

Health Department Announces Dates Of Polio, Pre-School, Typhoid Clinics

26 Attend Music Workshop

Twenty-six persons from this county attended the music workshop Tuesday at Washington, N. C. Nine counties were represented. Carteret's delegation was the largest.

The workshop was sponsored by Home Demonstration Club women and dealt with music reading, choral speaking, hymns of the church and music for the home.

Attending from Carteret were the following:

Atlantic—The Rev. L. A. Lewis, Mrs. Winston Hill, Mrs. Donza Lee Morris, Mrs. Cecil Morris.

Bertie—Mrs. Harry Gillikin, Mrs. Luther Salter, Mrs. Mary A. Gillikin, Mrs. Roger Williams, Mrs. Bertie Midgett.

North River—Mrs. Ray West, Mrs. R. P. Gooding, Mrs. Polly Fulcher, Mrs. Martha Wade.

Beaufort—Mrs. Charles Clifton, Russells Creek—Mrs. Roy Caraway.

Crab Point—Mrs. Rufus Oglesby, Mrs. J. L. Seamon, Mrs. John Ebron.

Morehead City—Mrs. Mabel Ball, Newport—The Rev. Ralph Fleming, Mrs. Alfred Reynolds, Mrs. Dean Gurganus, Mrs. Jim Kirby, Mrs. John B. Kelly, Miss Edith Lockey, and Mrs. Floy Garner, home agent.

Police Confiscate Ford Full of Stolen Lead

A 1950 Ford, complete with 300 pounds of lead, is sitting in front of the Morehead City Police station. The car was taken into custody by the police department when they arrested Clyde Randolph Eubanks, Morehead City.

He is charged with stealing the lead and four hub caps from Carl Goodwin's salvage yard on the east end of Arendell Street.

Eubanks has been released on bond to await trial in Morehead City recorder's court.

Detroit (AP)—Deciding that the dog bite is inevitable, Detroit's 2,500 mailmen are going to grin and bear it. They've used candy, water pistols and even night sticks to discourage biting dogs, all to no avail. Now, says an official, all postmen will get shots to prevent infections from dog bites.

The schedule of spring polio clinics for the schools was announced this week by the County Health Department.

Salter Path School was visited by nurses yesterday. The schedule for other schools follows. All clinics will begin at 9 a.m.

Feb. 13—Stella School, Feb. 25—Harkers Island School, March 1—W. S. King School, March 4—Beaufort School, March 6—Morehead City School, March 8—Atlantic School, March 12—Camp Glenn School, March 22—Smyrna School, March 26—Queen Street School, March 29—Newport School.

A record has been kept by the health department on children who received shots and how many.

Pre-school clinics will start Feb. 19 and typhoid shots will be given at the schools beginning Feb. 14.

Pre-School Clinics

Pre-school clinic dates follow: Queen Street School Feb. 19, Stella Feb. 20, Salter Path Feb. 21, Smyrna Feb. 26, Beaufort March 15, W. S. King March 21.

Harkers Island April 2, Atlantic April 3, Newport April 5, Camp Glenn April 11, and Morehead City April 12.

Typhoid Clinics

Three visits will be made to schools to give typhoid shots. The first date is listed below. Shots will be given at the school on that date, and at weekly intervals for the following two weeks.

Any changes which may be made in the above schedules will be announced.

The health department expresses its appreciation to the women who are assisting as clerks at health clinics. Mrs. Martha Lawrence served as clerk at the regular clinic in Morehead City last Thursday and Mrs. Gerald Mitchell assisted at Salter Path School yesterday.

$10 a Month Contract Found in Old Ledger

Greenbush, Wis. (AP)—A 100-year old ledger pertaining to the State Road School, which now stands abandoned, was located recently.

The first entry, dated Oct. 5, 1856, showed that the teacher had signed a contract to teach for $10 a month.

Knights Slip By Bayboro

By BATEMAN JONES

The Queen Street Knights came from behind in the second half to slip by Bayboro 48-45 Tuesday night on the W. S. King court in Morehead City.

The Knights trailed by three at the half, but by the end of the third period they had pulled one point ahead, 34-33. They netted 14 markers in the final frame, and Bayboro was able to connect for only 12.

Lathan Windley and Joe Pasteur were the big men in the Knights' attack with 14 points each.

The Queen Street Jayvees dropped the opening game to the tune of 39-22. The Bayboro junior varsity, led by the sharp shooting of Smith, poured it on the Beaufort team in the final period. They hit for 16 points, while Queen Street was netting one free throw. Smith collected 15 points for his work.

Beaufort Chamber Seeks Management for Inlet Inn

Glenn Adair, president of the Beaufort Chamber of Commerce, announced yesterday that the chamber has received a letter from R. B. Curran, executive vice-president of the North Carolina Hotel Association.

Mr. Curran said that an announcement of the availability of the Inlet Inn would appear in the association's bulletin this month. The chamber board of directors has written letters to several prospective operators, including hotel magnate Conrad Hilton.

The chamber decided that advertising the hotel in metropolitan papers would be beyond the chamber's ability to pay.
