

Mr. Vincent Wright Marries Miss Beverly Brown, Fayetteville

In a ceremony Saturday afternoon at five o'clock in St. James Lutheran Church, Fayetteville, Miss Beverly Elizabeth Brown of Fayetteville and Vincent Broda Wright of Beaufort were united in marriage.

The Rev. John David Mauney Jr., uncle of the bride and pastor of St. James, performed the double ring ceremony, which was attended by members of the immediate families.

The church was decorated with palms and arrangements of white carnations and gladiolus with greenery. The church was lighted by cathedral tapers in candelabra.

Mrs. John David Mauney Jr., organist, played traditional wedding music throughout the ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Benjamin George Brown. She wore a ballroom-length gown of chantilly lace over taffeta. The sculptured bodice buttoned down the back with a row of self covered buttons and long sleeves ended in calla points over the hands. The sabrina neckline was outlined with lace scallops.

The bouffant skirt of lace and taffeta was scalloped around the bottom. She wore a short veil of french illusion attached to a tiara encrusted with orange blossoms and carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid.

Miss Virginia Martha Brown of Converse College and Fayetteville, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a ballerina length gown of gold crystalite and carried a bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums.

Mr. Dan W. Bowen of Windsor, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Kenneth Wallace Wright Jr. of Beaufort, brother of the bridegroom, and John McKay Graham of Sumter, S. C.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception for the families of the couple. The reception was held at their home. After a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will make their home in Beaufort. The bride is a graduate of Hendersonville High School and attended Salem College, Winston-Salem.

Mr. Wright graduated from Beaufort High School and attended Wake Forest College, Winston-Salem. He is now in business with his father, Mr. K. W. Wright, in Beaufort.

For the third time in a decade, Queen Elizabeth II is Woman of the Year in American headlines. Women's editors of Associated Press newspapers throughout the country voted her the top woman news personality of the year in their annual poll, following the triumphant visit of Britain's royal couple to the United States and Canada, which produced enough news stories to fill a library.

Previously Elizabeth was voted Woman of the Year in 1947, when she married Philip Mountbatten, now Duke of Edinburgh, and again in the year of her coronation, 1953.

Other women voted outstanding in their field for 1957 are as follows:

Sports: Althea Gibson, the 30-year-old tennis player from Harlem, who this year won practically every major championship in the world of international tennis. The lanky, smiling, dark-skinned Althea climaxed an 18-tournament winning streak by taking the women's singles championship at Wimbledon in July, after which she won the National Women's Singles title at Forest Hills in September.

Literature: Grace Metalious, the New Hampshire housewife whose first novel, "Peyton Place," became an unexpected runaway best-seller, with present sales figures topping the three million mark. The sensational story of life in a New England village so shocked some academic circles that her husband, George Metalious, lost his job as principal of the Gilmanton, N. H., public schools, and is now teaching in Stowe, Mass. Mrs. Metalious is the mother of three children.

Entertainment: Ingrid Bergman, winner of an Academy Award for her work in the motion picture version of "Anastasia." The Swedish-born actress, who gave up career and family for her controversial romance with Italian movie director Roberto Rossellini, made news also with her personal life this year, when her marriage to her "one true love" ended in a legal separation, with divorce in the offing. She is now in England, at work on a new movie.

Business: Lucille Ball, one-half of the fantastically successful husband-and-wife team of Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz, who not only star in their own top-rated show, but also produce a number of other television attractions. The apparently light-headed "Lucy" of the tv screen turns out to have a very solid business head on her flippant shoulders, and at present probably is one of the richest women in Hollywood.

Music: Maria Callas, the American operatic soprano with the "voice of an angel", who has zoomed to the top rank of stars since her debut at the Metropolitan last fall. Maria, now 34, was born in New York of Greek parents and says she was the ugly duckling of the family — fat, awkward and shy. She started studying music at the age of 8, went to Athens at 13 to

Man Amends His Ballot, Votes for Traffic Light

Gettysburg, Pa. (AP)—One voter in Berwick township had his own ideas for his ballot in the fall elections here. He printed, under his own title of "live and let live amendment," the question "Shall We Have A Stop Light at Cross Keys?" After that he drew two squares, one marked "yes" and the other "no" and placed an "X" in the "yes" square. Election officials threw out the ballot because it had been defaced.
