Atlantic Observes Book Week, Stages Carnival

By EVELYN HARRIS

Hi, everyone. My but has it been busy these last two weeks. Everyone is hurrying around trying to finish odd jobs and beginning again at a new task.

National Book Week is here and every student at AHS has gone all out for it. Everyone has made a poster, booklet, or scene illustrating a book. These have been put on display in the hall between Mr. Cockerham and Mrs. Parker's home rooms. All parents are cordially invited to come and view our Book Bazaar.

Some of the books that have been illustrated are The Three Faces of Eve, Ocracoke, Little Women, The Count of Monte Crisco, Abe Lincoln, John Tyler, and many others of high school level.

Recently the Monogram Club was formed at AHS. Mr. Cockerham, our basketball coach, will act as our sponsor. Officers elected are president—Brenda Salter, vice-president—Ray Talkent, secretary—Catherine Willis, and treasurer—Jean Bell. Mr. Cockerham has appointed several people to draw up the by-laws of the club and I will tell you a little about these in the weeks to follow.

Our Halloween Carnival this year, which was staged out of doors, was the best and probably the biggest Atlantic has ever had. The most enjoyable feature of this carnival was the pie throwing contest put on by some of the local ministers. They really are human, folks. Their booth proved to be most amusing and attracted the largest crowd while the pies lasted. We do love our ministers and we are glad to know they like something else besides chicken.

The tin hut adjacent the gymnasium offered a refuge for the older folks due to the fact that's where the eats were served.

At 7:30 a movie was shown in the auditorium. Before the movie cake drawings were held and during the movie pop corn was sold. Everyone went home after the movie tired but happy.

We wish to thank all the grade mothers and fathers for their help and co-operation. Special credit should be given to Mrs. Roma Smith and helpers for directing the carnival. Last but not least thanks should be given to the patrons of our school for being so free with money.

The senior class has been busy this week and last taking their superlative pictures. The superlatives are as follows:

Most popular, Van McIntosh and Kara Mason; most likely to succeed, Linda Taylor and Bruce Ma-
