Lions Donate $50 For Talking Bible

Members of the Morehead City Lions club voted to donate $50 to the State Association for the Blind Thursday night at their weekly meeting at the Hotel Fort Macon. The money will be used to purchase a talking Bible, which is a reading of the Bible on record for use by blind people. The record will be placed in a circulating library and distributed in the Carteret County area. Members also voted to make a donation to the Merchant's Association for the Christmas Lighting Fund. The amount of the donation will be decided by the board of directors at their next meeting. Larry McComb, sports editor of THE NEWS-TIMES was the guest speaker for the evening. He spoke to Lion members on "A Newcomer's Impressions of Carteret County."
