

Cubs Beat Rockets to Even Series in Teen-Age League

By FRANK CASSANO

Gary "Dumple" Guthrie, with a strong right arm and a mighty big bat led his Lion Cubs teammates to an 8-5 victory over the Rotary Rockets to even up the series at one apiece. With the score tied up at 2 all in the top of the fourth, Guthrie came on to pitch.

In the four innings he worked, he struck out 11, gave up two singles, and walked eight. In the fifth inning he issued six walks, good for three runs for the Rockets, but struck out the side.

In the bottom of the same frame he led off and on the first pitch slammed a screaming line drive which cleared the center field wall 310 feet away by at least forty feet. In addition to the four bagger, Guthrie had a double and a single in four official tries with the stick.

Lions Get 12 Hits

The Lions must have been wearing their hitting uniforms, for they collected a total of twelve hits, four of them for extra bases, from the combined offerings of young Johnny Matthews and Ernest Lewis.

The Rockets, meanwhile, were able to collect only three hits, but one of these was a circuit clout by Lewis over the left field fence with David Bell on first in the opening inning. The other hits were singles by Chuck Sledge and Bernard Leary, neither hit counting in the run scoring.

The game was fast and well played, and could easily have gone the other way in the fifth inning when Ernest Lewis lined a drive over the left field fence with the bases loaded, but it went foul by a matter of feet. Sledge was guilty of the same thing, and both men struck out.

Defensive Play Outstanding

The defensive play was again outstanding with both teams cutting down runners with regularity and each team turning in at least one double play. While Guthrie was the real star of the day, two of his teammates, Mac Mizelle and Ed Sanderson each collected three hits in four appearances.

Guthrie's battery-mate, Jim Nolan, came up with two in four tries. The losing pitcher was Ernest Lewis, who came on in the third inning and gave up six runs on eight hits.

The rubber game of this series is to be played on Friday, Aug. 1, at the Little League Park in Morehead City, the official home of the Morehead City Teen-Age League, with the "Play Ball" being called at 5:15 p.m.

Good Catches Reported From Sound, Ocean Piers

By BOB SIMPSON

Headboat fishing has been very good. Blues and Spanish are running inshore, sheephead are in sound and river, and kings are hitting well off the ocean piers. Offshore trolling has been slow with some exceptions.

Donald Olsen of Cleveland, Ohio, caught 60 pounds of sea bass from Jack Piper VII; 31 Camp Morehead boys caught 300 sea bass, 10 porgies and 4 sail-or's choice aboard Carolina Queen, with two boys accounting for 65 of the sea bass; Wade Royall of Jacksonville had 67 bottom fish from Danco.

Inshore, Charles Wheatley and family of Beaufort caught 35 blues and Spanish aboard Johnny Styron's Sylvia. Henry Holt's Modoc picked up 11 blues off the fort point in a few minutes of fishing. Joe Rose's Edna, in three half-day trips, totaled 143 blues and 17 Spanish.

Tommy Lulu, with A. L. Webster and Jack Denny of Greensboro, came in with 31 Spanish, 20 blues, 4 kings, Frank Parrott of Kinston brought 15 blues and Spanish back to Edgewater Marina.

At Mom and Pop's David Smith and Ed Pinski of Kinston reported 11 sheephead, 4 to 8 pounds each. At Fleming's Pier, where there has been good croaker fishing, one unhappy fisherman brought an estimated 15-pound flounder up to the pier before losing him.

He shares honors in the fish-that-got-away department with O. H. Lambert of Biscoe, who lost half his king mackerel at Thompson's Pier to a shark, came away with 23 pounds. Thompson estimates the total fish at 50 pounds minimum.

Elsewhere on the ocean side, all the piers have had plenty of strikes from kings: one king, a 25-pounder, was reported by Chester Johnson of Morehead City at Sportsman Pier. From the Triple-Ess there have been very good runs of big Spanish mackerel in the evenings. Tarpon continue to be hooked almost daily from various piers.

In the river, Bunch's reported 10 sheephead by Mr. Stallings of New Bern; Ed Kemp and Red Schultz of New Bern came back to B. J. White's Camp with 11 sheephead.

Offshore, Norman Wood's party from Mebane caught 10 amberjack, 6 kings (one a 26-pounder), one cobia, 10 false albacore, 14 dolphin and 2 ocean bonito aboard Shearwater.

Mrs. Milton Roush and family of Newport caught 11 amberjack, 3 false albacore, 2 dolphin and a king aboard Mary Z. C. R. Gilliam and party, Raleigh, fishing from Bunny Too, had 17 amberjack, 2 kings, one cobia, 10 dolphin and 30 pounds of bottom fish. From Harriet L. H. Mr. Glasgow and party had 5 amberjack, 5 false albacore and one king.

New Bern Beats Morehead Blues

The Morehead City Blues lost their first game in 11 decisions Sunday afternoon. The New Bern Rookies shut out the Blues by a 6-0 margin.

Manager Albert Mills' Blues were playing without the services of their leading hitters, William Becton and Al Anderson. Lefty James Henry, who has won nine straight on the mound for the Blues, also missed the game.

Whip Collins was the losing pitcher, giving up six runs on 11 hits. Blues fielders made five errors. The Blues got only five hits during the contest.

Manager Mills says he will let the team rest this Sunday before taking up a five-game schedule for the remainder of August. One of the games will be a rubber match with the Rookies. The Blues won the first contest, played in Morehead City.

Good Fishing

Mrs. James Phillips, Morehead City, caught 21 sea mullet in about two hours Monday afternoon. She was fishing in the surf near Pine Knoll Shores. Mrs. Phillips said the smallest one weighed over two pounds.

Pud Hassell Pitches One Hit Game In Beaufort League

Pud Hassell gave up only one hit Wednesday afternoon in pitching the A team to a 23-2 victory over the C team in Beaufort Church League play. Getting the only hit off Hassell was Lonnie Dill Jr. Hassell's teammates, in the meantime, got to loser Alton Hill and three other C team hurlers for six hits and 23 runs. Hassell struck out 13 batters on his way to the victory. The victory gave the A team a league mark of two wins and two losses, good for second place.

Llewellyn Phillips is Among Stars Slated for Action in All-Star Game

Greensboro — Llewellyn Phillips of Morehead City will be on the East basketball squad for the 10th annual All-Star game here. The former Eagle ace is one of 11 high-scoring hoopers selected by East Coach Bo Farley of Greenville for the Aug. 4 classic.

Phillips, who is 6' 3" tall, will be one of the "in-between" players as far as size is concerned. John Key of Durham is the tallest man at 6' 8" and Jon Burwell of New Bern is the shortest, 5' 10".

In ability, the Morehead City man must be rated near the top. He scored 391 points in 14 regular season games for an average of 27.9 points per game.

The All-Star game is the big test for high school stars who are pointing for college careers.

The list of names who soared to the front at all-star time and continued to blossom out in college includes fellows like Warren (Sonny) Russell of New Bern who set all sorts of scoring records at East Carolina and Kim Buchanan of Raleigh who started off at State and finished at Atlantic Christian.

No one can forget Jonesville's Dickie Hemric and his All-American status at Wake Forest. Hemric was a big star that night back in 1951 when he scored 25 points which is still a record. The All-Star game earned Hemric his first statewide recognition, started him on the road to even greater stardom.

Little Jackie Murdock, another Raleigh native, dominated the scene in '53, even though "giants" like Raeford Wells, a big star later at Lenoir Rhyne, were around the same year. Murdock of course is the same eager who provided that fine guard play for Wake Forest when the Deacs gave everybody trouble.

A year later another little cager, Bobby Joe Harris of King, carried off the outstanding player award after tossing in 16 points and leading the West to victory. Harris went on to greater performances at Duke.

In 1955 Kinston's Darwin Williams, who later earned mopograms at Atlantic Christian, was selected No. 1. He, too, was below the 6-foot-mark. But the following summer husky 6-foot-6 Carroll Youngkin of North Davidson, now of Duke, turned out to be the star of stars.

Last year it was Bruce Hoadley of Raleigh who was selected as the outstanding player. Hoadley went on to enjoy a banner season with the State College freshman quintet this past season.

The roster of players for the east who will be looking for that honor this summer follows: Wayne Yates, 6' 2", Apex; Ward Marslander, 6', Washington; Llewellyn Phillips, 6' 3", Morehead City; Jon Burwell, 5' 10", New Bern; Char-

Freezing Foods Wrong Way Does Not Save Money

By FLOYD G. GARNER Home Agent

Everyone with whom I come in contact is busy... busy canning and freezing fruits and vegetables, in addition to their routine chores. To see all this conservation of food is very satisfying to me, but at the same time, it might be wise to check ourselves occasionally and see if we are using or abusing our home freezers.

If you use a freezer right you can save time, food, food quality, disposition and money. Chances are you will not save much money, but you will eat better. Do not expect to be able to buy a fur coat with immediate savings. Money-saving with a freezer is a long-time thing. You have to work at it. You invest in good health when you buy a freezer. And that is one form of money saving.

Time Saved
You save time when you use a freezer. If you use the time saved wisely it can save, or make, you money. You are likely to do better meal planning with a freezer, especially if you buy frozen foods. Some people have been able to save by planned buying instead of impulse and haphazard buying.

Use your food in the freezer. Keep food going in and out. Think of your food as a checking account — not a savings account. Frozen food turnover pays in terms of money and food quality.

When you have invested your time and energy and some money in the food in your freezer, it is only good common "horse" sense to safeguard the food. Too many folks lose food in their freezers from carelessness. If you lose food, let it be from a cause that leaves you blameless.

Things that you cannot control may happen. You can control the union of the plug and the outlet. Make it a strong connection that no mop can jar loose and no cat can pull out.

lie Lewis, 6' 2", Kinston; David Day, 6' 3", Roxboro; Bill Hubbard, 6' 3", Raleigh; Ronnie White, 6' 1", Wilmington; Jackie Bullard, 6' 3", Wilmington; Jim Whitfield, 6' 5", Durham; and John Key, 6' 8", Durham.

and sit on it to close it you shorten the life of the suitcase.

If you fill a chest-type freezer too full and use pressure to close it, the hinges spring. Then the freezer will not seal properly. Not guilty? Good!

Although good packaging materials, put on right, and good containers well closed do help keep frost from collecting inside the freezer, their main job is to keep all the goodness in the food. Use the ones that keep moisture in and air out.

If you use the drugstore wrap, you save one-third of the packaging materials it takes for a butcher's wrap.

Aluminum foil, a good laminated material, some coated materials, and some films are good. Use materials made especially for frozen foods. Use just enough wrapping material to cover the food and to make a tight closure. Any more slows up freezing and takes up storage space.

Containers of tin, aluminum, heavy aluminum foil, and bags of frozen food film are good if they are closed right. Be sure the lids fit. Put them on tight.
