

Chuck Sledge, Barbara Holt Crowned School King, Queen

Chuck Sledge was crowned king and Barbara Holt queen of Morehead City School at the PTA meeting Monday night in the school auditorium. They were elected in a contest sponsored by Mrs. Mamie Taylor's eighth grade prior to the postponed Halloween carnival.

The high school chorus sang several songs during the program. Miss Kathy Chalk and Miss Virginia Thompson were accompanists.

Songs included Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee, The Sleigh, The Bells of St. Mary's, a medley of songs from Oklahoma and Battle Hymn of the Republic. The chorus is directed by Ralph Wade.

Miss Jonibel Willis played for the processional and recessional of the king and queen and their court. They were crowned by Mayor George Dill.

Crowned were Chuck Sledge, king, Barbara Holt, queen, John Hamilton, crown prince, and Mary Lou Nelson, crown princess. Craig Barks and Kate Van Horn were court bearers.

Serving in the court were Ronald Russell and Susie Morton, Ben Guthrie and Charlotte Willis, Larry Wade and Linda Stanley, Donald Huston and Sara Davis.

Billy Condie and Jenifer Guthrie, Billy Taylor and Nancy Nelson, Cecil Sewell and Carolyn Bullard, Sammy Moore and Jane Patrick, Borden Wallace and Gail Swann, Ronald Mizesko and Janice Hall, Allen Conner and Rebecca Haney, David Hardison and Linda Lou Willis, Kenneth Broadhurst and Judy Willis, Leslie Webb and Deborah Jones, Ray Smith and Judy Morton.

Donnie Mann and Janet Merrill, Billy Barts and Kathy Howard, Horace Piner and Dana Brown, Dempsey Whaley and Renee Lewis.

Buddy Cooper gave the devotions. Following the program, Mr. Dan Swindell, president, thanked Mrs. Taylor's class and those who helped to make the program a success.

The executive board suggested that a community supper be held as a substitute for the fall carnival. The supper will be served in the school lunchroom with a program in the auditorium. Tickets will be sold in advance.

A committee was appointed to make arrangements after the suggestion had been adopted. They will report at the next meeting.

Mr. Alfred Cooper was elected vice-president to finish the term of Mr. David Jones, who has moved to Norfolk, Va.

Mr. Ralph Wade announced that the school band would present its winter concert last night. He also announced that the North Carolina

Little Symphony would present two concerts in the school auditorium Feb. 18.

The children's concert will be given at 2 p.m. and the adult concert will begin at 8 p.m.

Mr. Clyde Burr announced that the band association is giving a banquet and dance for the band in appreciation of the work they have done this year. The banquet will be held tomorrow night at Rex Restaurant and the dance will follow at the recreation building.

Attendance prizes were won by Mrs. Virginia Bradbury's third grade, Mrs. Taylor's eighth and Mr. Walter Taylor's tenth grade. The meeting adjourned with prayer by Mr. Lenwood Lee, principal.

Order of Eastern Star Holds Fellowship Night

Guests of Morehead City Chapter 223, Order of the Eastern Star, were presented ribbon medallions which, with mottoes of Smile Awhile, set the theme of the chapter's friendship night Thursday night.

In the chapter room a background for the East was provided by the same motto and medallion in giant size. Emblematic stars entwined in ivy and arrangements of white chrysanthemums against blue glitter leaves were used throughout the room.

Opening the meeting in ritualistic order, worthy matron Mrs. Novella Dunn and worthy patron Emanuel Ross welcomed all members and guests. Honored guests, worthy grand patron Garrell Mosier, grand representatives Mrs. Mae Mosier, Mrs. Ruby Scott, and Mrs. Sadie Starling, and district deputy worthy matron Mrs. Frances Turner and district deputy worthy patron Mr. T. T. Potter were introduced. Other visitors were recognized.

At the conclusion of a brief business session, Mrs. Dunn requested that the chapter room be proclaimed a House of Smiles. The order was carried out by the marshal and the special program began.

An arrangement of the song Smiles was sung by the entire group as part of the ceremony of the House of Smiles. Mrs. Ruth Lasker, Mrs. Carrie McCabe, Mrs. Dolly Smith, Mrs. Gladys Nelson, and Mrs. Catherine Davenport represented five types of smiles.

Mrs. Dunn cited these smiles as being the types produced at any friendship gathering and she expressed her pleasure at the large attendance. Officers presented gifts to their special guests while Mrs. Earl Norwood sang a song of welcome.

The station of Adah was then honored. After Mrs. Dunn had spoken on the symbolism of Adah and the importance of fidelity to all, 17 present and past Adah's were led to the West by Mrs. Marguarite Mansfield, the presiding Adah, and each was presented with favors of blue scarves enclosed in emblematic folders.

A refreshment hour followed the meeting. An arrangement of red carnations in the shape of a star, flanked by candles, provided the centerpiece. Assorted sandwiches, cheese delights, potato chips, cake, and hot coffee were served.

Chairman for hall decorations was Mrs. Earl Norwood. Mrs. Thomas Noe was program chairman and Mrs. Thomas Lewis was refreshment chairman.

Mrs. Rash, Mrs. Bailey Honored at Coffee Hour

MEET ...

Young Mr. Citizen

Those who were lucky enough to enjoy Scouting in their own youth know perhaps best of all what the nation owes to the Boy Scouts of America.

Today, as for the past 48 years, millions of boys are learning through Scouting the obligations and rights of citizens in a free land. As we celebrate the 48th anniversary of the Scout Movement, we salute the great organization that helps to mould our youth into citizens of tomorrow.

WE SALUTE THE BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA!
