

Gladys Thomas Circle Honors Bride of June

Mrs. Larry Moore, bride of June and who was formerly Miss Helen Lewis, was honored at a shower Thursday evening by the Gladys Thomas Circle of the Marshallberg Baptist Church in the community house.

Bridal games were diversion with prizes going to Mrs. Anne Salter, Mrs. Eula Gillikin and Mrs. Virginia Smith who in turn presented them to the honoree.

The hostess had arranged an attractive setting of summer flowers and a lovely bride's table with greenery and a miniature umbrella decorated with the white and green. Over the table on which the gifts were placed hung a large umbrella decorated in the green and white which was overturned as she began opening her gifts. She was showered with more packages from the forty friends and relatives present.

A dessert course was served with punch, mints, cake and nuts. Lined ice was donated for the shower by the Maola Ice Cream Co.

The honoree wore a lavender and white voile dress and was presented a corsage of lavender flowers. Her mother, Mrs. Lucille Lewis, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Verena Carol Brazie, were presented with corsages also.

During the evening Mrs. Anne Salter played the piano, and Miss Marguerite Lewis read a comical write-up of the shower, inserting adjectives supplied by the guests not knowing what or who they were describing.
