News from BARKERS ISLAND

Jan. 19—Mrs. Cleveland Davis has been confined to her bed for the past week.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Pentecostal Holiness Church met Wednesday night for their usual meeting and discussed the building project. Two hundred twenty-four dollars was raised by the women in the past four weeks for the heating system. Sister Myrtle Yeomans and sister Inez Willis are chairmen.

Mrs. Lumas Jones and daughter, Leola Carol, have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dennie Goodwin, Cedar Island, for the past week.

Mrs. Ronald Davis, Mrs. Carl W. Willis, Mrs. Charlie W. Hancock visited Mrs. Oliver Davis, Beaufort, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Willis, Morehead City, visited friends and relatives here Wednesday.

The Relief Society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints met Wednesday evening and had a supper of stewed chicken, and ice cream for dessert. The supper was held in the church recreation hall.

Harold Yeomans took over the USCG station as officer in charge at Cape Lookout Wednesday.

Larry Willis, Morehead City, was here Wednesday afternoon visiting friends.

Mrs. Madeline Emory was a patient in the Morehead City Hospital Wednesday, receiving treatment.

Mrs. Ada Willis is still confined to her bed, but is much better.

The members of the Methodist Church presented a drama at the PTA meeting Tuesday night at the school auditorium.

Mr. Durwood Guthrie, Cherry Point, was here Thursday visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Guthrie.

Mrs. Shuford Guthrie is visiting Mrs. Mary Guthrie, Cherry Point, during Mary's illness after an operation.

Guy Newsome is down here this week visiting his mother, Mrs. W. Bosworth Newsome.

The Ocean Breeze Cafe was opened Friday, Jan. 18, at the very east end of the island. Managers are Ronald Chadwick and Thomas Carroll Gaskill.

Mrs. Addie Gloria Johnson, Beaufort, visited her mother and brother, Mrs. Addie Willis and Mr. Maxwell Willis Monday.

Henry Fonda gets into a peck of trouble in Alfred Hitchcock's latest suspense thriller, The Wrong Man, and while Fonda takes his medicine with the stoicism of a fatalistic St. Bernard dog, there is plenty going on around him.

A brilliant cast enacts the Technicolor outdoor drama, Three Violent People. Starring are Charlton Heston, Anne Baxter and Gilbert Roland; co-starring, Tom Tryon, Forrest Tucker and Bruce Bennett.

Elaine Stritch is featured, Barton MacLane and actor-songwriter Ross Bagdasarian head the supporting cast.

The Girl Can't Help It runs Wednesday through Saturday at the Morehead. Tori Ewell, who displayed his droll flair for romantic comedy in The Seven Year Itch, is again the frustrated hero and his performance is delightful. The girl, of course, is Jayne Mansfield.

No Laughing Matter
 Pensacola, Fla. (AP) — Truck drivers on the Naval Air Station roads must keep their tailgates closed—and maybe go easy on the humor. The NAS safety division issued the tailgate order after a passenger in a moving truck was injured when he fell through an open tailgate while laughing heartily at a funny remark.

Hitchcock Mystery, Wild Western to Open Sunday

The bill of fare for Morehead City movie patrons includes an Alfred Hitchcock thriller, The Wrong Man, and a western, Three Violent People. The Wrong Man opens Sunday at the Morehead Theatre, and the western opens the same day at the City.

The Boss, which plays at the City Theatre Wednesday and Thursday is a dramatic story of political corruption in a middle class city. Starring John Payne in the title role, this United Artists release shows how the driving, though corrupt, strength of one man plays upon the weakness and greed of others.

A double feature, Naked Guns and A Strange Adventure play at the City Friday and Saturday.
