Dr. Chestnut to Discuss Discipline Monday Night

Dr. A. F. Chestnut will discuss the subject of discipline at the Morehead City PTA meeting Monday night at 7:30 in the school auditorium. The program is the result of an opinion poll, says Shelby Freeman, PTA president.

Mr. Freeman reports that in September questionnaires were sent out by the PTA with twelve topics listed to be discussed at PTA meetings this year. Parents were to indicate their preferences and return the sheets.

Heading the list of preferences was homework, checked by 69 per cent of the parents. This subject will be aired at a future PTA meeting. Discipline was second highest with 66 per cent.

"Complacency or unconcern by parents is the school's worst enemy and attendance at recent PTA meetings has not been encouraging. Let's make this meeting an exception. I urge you to attend to show the students, teachers and school officials that you are interested in your children," said Mr. Freeman.

Miss Renee Kemp Gives Speech Recital Reading

A number of friends and neighbors gathered at the Truman Kemp home Saturday afternoon to hear Miss Renee Kemp present the reading she will give at the senior recital of the department of speech, Greensboro College, tonight. The recital will be held at Odell auditorium, Greensboro.

Miss Kemp began her reading with Thomas Wolfe's words, "If a man has talent . . ." She followed with Acts 25:14-30, the parable of the talents.

Selections from Bronte, Stevens, Robinson, Frost and several others, as well as poems by Emily Dickinson were read by Miss Kemp, who is a graduate of Morehead City high school and a senior at Greensboro College.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Kemp during the afternoon.

Film Script Leads to Success

New York (AP)—A movie that Joe Manchester wrote in college is enabling him to become a Broadway stage producer.

Manchester, 27, is one of the three sponsors of "The Deadly Game," a drama based upon a Friedrich Durrenmat novel which is due here in February. Claude Dauphin and Pat Hingle are the costars.

While studying playwriting at Carnegie Tech, Manchester came up with a script for a film, "Week-end in Connecticut."

"Then I advertised the movie by saying 'See yourself, your friends and your town in the movies,' he says. "I made a nice profit, which enabled me to option the Durrenmat work."

Newport Postmaster Works at Regional Office

Robert Montague, Newport postmaster, is working in the management office of the regional post-office department, Atlanta, Ga. He is expected to be there 60 to 90 days.

Acting as postmaster in his absence is Harvey Garner. Mr. Montague, who went to Atlanta the middle of December, spent the weekend at home with his wife and children in Newport.

US Suspends Lamb 'Grading'

Secretary of Agriculture Benson has announced beginning Jan. 4, 1960, federal grading of lamb will be suspended for one year.

The suspension of lamb grading should NOT be confused with mandatory meat inspection which provides inspection of sanitation and wholesomeness. The meat inspection program is a separate activity and is not being changed.

Colonial Stores announces they are assuming the responsibility for buying top quality lamb so customers may be guaranteed a continuation of the finest choice lamb available, just as in the past under government grading.

The food chain announces they have set up their own buying standards equal to or better than those formerly designated US Choice Lamb. To assist homemakers in buying, and give them a buying guide this meat will be labeled Natur-Tender selected quality lamb, announces Henry Rowe, manager of the Colonial store meat market, Morehead City.

Leslie Morton Appeals One-Year Jail Sentence

For assault with a deadly weapon and resisting arrest, Leslie Morton of Morehead City was sentenced to one year in jail Monday in Morehead City recorder's court. The sentence was appealed by the defendant and bond for his appearance in Superior Court was set at $750.

For assaulting a minor, he was given 30 days in jail, suspended on two years' good behavior. This sentence was also appealed by Morton to the next term of Superior Court and the bond for his appearance was consolidated with his first case.

Morton allegedly struck his younger brother, Douglas, 14, Dec. 22 between midnight and 12:30 a.m. in his father's home on Fisher Street.

The father, James Morton, swore out a warrant for Leslie's arrest and when officers arrived at the home, they said Leslie pulled a knife on them.

In November a grand jury found no true bill in a case charging Leslie with assaulting J. T. Johnson, now of Morehead City, and taking $600 from him.

Robert Gaskins of Greenville was the defendant in a case dismissed by the state. Gaskins was charged with intent to cheat and defraud by departing without paying a cab fare.

In other court action, George Newman of Salter Path was given a suspended sentence on a multiple traffic violation conviction. Newman was charged with having no operator's license, failure to transfer registration, drunk driving and failing to stop at the scene of an accident.

The court decided not to prosecute on all of the charges except the drunk driving count. To this charge the defendant entered a plea of guilty and the judgment was that his 90-day jail sentence be suspended on payment of $125 and court costs.

Another case that was appealed to superior court was that of Cecil Guthrie of Morehead City, charged with window peeping into the house of Mrs. Carlton Pittman at 1710 Arendell. Guthrie pleaded not guilty, but after hearing the evidence the court found him guilty as charged and sentenced him to 12 months in jail. Bond for his appearance in higher court was set at $500.

Bruce Duane Wimer of Cherry Point was made to pay court costs for running a red light and William Joseph Eastman of Beaufort paid court costs for speeding and having an improper muffler.

Ivery Alexander Tillman paid court costs after he was found guilty of allowing an unlicensed person to drive and Delores Tillman was fined $25 and court costs for driving without a license. The fine is to be remitted upon the presentation of a valid driver's license to the court by the defendant within two weeks.

The public drunkenness case against Harold Culpher of Morehead City was not prosecuted.

Four cases were continued until next week's court.

Coast Guard Assists Fishing Boat Cecilia

The Fort Macon Coast Guard was called Wednesday afternoon to assist the fishing boat Cecilia which had run aground in Bogue Sound. The station received the call at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon from the boat's owner, Dallas Williams, of Ocracoke.

The Coast Guard 40-footer was dispatched to make the assist and the Cecilia was refloated at 3:40 p.m. The fish vessel was then towed to the Morehead Machine shop dock.

Boat crew on the 40-footer was Cecil Taylor, BM-1 and Norvie Gillikin, EN-2.

County Ministers to Hear Chaplain Roy Barham

Chaplain Roy Barham of Camp Butler will speak to members of the County Ministerial Association when they meet Monday morning at 10 a.m. at the civic center.

Chaplain Barham will speak on the subject Ministers and the Alcohol Problem. A minister of the Congregational Christian Church, Mr. Barham has had wide experience in the field of alcohol problems.

He will be the speaker at the 11 a.m. worship service Sunday at St. James Methodist Church, Newport, and will speak at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at the Otway Christian Church.

Carteret Teachers Go To Washington Meeting

Two Carteret teachers, Mrs. Elaine Herndon, Morehead City faculty member, and Miss Joyce Taylor, Camp Glenn faculty member, are attending a conference of college and public school teachers at Washington, D. C.

The conference is sponsored by the National Commission of Education to discuss teacher training at the undergraduate level.

Miss Taylor represents an NCEA committee and Mrs. Herndon the Classroom Teachers Association committee for teacher education and professional standards.

They left Thursday and will return home Sunday.
