

The Rev. William Horton Heads W. S. King PTA

The Parent-Teacher Association of the W. S. King High School met at the school Monday night, Oct. 15, 1956, with the Rev. A. Jones presiding.

A large number of parents were present. We are asking all parents and friends to make it a habit to attend the PTA meetings every third Monday night of each month, time 8 p.m.

Membership cards for the National Congress of Colored Parents and Teachers are now available. The street agents will bring them to any parent or persons wishing to have one, the price is 15 cents.

New officers were elected at the last meeting and they are as follows: president, the Rev. William Horton; first vice-president, Rufus Clemmons; second vice-president, Mrs. A. Dennis; third vice-president, Cecil Walker.

Chaplain, Mrs. Louvenia Tootle; secretary, Mrs. Isadore Haynie; treasurer, Mrs. Ethel Allen. Publicity officer, J. R. Thompson; sergeant-at-arms, Isaac Tillery assisted by Mrs. E. H. Hill; chairman of program committee, Mrs. M. Clemmons.

A very high tribute was given the outgoing president, Mr. Jones, by the principal, S. R. McLendon. Mr. Jones has served as an efficient president for many years. He has worked faithfully with us when conditions were favorable and unfavorable.

He was always ready and willing to help the PTA and friends of the school, stated Mr. McLendon. Mr. Jones will serve on the executive committee as past president.

Mr. Horton, in receiving his office, gave brief remarks, saying that he would strive to do his best for the PTA and community.

The Street Agents reported: Newport Route 1, $4.50; East Bay and Avery St., $14.20; Bay View Homes, $2.85; Fisher and Bridges, $5.29; Cross Streets, $5.75; and West Bay St., 60 cents, making a total of $33.19.

Cafeteria report: Samuel Fenderson, $25.45; and Mrs. Elsie Reese, $22.36, making a total of $47.81. Total receipts for the evening were $81.

The main objective of the PTA this year is to support the school lunchroom.

A more detailed report about our lunchroom will be given in a future edition, along with the names of our street agents.

W. S. KING SCHOOL NEWS

By Fannie L. May
Hi there, Friends.
I have more W. S. King School News for you. First off:

The freshman class presented a very interesting program at our regular assembly meeting Friday. Their topic was "Fire Prevention."

Since we were stressing "Fire Prevention" their program, fell right in line. As we all know, Friday, Oct. 12, was the celebration of the "Discovery of America" and a short paper was read about Columbus.

The Dramatics Club, under the direction of Miss R. L. Dudley held its first meeting of the school year Wednesday, Oct. 17, at 1 the officers for this school year were chosen.

The officers are president, Guyula Dudley; vice-president, Doris Tootle; secretary, Vivian Henderson; financial secretary, Elnor Brant; treasurer, Gloria Benton; and business manager, Horace Moore. We also decided on the dues that each member is obligated to pay.

The Science Club, under the direction of Miss D. M. Carraway, held its first meeting Wednesday, Oct. 17. They elected officers as follows: president, Ben Williams; vice-president, Bobby Howard; treasurer, Henry Pickett; business manager, Isaac Williams, and sergeant-at-arms, Anthony Dudley.

The members of the senior class are working earnestly to make their annual, the first annual of the W. S. King School, a success. You can do your part by advertising in the annual. There are not only advertisements for public businesses and organizations but personal ads too.

The patrols are now in the midst of a drive to raise money for raincoats, belts and badges. If anyone is interested in helping the patrols, please notify Mr. J. R. Thompson.

We have extended the protection for our students by placing patrols at the corner of 15th Street. Our patrols could operate more efficiently if they only had a paved street running past our school.

The officers of the patrol are as follows: sponsor, Mr. J. R. Thompson; director, Henry Pickett; publicity manager, Benjamin A. Williams; secretary, Peggy Brewington.

Assistant secretary, Doris Tootle; captain, Horace Moore; first lieutenant, Curlie Becton; and second lieutenant, James Parmley.

Oct. 24—A number of relatives and friends from this community attended the funeral of Mrs. Walter Goodwin at Cedar Island this past weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Goodwin of Beaufort and his mother, Mrs. Mollie Emory Goodwin, of Oriental visited Mrs. Sophia Lupton Friday night.

Mr. Allen Lupton arrived this weekend from Cameron, La.

Mr. and Mrs. James Willis, Mrs. Sophia Lupton, Mrs. Guy Daniels and Mrs. Julia Pake attended the Primitive Baptist Association at Otway this past weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Taylor of Crab Point visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank McIntosh Sunday night.

Mrs. Hazel Mason and daughter, Mary Lee, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Pake Sunday.

Mrs. Emily Parkin of Beaufort visited Mrs. Julia Pake Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jordan and two sons, formerly of Goldsboro, are spending some time here with his mother, Mrs. Ella Pitman, while Mr. Jordan is employed at Cherry Point.

Mrs. Susan Day of Morehead City spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. James Willis.

Mr. Charlie Ferrier, who spent the past two weeks here, left Saturday for Palm Beach, Fla., where he has employment.

Mr. Baker Lupton, who spent a week at Cameron, La., arrived here

Friday morning, leaving Saturday for his home in Suffolk, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Lupton and son, James, who spent the summer months at Cameron, La., arrived home the past weekend.

Mr. Earl Fulcher spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Willis. Mrs. Fulcher and two children are visiting her mother at Jacksonville, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. James Willis spent part of last week at Cedar Island, on account of the illness and death of his sister, Mrs. Walter Goodwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Pake attended the funeral of Mr. Nelson Arthur at North River Sunday afternoon.

Miss Regina Pake spent Saturday night with Miss Mary Lee Mason at Atlantic.

Mr. and Mrs. William Willis and son of Beaufort visited her mother here last week.

From an estimated 17,100,000 in 1936 the number of musical instruments owned by Americans has grown to 28,600,000.

Ocracoke

Improvement of Ocracoke Inlet. The hearing is before the U. S. District Engineers. The Ocracoke Civic Club will be represented.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Wahab will leave Wednesday to attend the Democratic Rally in Washington, N. C., Thursday, and will go from there to Oriental to attend the Saturday morning meeting there.

Mr. and Mrs. David F. O'Neal and children, and Miss Sherry O'Neal visited Beaufort and Washington, N. C. recently.

Sgt. Sigma Willis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Willis, is home from Fort Bragg on leave for a week, after which he will report to the Army Language School at Monterey, Cal., for a year's training there.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin O'Neal Sr., Calvin Jr. and Ikey D. O'Neal will leave this week for Wilmington, Del., where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. David Styron and family, and Ocracoke high school students who went up to Raleigh to attend the State Fair on Friday, returned to Beaufort Saturday evening, and to Ocracoke via mailboat on Sunday. Concensus among them was that they preferred the sands of Ocracoke to the red-mud of the fair grounds. But all had a good time both at the fair and during the whole trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie McWilliams had as their guests this past weekend Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Farrow and family of Washington, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. David F. O'Neal and children, and Miss Sherry O'Neal visited Beaufort and Washington, N. C. recently.

Here to attend the meeting of the All-Seashore Highway Association Saturday night were Joe DuBois, secretary, Morehead City; Mrs. Alice Strickland, acting vice-president, of the Wilmington district; Glenn Tucker of Carolina Beach, past-president and director from the third district; J. Boyd Jones, business manager of Carolina Beach; Mrs. Bessie Howard, of Ocracoke, director from the third district, and Wayland Sermons, of Washington, N. C., who represented his sister, Mrs. Lucille Purser of Nags Head, vice-president from the first district.

R. Stanley Wahab of Ocracoke, president of the Association, presided over the meeting, which was held at Silver Lake Inn. In addition to the officers and directors present, several local members of the association attended. Mr. DuBois presented a survey of the achievements of the association to date, namely improvement of mosquito control, the initiation of legislation to maintain local waterways, various items of publicity, and the support of a first link in the All-Seashore Highway on Ocracoke Island.

Others who addressed the meeting on a variety of subjects were Mr. Tucker, Mrs. Strickland, Mrs. Bessie Howard, David F. O'Neal, Owen Gaskill, and A. C. Stewart. Mr. Stewart, sports editor of the Wilmington, Del. News spoke with humor and conviction about the unbounded potentialities of the Outer Banks as a mecca for tourists.
