

Mrs. Moran Demonstrates Flower Arrangements

Mrs. Frank Moran gave a demonstration of everyday ideas in flower arrangements at the Garden and Civic Club meeting Wednesday afternoon at the civic center.

Mrs. Moran displayed arrangements of pansies, roses, iris, forget-me-nots, and daisies, in sea shells and tea cups. She also showed methods of making flowers last longer.

Mrs. Florrie Arthur presented a slate of officers for next fall which were unanimously voted in. Mrs. F. C. Salisbury will be chairman. Mrs. Margaret Greenwood is first vice-chairman.

Mrs. M. J. Loutit is second vice-chairman. Mrs. C. R. Davant will be treasurer, and Mrs. G. D. Gamble will be secretary.

The department voted to donate $25 towards the beautification of the Morehead City High School grounds, and also decided to order 100 calendars for next fall.

Mrs. E. A. Council, chairman, presided. The meeting was opened with the club collect and the singing of Old North State, with Mrs. Joe House, Beaufort, as pianist.

Hostesses were Mrs. W. P. Freeman, Mrs. Arthur, Mrs. Salisbury, and Mrs. Sam Adler. They served block ice cream, nuts, and cake.

Four Hostesses Honor Miss Corinne Webb

Mrs. Bruce Willis and Mrs. James Morton Davis honored Miss Corinne Webb Wednesday night with a kitchen shower at the home of Mrs. Willis. Spring flowers decorated the den and living room.

Upon their arrival Mrs. D. B. Webb and Mrs. P. H. Geer, mothers of the bride and groom, were presented corsages of carnations. Miss Webb's corsage was a clever arrangement of kitchen accessories on a spatula.

The hostesses presented the honor guest with a piece of silver and a blanket. Mrs. A. H. McDonald was the winner of the bridal contest.

The 24 guests were served ice cream sodas, cookies, and nuts.

Mrs. Gene Bowen and her mother, Mrs. W. C. Hardy, were hostesses to honor Miss Webb at a shower Monday night at Mrs. Bowen's home, 913 Fisher St.

Upon their arrival the bride-to-be and her mother were presented corsages of white and red carnations. The bride was presented a gift of china.

The hostesses served block ice cream, cake, nuts, and mints.

Mrs. Ball Will Head Literary, Art Department

An election of officers was held at the Literary and Art Department meeting of the Woman's Club Tuesday night at the civic center. Mrs. George Ball was elected chairman and will assume office in the fall.

Mrs. Gus Davis will be vice-chairman. Mrs. Milton Roush is secretary and Mrs. S. A. Horton is treasurer. Meeting dates for next year will be Tuesday afternoons.

Mrs. Earl Murdoch, Wildwood, presented the program, a talk on Germany. Mrs. Murdoch compared the German way of living to the American life and displayed pottery and Bavarian china.

Mrs. A. F. Chestnut, chairman, presided and requested members to consider the possibility of helping improve the Morehead City High School grounds.

Mrs. Thornton Hostess To Wednesday Club

Mrs. Herbert Thornton was hostess to the Wednesday Bridge Club this week at her home, 213 Florida Ave. Her special guests were Mrs. Charles Canfield and Mrs. W. L. Brady.

Mrs. Harvey Hamilton Sr. was the winner of the high score. Mrs. Robert W. Taylor won second high and Mrs. S. W. Thompson Jr. won low.

Mrs. Thornton served potato chips, toasted bacon rinds, pickles, brownies, nuts and colas. Mrs. Taylor will be hostess when the club meets again.

Mrs. Branch Announces Price of Benefit Tickets

Mrs. Paul Branch, general chairman of the approaching card party benefit and May festival, sponsored by the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, announces that tickets for the event will be $1.50.

This price is slightly higher than in previous years because all refreshments, except cold drinks will be served free, explained Mrs. Branch. Each person attending is eligible for all door prizes.

In addition to a table prize for table winners, souvenirs will be given, such as cigarettes and decks of cards. The cards are donated by Parker Motors.

Mrs. W. W. Pittman, Havelock, was last year's winner of the door prize, a car. Other prize winners included Mr. Al Dewey, Mr. B. O. Ketner, Mr. S. Adams, and Mrs. Julia Tenney. Twenty-five other prizes were won.

Tickets may be obtained from any auxiliary member.

Mrs. D. G. Bell Presents Wesleyan Guild Program

Mrs. D. G. Bell presented the program when the Wesleyan Guild met Monday night at the home of Mrs. Mamie Taylor. The title was Wives for Christ in Other Lands, depicting the plight of the Indian, Korean, and Malayan women.

Club members, who recently presented Miss Bettie Harker with a TV set, voted to send Miss Harker a check for the $25 remaining in that fund. Mrs. Al Dewey is donating dinners for a month for Miss Harper to be delivered by guild members.

Projects for next year were suggested and left open for discussion at the next meeting. Miss Ruth Willis, president, presided. Mrs. Ethan Davis gave the devotional. The guild ritual opened the meeting.

Refreshments of cake, nuts, and colas were served.

Parkview WMU Meets With Mrs. Carl Paxton

Mrs. Carl Paxton was hostess Monday night to the Woman's Missionary Union of the Parkview Woman's Missionary Society. The activities of committees were discussed and the work of the community missions for the month of May were planned.

Mrs. Doris Herring presented the program, taken from the Royal Service Magazine. She led the devotional from Matthew 28.

Mrs. Lloyd Taylor was appointed prayer chairman. Mrs. Lester Turnage and Mrs. Lonnie Barber were welcomed as new members. The meeting was closed with a prayer.

Students to Attend Social Event Next Friday Night

The annual banquet and dance given by the Morehead City High School juniors in honor of the seniors will be held in the recreation building Friday night, April 27, 1956.

The banquet will begin at 7 p.m., and the dance which starts at 9 p.m. will continue until 12 midnight.

This will terminate all school-sponsored and sanctioned activities in connection with the event, announces Lenwood Lee, principal. The recreation building has been procured by the school for these hours only.

Son Arrives

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Fulcher, Morehead City, announce the birth of a son, William Lewis III, Wednesday at the Morehead City Hospital. The baby weighed 8 pounds 5 1/2 ounces. Mr. Fulcher is a student at State College. Mrs. Fulcher is the former Margaret Klein of Lockport, N. Y.
