Sunday's Union Service Opens Holiday Season

By ANDREA McKNIGHT

The Christmas season is officially here. Only a few days lie between celebrating Christ's birthday in the way which would be pleasing to Him or in a way which would only be pleasing to us.

Our community began the season Sunday, Dec. 13, at a joint church service at school.

The Rev. Corbin Cooper, pastor of the First Baptist Church, delivered the Christmas message. The Rev. Charles L. Kirby, pastor of Presbyterian Church, presented the benediction.

The Rev. Jack P. Mansfield, pastor of Camp Glenn Methodist Church, read the scripture and led the prayer.

Mrs. Theodore Phillips presented organ music as processional and postlude.

Accompanists were Glenda Morton, Marlene Moore, Anne Marie Lewis, Jonibel Willis, Kathy Chalk, and Virginia Thompson.

On Wednesday and Thursday of last week the Tri-Hi-Y's and Hi-Y sponsored pre-Christmas services at school.

The Rev. Charles L. Kirby delivered the message Wednesday. The Rev. Corbin Cooper spoke to us Thursday.

Being voluntary services, every student did not attend but there was a good showing of students.

Maybe you have heard this little poem but read it again for there is a lesson in it:

A big silver dollar and a little brown cent,

Rolling along together went; Rolling along the smooth sidewalk,

When the dollar remarked, for dollars can talk;

"You poor little cent, you cheap little mite,

I'm bigger than you and twice as bright.

I'm worth more than you a hundred fold

And written on me in letters bold, Is the motto drawn from the pious creed.

"In God We Trust," which all may read.

"Yes, I know," said the little cent, "I'm a cheap little mite, and I know I'm no good, nor bright,

"And yet," said the cent, with a meek little sigh,

"You don't go to church as often as I."

Miss Senior of the week is Mary Louise Hanes. Mary came to the world on Sept. 22, 1942 in the big city of Los Angeles, Calif. This cute young lady stands 5'5 1/2" tall, weighs 118 lbs., and has brown hair and brown eyes. You would never believe by the accent she has that California was her birthplace. She sounds almost like a movie star.

According to Mary, Nat "King" Cole is tops, Canadian Sunset is the only good song, and steak and mashed potatoes could be served as her only foods every day. As Mrs. Bailey will readily agree, Mary's hobby is talking.

Other favorites include "George" as her subject, water skiing as her sport, and her by-word, "No, I don't know what it means." Mary's pet peeve is teachers who are never wrong.

Since Mary came to our school when she was a sophomore, she has been active in many clubs and activities. Several clubs she has participated in are Tri-Hi-Y, debating team, annual staff, Beta Club, a cheerleader, and secretary for the senior class.

Mary's plans are to attend either Duke or Arizona State University to obtain a bachelor of science degree in nursing.

Mr. Senior is George Roberts Wallace Jr. George was born on Feb. 20, 1942 in the town of Kinston.

George has a height of 5'10" and weighs 165 lbs. He has the blondest hair in all the land (?) and baby blue eyes. Some people kid George about his bleached hair so we want to tell you for sure that George does have natural blond hair.

Here are George's favorites: singer, Four Lads; record, Victory at Sea; food, Dom El's cheeseburger; subject, Mary; sport, football; and saying, "Whadarya? An idiot?"

You can tell by this that G. W. is really gone. During the dark season George enjoys hunting ducks. His pet peeve is trying to prove things to Mrs. Bailey.

George has taken part in such clubs as Hi-Y, student council, Beta Club, debating team, football, annual staff, and is president of the senior class.

His plans for his future include going to State College to study civil engineering.

Until next year, our school wishes you a Merry Christmas. Remember though to put Christ back in Christmas because it is His birthday.

Boys Capture Duck

David Lewis, 11, left, with Frank Reams, 11, hold the wild duck the two captured recently near David's house. David, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Champ Lewis, 2107 Shepard St., Morehead City, said they saw the duck on the beach in back of the house. The duck was captured after a short chase along the bank. The boys said that they planned to turn the duck loose after keeping it for a few days on David's back porch. Frank is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reams, 2006 Shepard St.

The dejected duck, held by David, drooped his head between his feet and no persuading could make him look energetic for the photographer.

Tarzan Plays Last Time Today at Morehead Theatre

By P. S. IPOCK Assistant Manager

It has been so long since Hollywood produced a new Tarzan feature that even the most ardent Tarzan fans are a little tired of the old re-runs. Playing for the last time today at the Morehead theatre is the newest and just released Tarzan feature, Tarzan, the Ape Man.

The Man in the Net, starring Alan Ladd with Carolyn Jones and Diane Brewster, will be at the Morehead two days only, Wednesday and Thursday. This picture has been called "the most suspense-charged 97 minutes in motion pictures."

Pupils Organize Senior 4-H Club

The Senior 4-H Club of Morehead High is finally on its way towards becoming completely organized. So far, we have held two meetings, one on Nov. 10, 1959 and the other on Dec. 8, 1959.

There was one advisor, David Warrick, who helped us to get things going in the first meeting. We chose our projects, elected a nominating committee, and discussed the carrying out of health programs.

In the second meeting, we were introduced to another advisor, Mrs. Floy Garner from Newport, who was assisting Mr. Warrick. Our second meeting had a well-planned program.

The program started with a Christmas carol, Joy to the World, followed with devotions by June Taylor, a poem by Lydia Guthrie, and a trio of Joan Salter, Portia Salter, and Diane Salter sang White Christmas.

After this program, Diane Salter began the business session, in which we elected the officers for this year. They are as follows:

President—Doris Phillips, vice-president—Gary Guthrie, secretary and treasurer—Portia Salter, newspaper reporter—Marie Blanchard, and song leaders—Ruth Bailey and Joan Salter.

We hope to accomplish a great deal during the remainder of this school year.

—Marie Blanchard, Reporter

License Revoked James Miles Collins, 507 Hedrick St. in Beaufort has had his driver's license revoked again by the North Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles for driving with a revoked license.

It is obvious that we can tell little or nothing about this picture without revealing the plot. We do feel that we should warn you that more enjoyment will be gained if you check our schedule and not arrive during the feature. And remember the golden rule. Please don't tell the ending and spoil it for friends that are unfortunate enough to have to wait until the second day to attend.

The Morehead, as has been its custom, has reserved one of the year's best pictures for Christmas. Starting Christmas day, we have David Niven and Mitzi Gaynor in Happy Anniversary.

Space permits us to state only that this fine production is one of the wittiest stories of togetherness, both before and after marriage, ever produced by United Artists, ranking in comedy value with Pillow Talk.

Today the City theatre has an excellent first-run feature, Cry Tough, starring John Saxon and Linda Cristal. This is about Manhattan's Puerto Rican population with all its violence and superstitions.

On Wednesday and Thursday we have The Shepman with Glenn Ford and Shirley MacLaine along with Ma and Pa Kettle on Old MacDonald's Farm.

Mr. Ford and Miss MacLaine, usually turning in fine performances, outdo themselves in The Shepman. It is filmed in wide screen and color. For the second feature anyone having seen Miss Marjorie Main in any of the Ma and Pa Kettle features knows he is in for a laugh treat. The children, especially, should like these two.

Starting Christmas day at the City will be Pat Boone in the color, Cinemascope production of Journey to the Center of the Earth.
