Wed Sunday Afternoon

Miss Jane Wright Howerton

Miss Jane Wright Howerton and Mr. William Guy Bell were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at three o'clock in the First Methodist Church. The Rev. J. F. Herbert, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.
Baskets of white gladiolas were placed in the church for decoration. Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. George Mizeske, organist, and Mr. William Loughton, soloist. Wedding selections included 'Through The Years, Because, and The Lord's Prayer.
The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle. It was fashioned with a fitted lace bodice and a full tulle skirt banded with lace.
The bodice featured a scalloped yoke of tulle and a round collar. Long sleeves ended in points over the hands. She wore a waist length veil of illusion, which was attached to a crown of chantilly lace and pearls.
She carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid and showered with lilies of the valley and satin streamers.
Mrs. David Stalker, niece of the groom, was matron of honor. She wore a ballerina length gown of aqua nylon net over taffeta. She wore gloves and headpiece to match and carried flowerlets tied with pink ribbon.
Miss Libby Bell, niece of the groom, was junior bridesmaid. She wore a pink gown of nylon net over taffeta with gloves and headpiece to match and carried flowers like those of the honor attendant.
Mr. Wade Bell, brother of the groom, was best man. Dr. Louis J. Norris Jr. and Mr. Seldon Sherwood were ushers.
A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. A. H. Mc-

Jaycees Plan More Frequent Meetings To Build Interest

The Beaufort Jaycees may go back to their former meeting schedule. The board of directors will suggest such a move at the next regular meeting, the second Monday night of August. The Jaycees meet at the Scout Building in Beaufort. The Jaycees used to meet every Monday night except the first Monday. Last month they changed to the second and fourth Monday nights. The board feels that the less frequent meetings is leading to a drop in interest in the club. Under the proposed schedule the Jaycees would have dinner meetings and business sessions the second and fourth Monday nights. On the third Monday night a brief business discussion will precede a stag get-together. On fifth Monday nights, the program committee will sponsor parties for Jaycees, their wives and girl friends.

Three Hostesses Honor Miss Jane W. Howerton
