Guard Unit Presents Gift

The framed scroll, I am the Guard, is presented to Mayor George W. Dill of Morehead City as official representative of the town. Second from left is Moses Howard, chairman of the county board of commissioners, who also accepted a framed scroll on behalf of the county. At the right is Lt. Merritt Bridgman, commanding officer of the Morehead City National Guard unit. Between Mr. Howard and Lieutenant Bridgman is J. A. DuBois, manager of the Morehead City Chamber of Commerce.

Harvey Lewis Gets Six-Month Term

Harvey Lewis, Morehead City, drew a six-month sentence in Morehead City Recorder's Court yesterday. He was charged with stealing a pickup truck, driving drunk and driving without a license. The 1950 truck was owned by McDonald Willis and was taken from in front of Willis's produce stand at 7th and Arendell Streets, Morehead City, Saturday night. Police said that Lewis returned the truck several hours later, jumped out and ran. About an hour later, he was apprehended by Sgt. Elmer Veitch Jr. and Sergeant Buckles of the Morehead City military police detachment.

Not Enough Stools
Philadelphia (AP)—A downtown luncheonette has only a few stools for its patrons. It also has a large sign: "Occupancy by more than 394 persons is dangerous and unlawful."

291,474 Visit Fort Macon Park

Fort Macon had a total of 291,474 visitors from the first of June through the last of August. Smith Ray, park superintendent, said 162,736 visited the fort itself; 27,520 came to swim, and 19,938 used the picnic facilities.

He estimated that 13,600 fishermen used park beaches.

The swimming area closed last night, but other areas of the park are still open to the public. "No Swimming" signs have been placed along the beach, and patrols will frequently check the area to see that no one is in the water.

No one drowned at the park beach this year, and authorities are anxious to see a perfect season. Last year two teenagers drowned when they swam outside the marked swimming area.

The picnic area will be open as long as the weather permits. The fort is open year-round.
