Intermediate Scouts Have Birthday Party Thursday

Intermediate Girl Scout troop 148 held a meeting at the recreation building Thursday afternoon. President Linda Willis called the meeting to order and we sang the Girl Scout song.

During the business session we discussed plans for our Christmas party and decided to help a needy family.

This was the first year that our troop has been registered so we had a birthday party. We had a white cake trimmed in green with one candle. This year four new girls joined our troop.

Cake and colas were served to Ronetta Willis, Marcie Smith, Cheryl Patrick, Joanna Ennis, Janet Jefferis, Manie Piner, Jane Holt, Catherine Taylor, Jennifer Maire, Carol Beelar, Sandra Young, Linda Willis, and our leaders, Mrs. Curtis Holt and Mrs. Neal Willis.

We closed with taps and the friendship circle.
