Troop Scoop

Girl Scouts, Brownies Report Recent Activities

Girl Scout troop 123 in Beaufort opened their recent meeting with a business discussion. We voted to have uniforms and did work on My Country badge.

After we had refreshments, we went to see Ma Taylor to wish her a happy birthday. We dismissed with our Girl Scout promise.

—Clara Safrit, Scribe

Second grade Brownie troop, under the leadership of Mrs. Ed Weeks, met Monday at Camp Glenn School. Cecelia Hyman served refreshments. Then we worked on our shell collection. We glued shells on oil panel boards and labeled them. We closed with the friendship circle.

—Christine Reintjes, Scribe

Brownie troop 264 met Tuesday at Camp Glenn School. After refreshments, our troop was called to order by president Carolyn Scott. As soon as the business was completed we made pinchions.

Negro News

Dear Readers,
The students of the W. S. King school want you to know how happy we are about the results of our Homecoming Drive.

The spirit of rivalry among the various classes in each department, primary, grammar and high school, was keen, for in addition to Miss Homecoming, each section had the opportunity of selecting a queen.

The results of the drive were very gratifying and the chairman of the homecoming drive announces that Miss Carol Jane Williams was Miss W. S. King of the elementary department, Miss Ada Marie Henderson was Miss Primary, Miss Flossie Louise Henry was Miss Grammar, and Miss Bettye Blanche Harkley was Miss W. S. King of the high school department.

The chairman of the homecoming drive is pleased to announce the following sums and totals: Mrs. Hill's first grade, $150.50; Miss Frank's second grade, $25; Miss Perry's second grade, $25.25; Mrs. Haynie's third grade, $25.25; Mrs. Dudley's third grade, $13.81; Mrs. Williams' fourth grade, $112.49; Mr. Thompson's fifth and sixth grades, $25; Mr. McNeill's fifth and sixth grades, $52.72; Mrs. Bryant's sixth grade, $6.34; Mr. Smith's seventh grade, $11.62; Miss Dudley's eighth grade, $37.50; Miss Carroway's ninth grade, $33.50; Mr. McLendon's 10th grade, $28.75; Mrs. McLendon's 11th grade, $35.92; Mrs. Thorpe's 12th grade, $110.16; total, $693.81.
