Ike Gives Adlai Tough Time Tuesday

Maroy Henderson Pleads Guilty To Breaking into Beaufort Home

While the third special group of prospective jurors was being summoned yesterday afternoon in the Frank Boyette case, Superior Court, another defendant pleaded

The defendant was Maroy Henderson, Negro, who was charged with burglary. Henderson has been in the county

Atlantic fleet commander, Adm

Jerrauld Wright, announced Wed-nesday that the Middle East crisis has caused "modification" of the area had caused a change in the exercise scheduled to take place this month.

Loading of Marines and equip-ment at Morehead City then re-sumed over the weekend and was continuing yesterday. Navy offi-cials did not reveal to what extent maneuvers had been "mod

Unlike the usual peacetime load-ing operations at Morehead City, the ships making port are being protected offshore by escort ves-sels.

Two Navy aircraft carriers, the

Bernice Morris, Chief Allen

W. A. Mace Jr.

ident of St. Paul's Men's

W. A. Mace Jr. was elected pres

Beaufort, at the meeting Wednes-day night at the parish house. He jail since June 26 when he was picked up by the sheriff's department on a charge of entering the S. M. Bodiford house at Turner Navy Announces and Ann Streets, Beaufort.

Henderson, through his attorney, Luther Hamilton Jr., entered a plea of guilty to second degree burglary. Then Judge Chester R. Morris heard testimony by members of the Bodiford family who were allegedly in the house when Henderson broke in.

Even though the defendant plead-ed guilty, the judge requested testimony as a basis on which to pass judgment. Conviction of second de-gree burglary can carry a life senjudgment. Conviction of second degree burglary can carry a life sentence, according to Mr. Hamilton.

Henderson's attorney was appointed by the court after counsel, allegedly coming from New York.

coming from New York, failed to show up. 11 Sworn

By 3 p.m. yesterday only 11 jurors had been sworn to hear the case against Boyette, 22-year-old Morehead City youth charged with raping a 13-year-old girl.

A special venire of a hundred was called Wednesday, a second special venire of 50 was summoned later that day and a third venire of 50 was called yesterday.

One person after the other took the stand yesterday and declared that they were against capital punishment and as a result were excused. Conviction of rape can carry the death sentence.

Forrestal and the Franklin D. Roosevelt, the heavy cruiser Des Moines and more than a dozen de-

Ty the death sentence.

Jurors chosen up to the eall for the third venire were George F.
Bryan, Lonnie Rhue, G. E. Mann, thenry Carraway, Clarence Gray, Middle East, if the United Nations R. B. Burrows, Roy Clifton Dixon, Paul F. Bowden, Clayton Murphy.

fone Lewis and Durwood W. Quinn.
One more juror and an alternate were needed. It was hoped that they would be found today. If there is no Sunday session, the trial may is no Sunday session, the trial may run into the early part of next $104 on TV Show

In Jail Since June

Boyette has been in the county jail since June 30 when he was ar-rested. In an interview with a NEWS-TIMES reporter after his arrest, Boyette said that he was to have been married on the day he was put in jail.

See COURT, Page 2

JC's Present Savings Bond

Barbara Goodwin, winner of the son, William R. Willis, Elbert Pitt-Morehead City Jaycee Voice of man.
Democracy contest, was awarded a Ber

Democracy contest, was awarded a $25 savings bond by Tommy Cordova Monday night.

Mr. Cordova made the presentation at the Jaycee meeting at Hotel Fort Macon, and president Herbert Phillips gave her a certificate of recognition. Her father, Malcolm Goodwin, accompanied her to the meeting.

Julian Murphy showed films on night Dec. 4, at Atlantic.

Julian Murphy showed films on hight, Dec. 4, at Atlantic. Several reports were given during the meeting. Marion Mills said that 45 attended the oyster roast last week. L. G. Dunn gave the members information concerning district and state Jaycee meetings. Dr. Russell Outlaw gave a brief report on the Christmas lighting program, and Mr. Phillips said that the extra lights planned for this year will cost about $250.

The Jaycees turned down a request to solicit funds from door-to-door for the Heart Association. They made plans to visit the Beaufort, replacing President, replacing Pand Edward C. Willis was character. last week. L. G. Dunn gave the

They made plans to visit the beau-fort Jaycees Monday night for a special orientation meeting. The meeting is set for the Beaufort Scout Hut at 7 p.m.

County Bookmobile Will

The county library bookmobile will visit three schools this week. It will go to Harkers Island School Monday morning, to Newport School Tuesday morning and Camp Glenn School Tuesday afternoon.

The hyperson

ternoon.

The bookmobile will take on a cargo of books at the library Monday afternoon.

Bishop Dies

Bishop Dies

Bishop Howard E. Rondthaler, 85, of Winston-Salem, died Monday, Oct. 22. The father of Theodore Rondthaler, principal of Ocracoke School, he was president of Salem College from 1909 to 1949.

JC's Attend Meeting

Twenty-four Jaycees from Morehead City and Beaufort went to the Jaycee district meeting in New Bern Wednesday night. The 10 delegates from Beaufort invited the Jaycees to Beaufort invited the Jaycees to Beaufort went to the Jaycee district meeting, but after a close vote Jacksonville won the next meeting, which will be in about three months.

Wiregrass Voters Cast Ballots

Makes $300 Profit

The Atlantic Parent-Teacher As sociation made more than $300 on its Halloween Carnival, according to a report given at the PTA meeting at the school Monday

Mrs. Lois Smith, president, pre-sided at the business session. Mrs. Alvin Harris, membership chair-

Ninety-one votes were cast at the polls in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Norris, Wiregrass, Tuesday. Manley Eubanks, registrar, left, explains the voting procedure to Mrs. McCoy Dudley, Mrs. Graydon Jordan, Graydon Jordan, and McCoy Dudley, left to right, who have just received their ballots. The Norris home has been used as the polling place for about 15 years.

Big Night Ends on Somber Note For Democrats as Ike Wins Again

An outsider would have thought he was seeing a TV rehearsal of the Democratic and Republican nasheriff's office and stopped to extional conventions rolled into one if he had looked into Sheriff Hugh Salter's office Tuesday night.

Solicitor Wiley Taylor was proud-ly displaying his donkey socks when a spotlight shined through The Down East Fire Department made $104 Saturday night on its program of TV stars at the Atlan-tic School auditorium. Presenting the program were Frank Galloway. the door; at least that's what everyone thought until they real-ized that it was an I Like Ike but-Five Diamonds and Carl Cauton on the lapel of Claud Wheatly. Gehrmann Holland, occupying his

The report on the profit was former sheriff's chair, also claimed a seat with the prophets. He had predicted that there would be made at the Down East firemen's meeting Tuesday night at the Lions building, Atlantic. Firemen also discussed possible sites for location of a station. The proceeds from less than 50 votes difference be-tween the two candidates, and when the office was closed Ike was When reports Saturday's show will go toward building the station. Firemen attending the meeting were Wilbur Goodwin, Warden Gil-likin, J. G. McIntosh, Ralph Nel-

D. G. Bell dropped by to see how the election was going, but since he didn't have any opposition for legislator, there wasn't any doubt in his mind. "It is nice to know state and county elections.

how many people vote, though," sheriff's office and stopped to ex-change information on local results. Wiregrass was the first pre-cinct to send in final tabulations. They voted 56 to 31 in favor of

Phones Jangle

Both telephones were busy as more distant precincts phoned in results, local politicians discussed trends, and reporters tried to contact the wire services. Norwood Young, an old pro at election returns, had a gigantic chart on which he marked all the results as

When reports came in that Ike leading by 76 votes with three pre-cincts not reporting. How Many? had carried Virginia, jubilant Re-publicans made life rough for their neighbors. It looked like a

Frank Nance to Supervise Farm Labor in Eastern Area

15 eastern Carolina counties and portions of two other counties.

Beaufort Headquarters

Mr. Nance will have Beaufort as his headquarters, operating from his mobile farm labor recruiting office there.
Other offices in his area are at Charles Willis was elected vice-president, replacing Paul Jones, and Edward C. Willis was re-elect-Morehead City. New Bern, Green-ville, Lumberton, Jacksonville, Washington and Rocky Mount. ed secretary-treasurer.

The Rev. C. Edward Sharp, rector, introduced the guest speak Counties under his supervision er, Col. Spasoje Lozikovich, who told of life in Yugoslavia, his im-prisonment during the second world war and life in concentraare Nash, Edgecombe, Pitt, Beau-fort, Hyde, Pamlico, Carteret,

Tide Table

Tides at the Beaufort Bar LOW Friday, Nov. 9

12:23 a.m.

6:23 a.m.

7:08 p.m.

Saturday, Nov. 18

1:16 a.m.

7:15 a.m.

1:30 p.m.

Sunday, Nov. 11

2:10 a.m.

8:14 a.m.

2:25 p.m.

Monday, Nov. 12

3:06 a.m.

3:20 p.m.

Tuesday, Nov. 13

Tuesday, Nov. 13

1:58 a.m.

1:10 a.m.

8:14 a.m.

8:15 p.m.

1:10 p.m.

8:14 a.m.

8:15 p.m.

8:15 a.m.

8:16 p.m.

8:17 p.m.

1:18 p.m.

1:19 p.m.

1:10 a.m.

8:10 p.m.

1:10 Friday, Nov. 9 4:13 p.m.

Frank Nance, Beaufort, in charge | Jones, New Hanover, Brunswick, door prize. of farm labor placement in this Onslow, Pender, Columbus, Bladen, area, has been promoted to supervisor of farm labor placement in Washington and Martin.

portions of two other counties.

Announcement of Mr. Nance's labor staff March 18, 1952. The promotion was made this week by J. W. Beach, director of employment, Employment Security Commission of North Carolina.

Mr. Nance joined the Employment Security Comment Security Commission of Mrs. Effic Nance, Beaufort, he is a graduate of Murray State Teachers College, Kentucky, and did graduate work at Cornell Link Mr. Nance joined the Employ versity and North Carolina State College.
Taught at Smyrna

Taught at Smyrna
He has taught at B. T. High School, Lumberton, and Smyrna
High School where he was history and English instructor and coach. He was in the insurance business after leaving Smyrna, prior to his work with the ESC. Mr. Nance announces that within the next few weeks Farm Labor Clinic days will be set up at New-port and Beaufort to learn from year-round farm labor employer what their needs will be for the oming year. He added, however, that he will accept requests any time for year-

Education Board Approves Sale Of Smyrna Land The County Board of Educatio

approved sale of the old Smyrna teacherage property at its meeting Monday afternoon at the education office, courthouse annex.

The high bidder was Ivy Eubanks, North River, $1,615.

The board also approved purchase of "converter units" for the Harkers Island School lunchroo The units are combination audithe units are commanded and torium seats and funchroom tables.

They allow easy conversion from seats to tables, which quickly turn an auditorium into a lunchroom. The number of units ordered will allow seating of 275. Chairs can be used to applement that for audit. used to supplement that for audi-torium seating, H. L. Joslyn, school superintendent, commented.

superintendent, commented.
R. W. Safrit Jt., board chairman, and W. B. Allen, board member, were named to attend the Delegate Assembly of the North Carolina School Board Association Tuesday at Chapel Hill. Alternates are yet to be appointed.

The board will meet in special session next Thursday at 2 p.m. to open bids on a shop building at

Stewart Daniels Named Principal

Stewart Daniels, coach and teacher of social studies at Smyrna School, has been named principal. He succeeds Stanley Dail, who has accepted the position as principal of Havelock High School.

Mr. Dail will leave Smyrna as soon as a replacement is found for Mr. Daniels on the faculty. The Smyrna School c o m m ittee, which met in special session Monday night, Monday night, hopes that this replacement can Stewart Daniels be found by Nov. 29.

Mr. Daniels, a native of Wan-chese, is married and has a 2-yearold son. He is now in his sixth year as a member of the Smyrna faculty. He and his family will move into the new home being built for the principal as soon as the home is finished.

Mr. Dail has been at Smyrna seven years. His wife is a first man, requested that parents pay their membership fees before Dec. 1. Approximately 45 have paid grade teacher at the school. They will live at Havelock.

The Brownie Scouts and Inter-mediate Girl Scouts gave the pro-Glenn Adair Speaks gram. Leaders assisting with the Brownies were: Mrs. Jack John-son, Mrs. Odin Fulcher, Mrs. Al-ma Nelson, Mrs. Gerald Fulcher, and Mrs. H. F. Webb. To Beaufort Rotary Rotarian Glenn Adair was prin-cipal speaker at the Tuesday night meeting of the Beaufort Rotary Club at the Inlet Inn. He gave a report on the rodeo sponsored by Speaks to Club and Mrs. H. F. Webb.

The Brownies sang nine songs and were joined by the Intermediates when they sang the Scout songs. The Intermediates present-mediates when they sang the Scout songs. The Intermediates presented an original skit from "Little Women" which they had prepared as part of their Second Class badge work.

Mes Sherwood Rebinson won the Caskill of the Messenged City Brand Research Community work the Mess Sherwood Rebinson won the Caskill of the Messenged City Brand Research Community building. He showed were A. B. Roberts Jr., and Albert wildlife slides and discussed the Mrs. Sherwood Robinson won the Gaskill of the Morehead City Ro-loor prize. raising of food and cover crops for wildlife.

Vote Sets New Record As Democrats Squeak By

A record-smashing 7,679 votes were cast in Carteret Tuesday. Despite the tremendous turn-out of voters, the margin between the two Presidential candidates was a mere 71 votes!

With official returns from all precincts except Straits and an unofficial return from there, Adlai Stevenson led

Dwight D. Eisenhowe

Post-Mortem

The Democrats will be licking their wounds for the next four years seems like. They still can't understand why so many

"party faithful" exercised their American right to vote as they wished and east a ballot for Ei-

One leading county Democrat, chagrined that so many (black sheep, that is) left the fold said, "I hope that times get so hard during the next four years that Henry Ford will have to eat

stone crabs cooked in a lard

Republicans.

Six County Residents

have received certificates for completing a two-week supervisor's

They are Mrs. Mary Ellen Hollingsworth and V. O. Smith, Newport; J. R. Hassell, C. E. Jordan,

Complete Seminar

. . voters like 'im

+ President Eisenhower 3.875 to 3,804. Gov. Luther Hodges led the state Democratic party to an overwhelming victory. He polled 5,287 votes in this county. His opponent, Re-publican Kyle Hayes, received only 2,214 votes.

Led Ballot
D. G. Bell led county politicians in popularity, as he received 4,928 votes for state legislator. For state senator, Carteret gave Luther Hamilton Sr. 4.847 votes, and John G. Dawson 4,617. Votes from At-lantic precinct are not included in those figures. George Smith received 1,754 votes for constable of Morehead township. He had no opposition. Morehead township consists of Morehead precincts 1 and 2, Wildwood, Broad Creek and Salter

Tuesday's vote broke the old record of 7,247 votes cast in the 1952 election by 437 votes. Only 4,937 votes were cast in the Sep-tember school referendum. There are 14,559 registered voters in the county, with 12,310 register-ed as Democrats and 1,692 regis-tered as Republicans. Registrants in Atlantic, Cedar Island, Ports-mouth, and Wiregrass are included in that total but the County Board of Elections had not been informed, even yesterday, of the number who were listed as Republicans and the number listed as Democrats.

Adlai by a Nose

Unofficial results of the Presidential race broken down by precincts follow (votes for Stevenson appear first):

first); Atlantic, 205-94; Beaufort, 824-811; Bettie, 57-17; Bogue, 57-37; Broad Creek, 83-52; Cedar Island, 20-60; Cedar Point, 82-41; Tavis, 75-184; Harkers Islands, 213-278.

Harlowe, 58-79; Marshallberg, 75-187; Merrimon, 55-24; Morehead 1, 532-460; Morehead 2, 463-457; New-Claud Wheatly, Beaufort's noted Republican, said the out-come proved two things: port, 383-317; Otway, 59-90; Pelle-tier, 47-27; Portsmouth, 5-3; Salter 1. The rank and file of labor Path. 122-15.

1. The rank and file of labor is not blindly opposed to the Re-publican party, and vote as they choose regardless of dictates of union leaders. Sca Level, 64-59; Smyrna, 28-29; Stacy, 16-86; Stella, 29-36; Straits, 64-51; Wildwood, 182-153; Williston, 2. A two-party system in the South is entirely possible with a little bit of work on the part of 17-130; and Wiregrass, 60-31. Governor Wins

Results in the gubernatorial race, with Governor Hodges' votes first: Atlantic, 246-52; Beaufort, 1194-410; Bettie, 62-10; Bogue, 66-17; Broad Creek, 97-33; Cedar Island, 56-20; Cedar Point, 94-26; Davis, 107-144. Harkers Island, 306-178; Harlowe, 85-52; Marshallberg, 120-140; Mer-rimon, 73-12; Morehead 1, 735-233; Marshald 2, 808, 195. Newport, 470 Six residents of Carteret County rimon, 73-12; Morehead 1, 735-23; Morehead 2, 698-195; Newport, 470-208; Otway, 83-82; Pelletier, 53-10; Portsmouth, 8-0. Salter Path, 128-10; Sea Level, seminar at Cherry Point Marine Air Station. All are supervisors in the overhaul and repair depart-

Salter Path, 128-10; Sea Lever, 85-30; Smyrna, 35-20; Stacy, 20-56; Stella, 38-24; Straits, 90-25; Wildwood, 243-90; Williston, 25-120; Wiregrass, 70-17.
Complete official returns will be published in Tuesday's paper. The County Board of Elections met yesteeday morning and canyassed the and A. S. Taylor, all of Beaufort; and L. M. Ambrose, Morehead City. terday morning and canvassed the Election blossomed forth with bright, warm weather. The result of the election and the number of people at the polls still left some folks gasping in amazement Wed-

For four hours Tuesday after-noon it was impossible to walk right in the courthouse at Beaufort a few minutes - an unprecedented Newport lays claim to getting out the largest percentage of its voters Of the thousand active vot the books, 702 cast a ballot. usand active voters on

William Dugee, Newport town-ship constable, was not on the bal-lot but was re-elected by write-in

Patrolman Cites Hit-and-Runner

An alert highway patrolman ap-prehended a hit and run driver at 6 m. Monday. State Highway Patrolman W. J.

Smith Jr. was pulling up in front of his home near the new More-head City fire station when he heard a crash.

He saw that a car had smashed into a 1956 Chevrolet parked in front of the fire station, but the car failed to stop. He gave chase and apprehended Roy Palmer Camp-hell, 25, Cherry Point, and charged him with driving drunk and hit and Campbell's car. a 1955 Pontiac campoul's car, a 1855 rontae, struck the ear owned by Vernon Guthrie, Morehead City fire chief. Damage to the Chevrolet was esti-mated at $290 and damage to the Pontiac, $250.

School Receives $200

Glenn Adair, right, president of the Beaufort Chamber of Commerce, gave Beaufort High School Principal Bruce Tarkington a check for $200 Wednesday from the chamber's project fund. The check, says Mr. Tarkington, will go to the school's athletic fund. The chamber elected to make the donation to the school as "rental" for school bleachers last year and the bleachers and field for Sunday's rodeo. Gerald Hil, left, and Holden Ballou, chamber directors, watch the transaction.