J. O. Chapman to Serve 30 Days in Town Jail

The only defendant in Monday's Morehead City Recorder's Court who received a jail sentence was James Oscar Chapman. Chapman was sentenced to 30 days in the city jail working under the supervision of the superintendent of streets.

He was charged with public drunkenness and violating conditions of a previous suspended sentence. The 15-day suspended sentence will run with the 30-day term.

Chapman also paid fines in a July 9 decision against him.

Leonard Ground, charged with molesting and threatening the life of Robert A. Woodcock and members of his family, is still under observation at a military hospital. The case was dropped from the docket until a later date.

Biggest fine of the session, $200, was levied against Herbert Howell for driving while under the influence of intoxicants or narcotics. The fine was one condition of a suspended sentence. Other conditions were two years' good behavior and not driving for two years.

Pays $100, Costs
John Tidwell paid $100 and costs for driving while under the influence of intoxicants or narcotics and without an operator's license. He was ordered by the court not to drive for a period of one year.

In a drunk and disorderly charge against George Dudley, the court declared the charge to be malicious and taxed Emanuel Dudley, prosecuting witness, costs.

In another case George Dudley posted $100 bond and requested a jury trial on a second charge of riotous and disorderly conduct.

Robert David Wray appealed the court's order that he pay $15 and costs on a count of careless and reckless driving. He posted bond and will be tried in a higher court.

Bond Forfeited
Mrs. Gerald Whitley, bondsman for Maurice Chadwick, will be required to pay $50, Judge Herbert Phillips said. Chadwick has not paid court costs levied against him last October.

Edwin Wright Tenney paid $25 and costs for driving after his license had expired and for failing to stop for a stop sign. The full $25 fine will be returned if Tenney presents a valid license within two weeks.

Eddie Lee Howell was charged $15 and costs for careless and reckless driving.

Those taxed costs for speeding were George S. Taylor, Richard S. Dranga, Robert F. Foy Jr., William F. Dolan, and Thaddeus Homer Robbins.

Cases against Cecil Bell, possession of liquor for sale, and Arthur E. Bubar, allowing an unlicensed person to drive, were dropped.

Those whose cases were continued were Benny Willis, Carlton Pittman, McDonald Nelson, Maurice Chadwick, Bennie Murray, Garland Royal, Harvey Lewis, William Guthrie, and Kenneth Guthrie.

Scout Leaders Plan Course At Atlantic

Girl Scout leaders of Atlantic troops met at the House Boat Inn Tuesday night. The meeting, called by the neighborhood chairman, Mrs. H. F. Webb, was attended by the following leaders: Mrs. Jack Johnson, Mrs. Alvin Harris, Mrs. Odie Fulcher, Mrs. Gerald Fulcher, Mrs. Monnie Nelson, and Mrs. Marvin Rice.

Plans were made for a leadership training course for leaders and committee members. It will be held in Atlantic the week of Sept. 10. The course will be conducted by Mrs. Eleanor Morse and Mrs. Hugh Porter, district directors of the Girl Scout Council of Coastal Carolina. Credit will be given for hours of training received.

The leaders decided to hold the course in the new Scout Building on the Methodist Church property in Atlantic during the hours of 10-12 a.m. and 1-3 p.m.

They also agreed to invite parents of Scouts to sit in on any part of the training course they found it convenient to attend, and to make a determined effort to recruit leaders from other towns in the eastern section of the county to attend the course and prepare to start troops in their respective communities.

The annual fund drive was discussed and tentative plans made for solicitation of funds.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. Webb.

Meeting Postponed

The Merrimon Home Demonstration Club will not meet Monday, Labor Day, but will meet instead at 2 p.m. Monday, Sept. 10, at the home of Mrs. George Pittman.
