Send Trucks to Fight Raging Fires Sunday

A woods fire at Williston raged rom noon Sunday until 6 p.m. Marshallberg and Atlantic fire departments had their trucks at the blaze and Beaufort sent trucks five and six, a tank truck and a pump truck. The state forestry service and fire wardens had two tractors to cut fire lanes for containing the fire.

The fire started behind Dallas Gillikin and Nimon Gillikin's houses in Williston. It soon spread voked. A 60-day sentence was suspended on payment of the fine. over much of the wooded sections around the town. Jerry Hancock was fined $100 Coast Guard Makes

Firemen concentrated on keeping the fire away from houses while they were trying to get fire lanes cut so it would burn itself out. Residents of Williston expressed their appreciation to members of all three fire departments. They said that without the help of all of them there might have been $10 and costs for improper use of his driver's license. Eugene Hesse was fined $10 and costs for public serious damage done. The Marshallberg Fire Departdrunkenness
