

Local Debutante Honored At Cola Party Tuesday
 Mrs. A. B. Roberts and daughter, Beth, were hostesses at a cola party Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Renee Kemp, who makes her debut tonight in Raleigh.
 The party was given in the back yard of the Roberts home. The table was centered with an arrangement of lavender and purple asters and pink petunias.
 Ten guests attended and were served refreshments of cheese crackers, potato chips, pretzels, nuts, cake, cookies and colas.

Sunday Bride-Elect Is Honored Monday Night

Miss Marie Crowe, who will be married Sunday to Mr. Robert Vaughn, was honored at a shower Monday night given by Mrs. Thelma Penny and Mrs. Clay Wooten at the Penny home, Mitchell Village.
 A green and white color scheme was carried out. The dining room table was covered with a white cloth and decorated with white tapers and ivy.
 Several bridal games were played during the evening. Mrs. Thomas Fish and Mrs. J. B. Crowe were decorated in black and white crepe paper to represent a bride and groom. While Miss Carol Penny, daughter of the hostess, played the wedding march, the comical bride and groom entered the room.
 After the honoree had opened gifts from the twenty-two guests, they were invited into the dining room where bridal cake, punch, nuts and mints were served.

 Hi!
 George and I are just back from a buying spree in New York and my poor arches are still aching. But we saw (and bought) so many lovely things that it was well worth all the effort.

One of the things that impressed me most, is the beautiful colors in the fall and winter dresses, especially the Cockerell and Holiday line. Of course, black is always good, but the reds, greens and blues are just out of this world.
 And the Handbags! They are big, bigger and biggest. We are especially proud of our line of Italian imports, made of genuine calf and to retail at only $5.98. Another new bag is the Carpet Bag, adapted from the Civil War era and made of genuine carpet, no less. And lovely tapestries also.
 All of these new things will be arriving daily and we will try to put as many as we can in our windows, but just in case you miss seeing them, come in and ask about them and if they haven't arrived yet, they will be in soon.
