Bundle of Joy to Open At Morehead Theatre

Eddie Fisher and Debbie Reynolds star in Bundle of Joy, opening at the Morehead Theatre Sunday and running through Wednesday. At the City Theatre, Three Brave Men will be shown Sunday through Tuesday. Ernest Borgnine, Ray Milland, and Frank Lovejoy star as the three men.

In Bundle of Joy, Debbie Reynolds plays a young girl who innocently picks up a baby from the steps of a founding home, only to find people assuming she's the mother.

Since the young lady is unmarried and has just been fired from her job in a department store for selling too many hats, her efforts to prove she's not the child's mother and the way she eventually falls under the spell of the baby—and of young department store tycoon Eddie Fisher—make for one interesting situation after another.

Three Brave Men concerns a story that the United States Navy wanted told. It is based on a series of Pulitzer Prize-winning articles that appeared in the Washington, D. C. Daily News about a falsely accused veteran of the Navy Department and the lengths to which the Navy went to right the grievous wrong.

Drango plays at the Morehead Thursday through Saturday. The film, set in the South just after the Civil War, dramatizes the tension, passions and violence of the reconstruction period, one of the most interesting and least exploited in American history.

Jeff Chandler plays Major Drango, a Union army officer with a secret reason for helping to rehabilitate a defeated but still dangerously hostile and bitter Georgia town.

Playing Wednesday and Thursday at the City is Beast of Hollow Mountain, starring Guy Madison.

Willis O'Brien's original story tells of a rancher in a foreboding section of Mexico who, upon finding his cattle being killed and stolen, stumbles upon a prehistoric monster, that is bent on finding prey for its insatiable appetite, whether it be animal or human.

A double feature, White Squaw and Thunderstorm, completes the week's showings at the City. In White Squaw, May Wynn is seen as the girl who is caught in one of the most terrifying crossfires that ever ravaged the west.

She braves Sioux savagery and white man's treachery, but she brings the frontier a kind of Indian warfare it never knew before, scorning a path of justice instead of terror as she fights to save the lands of her people and the life of her white sweetheart.

Thunderstorm was made on the rugged north coast of Spain in the small and ancient village of Mun-

Alaska Shoeshine Costs $1,265

Fairbanks, Alaska (AP)—Prices are high in Alaska, but a guy normally doesn't hand over $1,265 for a shoeshine.

Dale Webb did — and got the shine while standing in the snow at Fairbanks' busiest street intersection.

It all came about because of a drive to raise funds for a new YMCA building.

Ed Hansen, his team captain, told Webb that if he reported next week with $1,000 pledged for the campaign, he'd get a shoe shine at the corner of Second and Cushman.

Webb came through with pledges for $1,265. Hansen paid off his end of the bargain the next day.

The first meeting of the club has been set for 7 p.m. next Friday (today) at the Merrimon Community Building. Literature and instructions for projects will be available at the meeting.
