Straits MYF Elects New Officers at Monday Meeting

Presbyterians Plan New Campaign for Spring

Officers of the First Presbyterian Church, Morehead City, authorized the start of a new building fund campaign in the spring of 1957.

The building funds was started in January 1954 with $1,728 and grew to $101,612. To date, $96,481 has been invested in buildings and property. The fellowship hall, the first completed unit in the building program, was consecrated in July.

The church stands 21st in per capita giving among North Carolina Presbyterians with $151.62 per member in 1955.

Patsy Chadwick was elected president of the Straits Methodist Youth Fellowship at its meeting Monday night.

Other officers are Patricia Davis, vice-president; Brenda Watson, secretary; Jerry Whitehurst, treasurer; Mary Ellen Chasteen, reporter; and Miss Chasteen and James Mears, recreation chairmen.

The MYF and interested friends will attend a weiner roast and watermelon cutting Monday night at the ferry dock. Plans for the affair were made at this week's meeting.

Miss Chasteen was selected as delegate to the annual MYF conference at Duke University Aug. 13-18.

The MYF has been quite active recently. Three picnics have been held, membership has increased, and the following junior MYF members have joined the senior group: Alice Chadwick, Brenda Watson, Patsy Chadwick and Patricia Davis.

Outgoing officers of the MYF are Dorothy Chadwick, president; Marion Chasteen, vice-president; Mary Ellen Chasteen, secretary; Jerry Whitehurst, treasurer; and Dennis Hutchings, Dorothy Chadwick and Mary Ellen Chasteen, reporters.
