

Kings in the Spring

Photo by Reginald Lewis

The spring king mackerel catches have been great. Marie Blanchard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Blanchard, Morehead City, holds two 10-pound kings caught Sunday by Capt. Otis Purfoy's fleet of partyboats.

May 13—Mrs. Sadie Garner is spending some time in Elizabeth City with her daughter, Mrs. James M. Rogers, and Mr. Rogers. Before going to Elizabeth City, she visited her sister, Mrs. W. P. Herrington in Rocky Mount.

Mrs. R. K. Montague and children and Mrs. Rena Edwards were in New Bern Saturday.

Mrs. W. J. Kirby and Mrs. D. Ira Garner spent Tuesday in Kinston.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hunnings of Charlotte, their son, W. G. Hunnings Jr., and his family of Leaksville, and their daughter, Mrs. Newell Coward and her family of Hartsville, S. C., were here recently to visit his mother, Mrs. Martha Hunnings and sisters, Mrs. S. T. Dudley and Miss Carvie Hunnings.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Meares returned home last week from a vacation trip to St. Petersburg, Fla. Miss Edith Prescott of Portsmouth, Va., spent the weekend here with her mother, Mrs. Edna Prescott.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Harness and children returned to their home in Raleigh Sunday, after the weekend here with Mr. and Mrs. Ira Garner. Leon A. Mann returned home with them and will spend several days in Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. David McCain spent Sunday in Atlantic with her mother, Mrs. Julia Hill.

Mrs. Albert Gribble of Norfolk, Va., returned home last week after a visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd G. Garner.

Mrs. Larry Howard and little son visited her parents in Hickory last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Lewis and daughter, Betty Joyce, of Rocky Mount were weekend guests of Mrs. S. T. Dudley.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lipscomb of Hopewell, Va., spent the weekend here with their daughter, Mrs. Zeb Mauney Jr., and her family.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Pruitt and family spent the weekend here. They returned to Chincupin Sunday.

The Rev. C. T. Rogers of Tarboro spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ira Garner.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hibbs and son, Rocky, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hibbs and daughter, Mary Lou, and Mrs. Parker Guthrie spent Sunday at Lake Waccamaw, where the parents of Mrs. Lewis Hibbs and other members of the family had a picnic dinner at the cottage of an aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Moore and son, Timothy, spent the weekend here with her mother, Mrs. Ada B. Allen, and other relatives. They returned to their home in North Wilkesboro Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Wheatly and family of Beaufort spent Sunday here with his grandmother, Mrs. P. P. Garner.

Mrs. M. J. Mitchell of New Bern was the guest of Mrs. Parker Guthrie on Tuesday.

Mrs. J. S. Neal of Norfolk, Va., arrived Monday and will spend the week with her mother, Mrs. P. P. Garner.

Ormsby Mann spent the weekend here with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Howard of New Bern, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Howard of Morehead City, and Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Blair of Vanceboro were here for Mother's Day with Mrs. I. N. Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Thompson of Durham and Mrs. Thompson's mother, Mrs. Eva Garner, arrived last week and are at Mrs. Garner's home.

C. G. Jones is home from the Veterans' Hospital in Fayetteville where he has been a patient the past ten days.

Miss Reba McCain has returned home from an extended visit in Cove City and Norfolk, Va. Her sister, Mrs. Edell Hunnings went to Cove City for her.

Bridge Club Entertained Mrs. E. B. Comer entertained members of the bridge club last week.

Mrs. M. C. Howard won high score, Mrs. R. L. Prall second high and Mrs. Marvin Gray low. Refreshments of lemon cream pie, nuts and cakes were served after the game.

Circles Meet The Bessie Herrington Circle met at the home of Mrs. Louis Williams, the total circle membership of 19 was present. Mrs. Allen Elliott gave the invocation and call to worship.

The hymn, We Give Thee but Thine Own, was read. The meditation, in the form of a Litany of Thanksgiving and based on a letter from a missionary in Japan, Miss Pat Patterson, was given by Mrs. Elliott.

The joy and gratitude expressed by this missionary in her first year of foreign mission work, was an inspiring story. Causes for gratitude in the work of the Woman's Division around the world; a oneness in Christ by the efforts of those working with other denominations to bring His teaching to all the world; sharing our talents and resources with others that we may understand what brotherhood really means; the influence of the local Church and its mission in the community, completed the theme 'What's the Gift May Be.'

The Spiritual Life thought, Why Should I Attend Church, was given by Mrs. Edgar Comer.

The Chairman Mrs. Johany Throver presided at the business session. Routine business was conducted and reports heard. Changing of circle members was announced. Secret Pals were revealed and gifts exchanged. The hostess served lime jello, russian tea cakes, nuts and colas.

The Lib Mauney Circle met with Mrs. John Lilly, ten members present. The program theme, The God Who Gathers, was given by Mrs. Edgar Hibbs. Reports were read and routine business transacted. Gifts were exchanged and secret pals revealed. The hostess served strawberry shortcake.

The Mary C. Millis Circle met at the home of Mrs. A. B. Garner. Eight members were present. Routine business was conducted, reports read. Program material taken from the Methodist Woman was given by Mrs. Alice Garner. The hostess served ice cream, cookies and colas.

The Susannah Wesley Circle met at the home of Mrs. Lloyd N. Garner. Fifteen members were present. The program theme, The 7 Quadsennial Goals 1956-1960, was given by Mrs. Staniel Bell; to commit ourselves to the Spirit of Christ, to accept responsibility in the local Church, the avenues of Christian Education in the World Mission, the training of young people for mission work, practicing the principles of fellowship without barriers, giving of self, time, and possessions for others and practicing peace and justice in daily attitudes.

What has been our growth in these goals during the past three years? Reports were heard. In the exchange of gifts secret pals were revealed. Mrs. Albert Gribble of Norfolk, Va., was a guest. The hostess served strawberry shortcake.

The Gertie Howard Circle met at the home of Mrs. Clarence Millis, 12 members present. The program, Whatever The Gift May Be, was given by Mrs. Letha Henderson. The scripture reading II Cor. 9:6-8 was followed by the meditation of Thanksgiving by a missionary at the close of her first year of work in Japan.

The hymn, Take My Life, was read and the devotion closed with the benediction.

Mrs. Clarence Millis gave the spiritual life thought. The hostess served delicious strawberry shortcake.

The bridge club met at the home of Mrs. R. L. Prall. High score was won by Mrs. M. C. Howard and Mrs. C. H. Lockett, low by Mrs. W. D. Roberts and Mrs. Parker Guthrie. Bingo was won by Mrs. W. D. Roberts. The hostess served strawberry shortcake and iced tea. Prizes were baskets of strawberries, attractively wrapped.

With the Armed Forces

Gene A. Nolen, Beaufort, Signs Up for Paratroops

Gene A. Nolen, 415 Pollock St., Beaufort, left recently for Fort Jackson, S. C., to begin eight weeks of basic military training. Nolen, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Nolen of Beaufort took advantage of the Army's enlistment written guarantee and signed up for Airborne.

After completion of basic training, Nolen will receive advanced infantry training, and then be assigned to a parachute unit for airborne training.

According to M/Sgt. J. S. Yonick, local Army recruiter, men seeking travel and adventure may be assigned to the Screaming Eagles of the 101st Airborne division or The All-Americans of the 82nd Airborne division.

Great Lakes, Ill. — Bobby M. Blake, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Blake of route 2 Newport, graduated from recruit training May 9 at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

The graduation exercises, marking the end of nine weeks of "boot camp", included a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries.

In nine weeks of instruction, the "raw recruit" is developed into a Navy Bluejacket, ready for duty with the fleet.

Camp Lejeune—Competing in the 1959 Eastern Division Rifle and Pistol Matches May 5-9 at Camp Lejeune was Marine Acting S/Sgt. Stephen W. Raskett Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen W. Raskett, Mil-bury, Mass., and husband of the former Miss Evelyn M. Taylor of Newport.

Stephen W. Raskett Jr.

Before enlisting in October 1948, he attended Worcester Boys Trade School.

Winners of the Eastern Division matches, one of four shooting tournaments staged annually by the Marine Corps to train advanced marksmen and marksmanship coaches, advance to the All-Marine competition to be held at San Diego, Calif., in June.

Montreal (AP)—Leo M. Murray became Montreal's first bowler to roll a perfect 300 score in duckpins in more than 25 years. He turned the trick in a recent practice game.

T/Sgt. William Gorges, Atlantic, above, recently served two weeks' active duty at Myrtle Beach Air Force Base, S. C.

The sergeant, who regularly works as an electronics mechanic at the Cherry Point Marine Air Station, worked in the same capacity at Myrtle Beach AFB in the 354th Armament and Electronics Squadron.

The sergeant is a veteran of six years in the Air Force. Sergeant Gorges and his wife, Avis, have three children: Diekie, Virginia and William David. Sgt. Gorges is a member of Flight E, Morehead City Air Force Reserve.

United States Air Force Reservist, T/Sgt. Aaron T. Bowen, above, recently served two weeks' active duty at Myrtle Beach Air Force Base, S. C.

Lab at the Marine Air Station. The sergeant is a veteran of eight years in the Navy and two in the Air Force.

Sergeant Bowen, Beaufort, began his two-week tour of duty April 20. He regularly works at Cherry Point, as a shop supervisor in the Test Equipment Standards

Sergeant Bowen and his wife, Rosemary, have four children: Mary Kathryn, Thomas, Christopher and Robert. Sergeant Bowen is a member of Flight E, Morehead City Air Force Reserve.

May 13—Mr. Darrel Wade returned Tuesday to Pascagoula, Miss., after spending a few days with his mother Mrs. D. V. Wade.

Mr. Gulon Simpson Jr. left Monday evening to return to Charlotte after spending the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gulon Simpson.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Lewis of Wilmington spent the weekend at home.

Mrs. Ruth Heady has returned home after spending some time with her son, Harry Heady and family at Alken, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Willis were visitors with their mother, Mrs. Eva Willis, at Morehead Sunday afternoon.

Thief in Church

Anniston, Ala. (AP)—Sunday was workday for a thief at Pine Avenue Baptist Church. Police reported somebody took the entire Sunday School collection of $213.36 while the money was left unattended briefly between Sunday School and church services.

Advertisement for Piggly Wiggly featuring 'BETTER MEATS? ... then Shop Quality!' and 'PICNICS 29¢ LB.' with various food items and prices.

Advertisement for Ford cars titled 'Extra Dividends YOUR FORD DEALER HAS FOR YOU!' listing various benefits like 'FREE BUYER'S DIGEST OF NEW CAR FACTS' and 'FREE SAFETY CHECK'.