Have a seat! Look this way! Say cheese! Those were the three fam-ous statements of the photograph-ers Friday, Sept. 26, when picture men from Delmar came to make the school pictures. There were a lot of pictures to be made, but everything was done in order, and the pictures were made in no time at all.

The seniors completed one of the hardest jobs to be done, a short time ago. That was the election of the annual staff. This year they

FIRST-CITIZENS AWARDS FREE KODAK CAMERAS TO NEW SAVERS

Savings Received by November 6 Earn Interest from November 1

Thrifty - minded residents of the Morehead City-Beaufort-Newport area have responded enthus-iastically to First-Citizens Bank & Trust Company's recently in-troduced savings-incentive plan featuring the gift of a new Kodak

Officers of the bank report that the above-normal registry of new depositors in the past sev-eral days may be attributed sub-stantially to this offer designed to encourage the savings habit.

Interest in the First-Citizens' sponsored project centers around this attractive Kodak Bullet Camera which is presented to all new customers opening a savings account of $50 or more.

The same free camera offer is available to present savings customers who bring in new de-positors opening accounts of $50

"Folks really like this bonus camera gift which they receive over and above the 3% guaranteed interest on savings," said a bank spokesman.
