS on Page 7
