This way you can get
Florida's peak season
orange juice now!

Last season when Florida's groves were ripening their sweetest oranges, we were thinking of you. Thinking how you'd love the juice of those oranges later on, when the peak season was past.

So we squeezed the pick of the crop; concentrated the juice; stashed it away.

Now, today, Kraft has peak season orange juice for you—brought back to original strength, sealed in cartons, delivered fresh like milk. Taste Kraft's!
