Tonight's the Big Game; Seniors Choose Superlatives Tuesday

By JEAN CHADWICK

'Allo everybody! In bringing you this week's news from BHS, it's needless to say a lot about our next game, tonight. Since this game means more to most of us than any other, it would be best to get an early start if you expect to get a seat.

For all of you who have made bets on your team, I'd like to say, "Keep your fingers crossed because we all surely can't win." From our whole school, "Best of Luck," is given. We're behind you all the way, team.

Jean Chadwick

In Prayer Group last Friday Miss W. L. Bell spoke on "Fellowship." The program last week was based on Fellowship. It is to be continued this week also.

During activity period Tuesday, the seniors had a class meeting. The reason for this meeting was to elect the senior superlatives. They were elected as follows: Best All Around, Rae Frances Hassell and Dicky Moore; Neatest, Best Dressed, Donna Lewis and Shirley Pittman and Dicky Moore; Most Outstanding, Rae Frances Hassell and Dicky Moore.

Prettiest Eyes, Rita Mason and John Chaplain; Prettiest Hair, Donna Lewis and Hugh Fulcher; Most Dependable, Rae Frances Hassell and Charles Smith; Most Athletic, Vonda Goodwin and Dicky Moore; Best Figure, Best Physique, Shirley Pittman and Dicky Moore.

Most Likely To Succeed, Rae Frances Hassell and Charles Smith; Most Talented, Catherine Potter and Allen Windley; Best Sport, Vonda Goodwin and John Chaplain; Best Personality, Rae Frances Hassell and Jackie Chaplain; and The Cutest, Jean Chadwick and Bobby Merrill.

This is only a part of the annual but the rest is coming along successfully.

On Wednesday the new officers and members of the FHA wore white dresses for the installation of officers and the candlelight initiation for the new members.

The lunch tickets, costing seventy-five cents, for the FHA Rally on Oct. 13 must be paid for on or before Monday, Oct. 1. At the rally Beaufort has charge of the devotion. We are using the same one used at the Chicago convention on love. Also Jackie Young has the spot announcement on publications.

Ann Davis is in the "All District Chorus." Letters have been sent to all of the Chapters in District II urging them to elect Jackie Young as 1956-57 North Carolina State Historian.

The Beta Club is selling cards, stockings and stationery this year. We will be on Front Street each Saturday until Christmas. This money is to be given to some worthy senior. We hope to raise enough for a $250 scholarship. The Tri-Hi-Y is selling notebook paper. It can be purchased in Miss Duncan's room.

If you are in need of any of these things, buy them from our clubs and help the school as you help yourself.

At our FHA dance last Friday night, Mrs. Lionel C. Smith chaperoned. We would like to thank her for helping to make our dance possible.

During activity period Tuesday the Student Council held its first meeting for the year. After discussing the business, we elected three members who will go to the Student Council Convention in Wilmington on the 21st. Horace Swain, president, will automatically go. The other two are Charles Smith and H. D. Paul. Their expenses are paid by the Student Council.
