Light Rains Mean More to Come, Says Weather Observer

Weather observer Stamey Davis says that rain Wednesday and yesterday will probably mean the beginning of a wet weekend. There had been only traces of rain when THE NEWS-TIMES went to press last night, but Mr. Davis was sure the rainfall would increase.

Maximum and minimum temperatures and wind direction for part of the week follow

Cigarette Causes Wreck Wednesday

A cigarette was responsible for a wreck at 11th and Arendell Streets, Morehead City, Wednesday night. James Lloyd, driving a Yellow Cab, told police officer Buck Newcome that he was turning from 11th to Arendell when his cigarette stuck to his hand.

He grabbed for the cigarette and lost control of the cab, which ran into the rear of a 1957 Ford parked in front of the Dixie Barber Shop. The car belonged to Benjamin Metts, a barber in the shop.

Officer Newcome estimated damage to the cab at $400 and to the Ford at $200. The cab carried full insurance.
