Anything Goes, Musical, Opens at City Sunday

Anything Goes, playing at the City Theatre Sunday and Monday promises to be a wonderfully happy package of solid entertainment for every member of the family.

With Bing Crosby, Donald O'Connor, Jeanmaire, Mitzl Gaynor, and Phil Harris providing an impressive cast, and six of Cole Porter's greatest songs plus three new ones by Sammy Cahn and James Van Heusen, the picture is something to look forward to.

The story is based on one of Broadway's warm and hilarious all-time hits. It revolves around the adventures of musical comedy stars Crosby and O'Connor as they comb London and Paris for a leading lady for their new show and get themselves involved in a mad-mix-up by signing two girls for the one role.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, John Wayne and Susan Hayward star in The Conqueror, story of Temujin, at the Beaufort Theatre. At the City Tuesday and Wednesday John Hodiak and Virginia Leith star in On the Threshold of Space, the story of the Stratoflyers of the U.S. Air Force who challenge time, speed and human endurance.

These flyers bail out at super-sonic speeds, ride rocket-jets at 1,000 miles an hour and make balloon-gondola ascents to heights never reached before.

Edmund Gwenn and John Forsythe star in The Trouble With Harry at the Beaufort on Wednesday.

The Morehead City Theatre will celebrate its grand opening on Wednesday, and will feature from Wednesday to Friday one of the year's biggest musicals, Meet Me in Las Vegas.

Dan Dailey and Cyd Charisse head a parade of top show business names.

Laid against backgrounds of America's favorite playground, the picture unfolds the romance of a carefree Nevada rancher and a glamorous dancer, who find that love and luck go hand-in-hand when they hold hands.

Burt Lancaster and Anna Magnani star in Rose Tatoo at the City Thursday and Friday. Miss Magnani won the Academy Award for her performance in this film.

Danny Kaye stars in The Court Jester Thursday and Friday at the Beaufort.

At the City Saturday Robert Mitchum stars in River of No Return and Kent Taylor is featured in Track the Man Down.

The doublefeature at the Beaufort Saturday is Walt Disney's Davy Crockett, King of the Wild Frontier and Jean Peters and Jeffrey Hunter in Lure of the Wilderness.

At the Morehead Saturday Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis star in The Caddy and Gary Cooper is the star of Garden of Evil.—HHS.
