Gerald Miller of Newport Weds Miss Fay Pennington in Florida

Miss Margaret Fay Pennington of Jacksonville, Fla., became the bride of Gerald Matthew Miller of Newport in a double ring ceremony Saturday evening at six o'clock in Normandy Baptist Temple, Jacksonville, Fla.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wilson N. Pennington Sr. of Jacksonville and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ken L. Miller of route one, Newport.

The Rev. W. A. McMillan officiated at the candlelight ceremony. The vows were spoken before an altar banked with baskets of white gladiolus, palms and greenery.

Mrs. Sue Smith, organist, and Wilson Pennington Jr., brother of the bride, soloist, presented a program of nuptial music prior to the ceremony. Mr. Pennington sang Because, Always and Bless This House.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white chantilly lace over net and taffeta. The sweetheart neckline was outlined with iridescent sequins and pearls and the fitted bodice was attached to a bouffant skirt.

She wore a crown of lace and seed pearls, to which was attached a fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of tube roses centered with a white orchid.

Miss Glenda Faye Miller of Newport, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Miss Carol Hall and Miss Carol Ann Black were bridesmaids.

The attendants wore identical ballerina length lace over taffeta gowns in aqua, shrimp and light green. The gowns were designed with full circular skirts and bodices featuring scoop necklines edged in satin with matching cummerbunds.

They wore headbands of matching colors with nose veils embroidered in pearls and carried bouquets of bronze mums.

Miss Diane Salmon was flower girl. She wore a gown of yellow lace and net over taffeta and carried a basket of rose petals.

George Smith served the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were Gene Moore and Raymond Serrells.

Master Wayne Meadows was ring bearer. He carried a white satin and lace pillow on which were placed the rings.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Pennington wore a teal blue crepe dress with matching hat and black accessories. She wore a corsage of white orchids.

Announcement

I wish to announce to my many friends and patrons and the general public that I have sold my interest in Carteret Supply Co. to George A. Pennell, effective as of Dec. 29, 1958.

It is with a feeling of sadness that I relinquish my interest and connection with the above-named firm, but failing health makes it necessary that I do so.

I wish, however, to thank my hundreds of friends in Morehead City, Beaufort, Newport and Swansboro and other communities in Carteret and Onslow Counties for their patronage and loyalty to me during these years.

Although the transfer in ownership and management has passed from me to George A. Pennell, the name of the firm will remain the same, Carteret Supply Co.

Mr. Pennell has been with me for 16 years and knows the business. He is capable and deserving and I trust you will continue to give him your patronage and loyalty, just as you have done in the past years.
