Garden Club Hears Talk On Dried Arrangements

Mrs. M. J. Loutit, new chairman, presided at the Garden and Civics Department meeting Wednesday afternoon at the civic center.

Mrs. J. R. Gibson of Swansboro was introduced who in turn introduced Mrs. Marie Britte of Jacksonville. Mrs. Britte gave an interesting demonstration of dried arrangements, telling ways to attain different dried effects.

She said that dried arrangements are an inexpensive hobby which will give many hours of pleasure to the arranger.

Mrs. J. F. Herbert, exhibits chairman, called attention to the tables of floral arrangements submitted by club members and outlined the exhibits plan for the year.

The exhibits were judged by Mrs. Gibson and blue ribbons were awarded Mrs. P. H. Geer and Mrs. F. C. Salisbury. Red ribbons went to Mrs. Geer, Mrs. E. A. Council and Mrs. Herbert. Honorable mention went to Mrs. Loutit.

After introducing the guests Mrs. Loutit outlined projects for the year. Landscaping and beautification of the grounds at Samarcaud and the help-a-home project were the most important ones.

Mrs. Salisbury asked everyone to be prepared for the UNICEF trick or treat campaign. Mrs. Council, horticulture chairman, gave suggestions on things to do in the fall and winter for your garden.

The annual report of the club was given by Mrs. G. D. Gamble and the club's certificate of honor was passed around to members.

A poem, Death of a Mighty Tree, was read by Mrs. D. G. Bell. It was announced that the November meeting would be a dinner meeting Nov. 12 at 6:30.

The hostesses served refreshments of block cake, tea, mints and nuts.
