12-Hour Period

juries in all were minor.

A total of three cars turned over

Gaston L. Parnell, Stella, was fined $75 and costs in court yester reckless driving and driving too fast for road conditions. His car, a 1956 Ford, landed on its top in Patrolman J. W. Sykes said Parnell told him he had just passed a car near Gales Creek, and had

He said he whipped the car to the right, skidded to the left and

A 1951 Buick driven by Mrs

Pearly T. Cannon, Broad Creek, turned over on its top 13 miles west of Morehead City on High-

Hurt were Harold Bennett, who suffered a jaw injury, cut lips and bruises and Leamon Grady, who had a gash by his nose. Both were from route 1 Mount Olive, as was the driver, Hubert Preston Tay

Patrolman Sykes said the Ford was headed toward Havelock. Tay lor claimed he went to sleep. He was charged with careless and

The car was wrecked way 24 at 6 p.m. Wednesday.

coming out of a side road.

Nashville Teacher Refuses Water Company 'Not Sure' Now About To Pay New Telephone Rate A stalwart vocational agriculture A stalwart vocational agriculture Well; Emergency Equipment Broken

Morehead City Couple Jailed for Fornication

Clarence W. Brown and Isabelle Casey got six-month jail sentences in Morehead City recorder's court Monday, Judge Herbert Phillips found them guilty of fornication and adultery.

The charges came about after the Casey woman swore out a war-rant against Brown for hitting her with a chair. Brown got a 30-day consolidated month sentence for his offense.

Herman E. Hughes was found guilty of his third drunken driving offense. For this he got a 12-month jail sentence suspended on pay ment of $300 and costs and his agreement not to drive a motor vehicle for a period of five years. $200 Fine

Alfred H. Bryant got a $200 fine and costs for driving drunk and for driving without lights on his ve-

Elizabeth Gray was fined $25 and costs for driving without a license and damage to personal property. Judge Phillips told her that the $25 would be refunded if she presents a license to the court within two

Pay Third of Costs

Six persons were charged one-third costs each for driving without city tags. They were James L. Britt, Francis Wade, Clarence H. Monroe, Albert Way, Beverly Rice and George F. Cribb.
Robert L. Best and Kermit W.

Long were charged court*costs for speeding. Kenneth S. Chianese paid costs for running a stop sign. Robert J. Williams, charged with speeding, forfeited his bond.

Seven defendants were not tried for license tag violations. They had purchased tags but had failed to put them on the car. They were Wayne J. Wheeler, Gordon I. Thompson, Alvin L. Wade, Paul G. Guthrie, Mary C. Owens, Joan-na W. Parish and Walter Neimi.

Cases were continued against the following: Ira Duncan Settle, James Henry Yancey, Dave Gaskill, Mary G. Harvey, James Harvey, P. D. Brewington, Nancy F. Ballou, Asa E. Cannon, Norman S. Willis, Charles H. Turner, Wil-George A. Sutorka, and Carol Bal-

75 Submit Contest Essays

submitted by Morehead High School students in the 1958 essay contest on "Vision and Highway Safety," it was announced yester-day by Dr. R. E. Outlaw, contest chairman.
Purpose of the contest is to make the public more aware of the part good vision plays in preventing good vision plays in preventing traffic accidents and highway fa-

North Carolina State Optometric Society in cooperation with the Safety Division of the North Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles. This is the second year this contest has been held in this state.

ceive a $500 U.S. Savings Bond and an all-expense paid trip to the North Carolina Optometric Society's annual banquet.

Dr. Outlaw today reminded high school students that the deadline for the contest is March 15, 1958. Entries submitted after that date cannot be considered.

Information about the contest may be obtained from Norman Clark at the Morehead City High

Cars Collide At Marshallberg

driving a 1956 Buick, collided at 7:30 a.m. last Friday with a 1958 Chevrolet driven by Miss Caroline H. Gillikin, Marshallberg.

Patrolman J. W. Sykes said that Miss Gillikin was headed south on the road to Marshallberg. As she approached the Willis house, the patrolman said that Willis backed out his driveway and into her car. No one was hurt. Damage to the Chevrolet was estimated at $500 and damage to the Buick at Willis was charged with failing to yield the right of way. His case was docketed in county court yes-

SPA Now Decides Williams is Okay

Four members of the State Ports Authority on Tuesday en-dorsed D. Leon Williams as new director of North Carolina's ports. The entire board is expected to approve the action

The authority had withheld final approval of Williams after it had learned that Williams operation of Georgia ports was under investigation.

Relative to ports business, Rep. Harold D. Cooley, North Carolina, and Congressmen Graham Barden and Alton Lennon conferred Wednesday at Washington with H. N. Larcombe Wilmington, representing the SPA, on increased use of North Carolina ports for shipment of agriculture products.

Cubs, Parents Attend Banquet

Table decoration of red hearts. with cupid dolls holding them, were used. Place cards were girl valentines for the ladies and bo valentines for the men, each holding an after dinuer mint. Also a log cabin was used in keeping with Lincoln's birthday. Favors were made for the parents by the

They were napkins folded, and there to positive the state of the state represent their kerchiefs.

Cub master Richard Shrake brought the meeting to order. Danny MacLawhorn gave the welcome. The response was given by Mr. John Ives. The invocation was given by the Rev. J. G. Lupton. Lawrence Ives gave the closing poem

After the dinner, the Cub Scouts gathered around their birthday cake and sang Happy Birthday. The cake was baked by Mrs. Richard Shrake, den mother of den No. 1.

December Fishing Less Productive, Figures Show

Fish landings at North Carolina ports during December amounted phone too to only 57 per cent of the landings reported in December 1956. A drop in menhaden, down 44.7 million pounds, was largely responsible for the lighter landings, according to figures released by the US De-partment of the Interior and the North Carolina Department of Conservation and Development.

Carteret, the state's most im portant menhaden landing county This is the secondary test has been held in this state.

Prizes of U.S. Savings Bonds totaling more than $1,000 are being offered winners on the local, landed slightly more than 59 million pounds of fish.

phone and Telegraph Co. the new

The teacher, D. A. Willey, is still paying his bill at the old rate, according to a report from Nashville. He has offered to post bond to cover the increase, should the utilities commission approve

This, of course, has caused quite bit of consternation among phone company officials. How does the State Utilities Commission view the matter?

Stanley Winborne, chairman of the commission, contacted by THE NEWS-TIMES yesterday, said he never heard of a utilities customer posting bond. (Under a new state law, a utiliies firm can post bond, put a rate increase into effect without the utilities commission's consent, and the bond guarantees that the company will refund to the customer any money he is overcharged, should the new rates not be al-

One-Way Law

Mr. Winborne said the law makes no provision for a utilities customer's posting bond to guarantee he will pay the higher rate, if the higher rate is granted.

"If the company can post bond to cover refunds, then I can post bond to cover the increase in case the commission approves the in-crease," Mr. Willey said.

THE NEWS - TIMES reporter The annual Blue and Gold Cub Scout banquet of Troop 308, Harlowe, was held Monday evening in the banquet room of the Rex Restaurant, Morehead City. privilege to the telephone user. Mr. Winborne replied, "You Winborne replied, never can tell."

never can tell."

An executive of the telephone company recently got in touch with Mr. Willey and said that he was the only one who had refused to pay the increase.

"That's all right," Mr. Willey replied, "I don't mind standing alone. The utilities convingion is alone. The utilities commission is there to protect me, and I'm back

Falls Back on Courts

Mr. Winborne was asked yester day whether the utilities commission really would back Mr. Willey up. Mr. Winborne said that the courts would have to decide that When the phone company offi-cial refused Mr. Willey's offer to post bond, the official said he post bond, the official said he could send a workman around to take Mr. Willey's phone out. Mr. Willey said he would get an injunction to prevent that.

Could the phone user get an injunction to prevent that, Mr. Winborne was asked.

orne was asked.

The utilities chairman replied that such a decision was up to the courts. He said the utilities commission had no authority.

The phone company continues billing Mr. Willey at the new rate and he continues paying the old. At last report, he still had his Patrolmen Start Intense Campaign Against Litter County highway patrolmen, joining with patrolmen throughout the state, have started rigid enforcement of the anti-litterbug law. Patrolman J. W. Sykes announced Wednesday that anyone seen throwing trash out a car win- To Sell Oyster Stew dow, or dumping garbage along

V. F. Rigling, general manager of General Waterworks, of which Carolina Water Co. is a subsidiary, said yesterday that he was not sure the company would put a new well down in Beaufort.

Mr. Rigling, accompanied by C. R. Morris, operating engineer, said they were making their

Heads Fund Drive

Miss Gunhilde Gunnersen, Morehead City, has been made chairman of the 1958 Red Cross and drive for Carteret County Miss Gunnersen announced yes-terday that the campaign will start March 10 and continue

The county's quota is $3,944.

Warmer Weather Brings Rain

Rain followed on the heels of a varm air front that pushed out the coldest weather recorded in the county for many years. After five days of warm, clear weather it began to rain Wednesday morning. By 5 p.m. Wednesday, weather observer Stamey Davis had measured 1.3 inches of rain. The rain national director J. B. Smith of continued until late in the night Greenville attended the Morehead and was followed by a dense for City Jaycee meeting at the Hotel yesterday morning.

The Maximum and Complexion for the City of the Complex of yesterday morning.

Maximum and minimum tem-

Monday

54 40 58 44 56 46 Wednesday

Bootlegger Goes To Roads, Will Serve 18 Months

Perry Cambridge, of Highway 24, west of Morehead City, was sent to the roads for 18 months yesterday in county recorder's Cambridge will serve six months on a former conviction and 12 months on a conviction in court yesterday. He was found guilty of possessing non-taxpaid whiskey for the purpose of sale.

Displayed in court was a half gallon jar of moonshine taken from Cambridge's house Saturday.

Men's Club will sell oyster stew Litterbugs convicted in court can at the church tomorrow, beginning be fined up to $50.

The State Health Department has recommneded that a new well be drilled to overcome the foul odor, bad taste and get rid of the sand in the water.

The town has also complained to the State Utilities Commission. Prior to Mr. Rigling's visit, C. W. Williams, local water company quarterly inspection trip to this area. Both men are from the Philadelphia office of General Water and odor complaints about Beau-fort water," Mr. Rigling said. "We are going to run tests and make some conclusions. We are taking the matter under consideration.

We haven't yet decided whether

He said it would take his com pany two to three weeks to do its testing and "make some concluwe will put down a new well."

"We are investigating the taste manager, said he was told that a new well was being contemplated for Beaufort, as well as one for Morehead City. Mr. Rigling estimated that the cost of drilling a new well in Beaufort would be $40,000. He hastened to add, "But we're not sure we're going to put the well down."

Mr. Rigling and Mr. Morris arrived here Tuesday night and were cheduled to leave last night. Mr. Rigling mentioned that his firm operates 93 water companies in 19

Jaycee Officials Visit Morehead

District Jaycee vice - president Wes Conklin of Jacksonville and

The two officials installed four peratures and wind direction for the week follow: new members and discussed the history of the Jaycees. They point-Max. Min. Wind ed out the ideals and aims of the organization and mentioned pro posed projects.

The new members are David Morris, Norris Edge, Zane Southerland and Bobby Matthews. Club president Dr. R. O. Barnum announced his selections for committee chairmen for the district Jaycee convention scheduled for the last weekend in April in Morehead City.

Overall chairman is Bill Baugham. Other chairmen are Cecil Adams, entertainment; Gerald Murdoch, religious; Marion Mills social activities; and L. E. Kelly, registration.

Part of the meeting was devoted ball program.

Marine Discusses Propped up against the jar was Cambridge's sign: "CASH—Let's be friends. Please don't ask for Cub Scout Program at the PTA Center. Mr. Christoprogram. He pointed out that the Cub Scouts are preparing to become Boy Scouts and that they and their parents are brought closer together by Cub activities.

Mr. Christopherson was the guest of program chairman Junius T. Creech.

man Bob Montague reported that his committee has selected a play to be presented by the club. The to be presented by the club. The play will be given to raise funds for various Rotary projects. Defor various Rotary projects. De-tails will be announced later by publicity chairman Nathan Gar-were Dr. W. L. Woodard and Stan-ley Potter of Beaufort and Bob Howard of Morehead City.

Tide Table Tides at the Beaufort Bar

U	nign		LO
811	1337	Friday,	Feb. 28
	2:41	a.m.	9:5	6 a.
8:	3:18	p.m.	10:0	2 p.
80	199	Saturday,	March 1	42.5
8 35	3:56	a.m.	10:5	2 a.
80	4:34	p.m.	11:0	1 p.
18	Second Co.	Sunday,	March 2	100
80	5:04	a.m.	11:4	4 a.
ж	5:37	p.m.	11:5	6 p.
133	10/26/2	Monday,	March 3	165
м	6:03	a.m.	12:3	3 a.i
蟉	6:31	p.m.
		Tuesday,	March 4
e	a-88

7:19 p.m.

D. G. Bell to Run

nounced yesterday that he will seek the Democratic nomination for general assemblyman in the served on 11 committees and was vice chairman of the local government committee and the commercial fisheries committee

B&PWians Hear Cancer Official

vision, American Cancer Society, spoke Tuesday night to the Carteret Business and Professional drive in April. Miss Lyda Piner, Morehead City, will be chairman.

Mrs. Marian Pugh.
During the business session, the club voted to put a $236 refund do, everything will probably be all from the State Home Project into right. If there is a power failure, a scholarship fund for Carteret girls. Mrs. Marshall Ayscue was named chairman of the scholarship committee. She will select her com

Mrs. Virginia Sample was named

The club voted to give a half ton of coal to a needy family on Harkers Island and took up a collection to buy necessary items for an indigent cancer patient.

Anchor Florist Shop.

Volunteer Chairman Announces Bond Sales

bond chairman for the county, re will be sold at 9th and Arendell same piece of ground in the soil Streets, Morehead City.

If there should be a power failure, Beaufort now has rector of the North Carolina di-through power failures in this day on a charge of careless and Mrs. Stone explained that the 1947.

aims of the cancer society are early detection, education and research. Of the money collected in North Cardina 60 persons and the stone of the society and the society a North Carolina, 60 per cent remains no water for homes, businesses, or here and 40 per cent is used na- for fighting fires. tionally in research projects, many of which are being carried on in asked yesterday if there was any the state, 40 per cent is returned to the counties for use in helping recommended that the diesel en-cancer patients. The cancer socie- gine be run during last week's cold mittee members.

cheer committee chairman, re-placing Mrs. Violet Howard, who has moved to Washington, N. C.

J. R. Sanders, volunteer savings ported yesterday that $62,857.59 worth of savings bonds were sold

To Sell Flower Shrubs

way to get water, once the tank empties. Three auxiliary pumps at the pumping house and the large diesel engine used to supply power during an emergency froze during last week's cold wave. The diesel has split wide open at several points.

C. W. Williams, manager of the water company, said yesterday that the pumps and motor were Three Cars Turn not in operating condition. F. Rigling, general manager of the water company, was asked if any effort were being made to repair or replace the damaged equipment. said that no repairs would be made because should a new well be put down, there would a different arrangement on emergency in the county in a 12-hour period this week. The first accident was would not be needed.

"We only use that equipment during a power failure," Mr. Rigling explained. operations and such equipment at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday, the sec ond at 6 p.m. Wednesday and the third at 3:30 a.m. yesterday. In-

This, apparently, seemed like a casual conversational topic to Mr. Rigling, who has not had to live

Although there has been no major power failure recently, most people can remember the interpeople can remember the inter-mittent power during hurricanes at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday. and the complete power failure during the ice storm of February gotten back in his lane of traffic when he thought he saw a car ended, wheels up, in the ditch. Damage to the car was estimated North Carolina hospitals and universities.

Of the amount that remains in said, "Yes, by bucket." The same official said it was ty, Mrs. Stone said, strives to keep it from freezing, but the administrative costs low; therefore, only 2 per cent of the budget is set aside for administration.

Accompanying Mrs. Stone was

If there is no power failure be-Mrs. Cannon was headed west. On the east side of the Broad Creek bridge, Patrolman Sykes said she pulled out to pass a car, skidded off the right side of the tween now and when the water company decides what it's going to road, and turned over in the field. The car was demolished. Mrs. Cannon suffered skinned knuckles Cannon suffered skinned knuckles on one hand.

Two passengers were slightly injured at 3:30 yesterday morning when the 1967 Ford in which they were riding toppled end over end and came to rest in a field just east of the Core Creek bridge.

Hust were Harold Remett, who

Premeasurement Begins Monday

Premeasurement of land to be used for planting alloted crops began Monday. County ASC office manager B. J. May says that 31 farmers signed up for the service. The measurement is being done by Clayton Cannon of Newport.

reckless driving and going too fast for road conditions. His bond was forfeited in court yesterday. Mr. May also says that his of-Mr. May also says that his office began measuring land, to be placed in the acreage reserve phase of the soil bank, Tuesday. He revealed that 136 tobacco farmers and 22 cotton growers have signed up. Tobacco payments will come to about $97,000 and cotton payments will be about $3,200, Mr.
May predicts.
Most of the farmers who are putting their land in the acreage reserve are planting the fields in kobe lespedeza now. Many, according to Mr. May, will plant soybeans or field peas later in the spring or wait until fall and plant small grains, crimson clover, rye

Heart Fund Totals $754.11 Collections in the county Heart

Fund, minus the money in coin collectors, stood yesterday at $754.11. Included in that figure is an estimated $115 collected in the heart drive Sunday in Beaufort.

Mrs. Frank Sample, treasurer of the heart campaign, gave the following report on funds turned in to her: $14 in individual donations from Beaufort; $25.47 from Mar-shallberg; $47.75 from Broad Creek, and $551.89 from Morehead

The Marshallberg, Broad Creek and Morehead City receipts are from Heart Sunday collections. The campaign officially ends today, but persons who have not yet contributed may mail their checks contributed may mail their checks to Mrs. Frank Sample, Morehead

Beaufort Rotary Elects Directors

Five directors were elected Tuesday night at the Beaufort Rotary Club meeting at the Scout build-

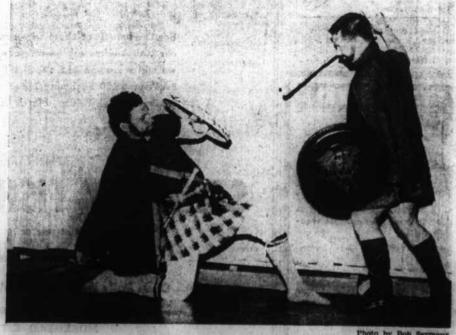

They are Bruce Tarkington, Jim Wheatley, Stanley Potter, Ralph Thomas and the Rev. C. Edward From those directors, new officers will be chosen. The Rev. Mr. Sharp gave a brief talk. The program followed a country style steak supper. Visitors were Dr. S. W. Thompson and J. R. Sanders, Morehead City Rotarians.

Next week's meeting will be in charge of James Davis.

Presbyterian Men to Meet
The Men of the Church will meet at 6:30 Tuesday night in the fellowship hall. Members should make reservations with T. C. Hyman Jr. or Earl Stocks.

be fined up to $50. Macbeth Dies on Battlefield

MacDuff, Ethan Davis, prepares to finish off Macbeth, Billy Fulcher, in a scene from the play Mabeth presented by Morehead City High School students in school activity period yesterday.

Ted Christopherson, Cherry Point Marine and Cub Scoutmaster, was guest speaker at the Newport Roton's Club will sell over etwer the Control of the Control pherson discussed the Cub Scout

Entertainment committee chair

Guests attending the meeting

1:22 p.m.

For Assemblyman D. G. Bell, Morehead City, an-

primary. . Bell has represented Carteret during two terms in the legislature, in 1955 and in 1957. During the 1957 session he Women's Club.

The club will sponsor the cancer

Mrs. James Smith, president of the club, presided. A barbecue supper was served by the hostess, Mrs Justin Robinson, prior to the meet ing. The meeting was held in the in the county during January. This figure, he reported, repre sents over nine per cent of the county's goal of $690,900 for this

Portrays Comedy Role

Miss Madeline Royal portrays the switchboard operator in the forthcoming Carteret Community theatre comedy, Peekaboo Penny. Miss Royal plays the part which made her a rollicking hit when Peekaboo Penny was staged in Morehead City in 1950. The play will start at 8 p.m. next Saturday, March 8, at the recreation building, Morehead City.