Senior Class Dedicates Annual, Mainsail, to Mrs. Mary Sue Noe

By SHIRLEY PINER

Hi folks! Once more we bring you news from Beaufort High. With things jumping and all of us rushing like we are, you'd think graduation was tomorrow, but really, it is right around the corner. Well, let's turn back the hands of the grandfather clock and see what has happened these past few days.

They are here! The Beaufort annual "The Mainsail" has finally arrived. It's just like we told you it would be, beautiful. We wish it were possible to describe it to you but it's not. All the seniors are plumb thrilled to death with it too.

In chapel Tuesday, the editor-in-chief of the Mainsail, Peggy Williams, presented an annual to Mrs. Mary Sue Noe, to whom we dedicated it. The dedication reads as follows: "We began our High School Days with her, and she with us by teaching. Our class has battled rough and stormy seas together, but always her firm grasp has reached down, ready and eager to pull us to the top."

"She has shared our heartaches with sympathy and our happiness with joy. She has understood our troubles and problems and has encouraged, taught, influenced and loved us; and most of all, she has given us her friendship."

"As a token of our love and gratitude, we, the graduating class of 1956, dedicate our yearbook, the Mainsail, to Mrs. Mary Sue Noe." All of the seniors have missed Mrs. Noe very much since December. You remember she left to await the blessed event, but we think of her often and we know that all the moments we've shared together will be remembered.

Also during chapel the basketball letters were awarded. The girls who had received letters before were presented with gold bars. They were Annette Lawrence, Rae Frances Hassell, Jerri Bodiford, Peggy Williams and Shirley Piner. Those receiving letters for the first time were Vonda Goodwin and Winkie Willis.

The girls receiving certificates were Catherine Potter, Jean Chadwick, Sylvia Dudley, Sue Webb, Judy Moore and Florence Austin. Jane Saffrit was also presented with a letter for being such a dependable manager.

The boys were also given their letters. The boys who had received letters before got gold bars. They were Jimmy Davis, Ed Willis, Jimmy Owens, Terry Nance and George Martin. Raymond Gillikin also received a letter. Those receiving certificates were Dicky Moore, Allen Windley, Charles Smith, Larry Kirk and Alex Copeland.

On behalf of THE NEWS-TIMES, Hal Shapiro presented to Jimmy Davis, a member of the first team of the All-Seashore conference, an award. We are proud of Jimmy and all our other athletes. Mr. Tarkington pointed out that over 50 per cent of the girl basketball players were in the Beta Club.

Thursday grades 7 through 12 assembled in the auditorium for a magic show. Who do you think the magician was? Why Jimmy Owens, of course.

He pretended to be an outside guest and because we, the students didn't expect it to be him, we just rolled out of our seats from laughter. Jimmy was a howling success and the tricks he did were marvelous.

He did card tricks and had Bruce Congelton, Douglas Piner and Bruce Cayton jumping out of their seats, because the seats were hot. Jimmy is a mighty fine magician and is really a credit to our school. The program he gave us was one of the best this year.

Twenty of our seniors who are members or attend the First Baptist Church in Beaufort, were presented with a book, "Right or Wrong," by the church Sunday.

Receiving the books were Kenneth Swain, Ralph Eubanks, Bobby White, James Graham, Louis Iverson, Jimmy Davis, Terry Nance, Andrew Searle, Jannette Privott, Nina Kirk, Judy Johnson, Agatha Gillikin, Mary Congelton, Bonnie Brinson, Sylvia Harrell, Shelia Loughton, John Basden,

Shirley Piner

Anne Spivey, Jerri Bodiford and Shirley Piner. Those of us who received the book thank the church and we know that the book will help us with our many problems.

The high school is very sorry that Miss Gladys Chadwick is sick. We miss her very much and wish her a speedy recovery. Mrs. Woodard, who has been substituting for her has been doing a wonderful job and we hope that we students are working hard so that Miss Chadwick will be proud of the work we have accomplished during her absence.

Friday the student body assembled in the auditorium for the nomination of student council officers for the coming year. The nominations were as follows: president, Charles Smith, Horace Swain, Dicky Moore, Nancy Broda and Rae Frances Hassell; vice-president, H. D. Paul, Larry Kirk, Alex Copeland, Tommy Jones, Danny Willis and Bronna Willis.

Secretary, Paula Hill, Linda Salter, Pauline Woodard, Billy Jean Skarren, Larry Dudley and Bunnie Moore; treasurer, Catherine Potter, Jane Saffrit, Jackie Young, Sandra Haskins, Annie Faye Taylor, Linda Fodrie and Hugh Fulcher.

At lunchtime all high school students had to register in order that they might vote on Monday. Campaigning began and the spirit of Beaufort School rose and it really proved that we were alive.

The result of the Monday voting is as follows: Horace Swain will be president of the student council next year. We feel that he will do a great job and that his leadership will be a great asset to the school. There was a three way tie for vice-president; H. D. Paul, Larry Kirk and Alex Copeland. Tied for secretary were Linda Salter and Pauline Woodard and tied for treasurer were Catherine Potter and Jackie Young.

The student body voted again on Tuesday and here is the result of the voting. Vice-president, H. D. Paul; secretary, Pauline Woodard and treasurer, Jackie Young. Congratulations to these new officers. We feel sure that with them, a successful year will be the result.

Meet Mrs. Senior
Meet Mrs. Marie Lawrence Lewis, who was born on Jan. 2, 1935 to Mr. and Mrs. Iver J. Lawrence. Marie's favorite food is southern fried chicken, her favorite subject is chemistry and her favorite sport is basketball. Marie said her pet peeve is onions.

Marie was married on Aug. 20, 1955 and she plans to be the perfect housewife when she graduates.

Meet Mr. Senior
Meet Louis Iverson, who was born Dec. 21, 1934, on a very cold day, to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Iverson.

His favorite food is spaghetti and meat balls, his favorite sport is basketball and his favorite subject is physics. Louis says he remembers playing in the snow and having snowball fights with his brother who, he said, always got the best of him.

Louis says there are two things he can't stand, two-faced people and jello. Louis plans to go in the service after graduation.
