

Story on Page One Will Open Sunday at Morehead

Is justice always given a chance to triumph in the United States? Or are the cards legally stacked against the average citizen in our courtrooms? These are some of the grave, but often overlooked questions raised by producer Jerry Wald in the new Cinemascope thriller, The Story on Page One.

Jan. 26—Mr. Royall Bell and Mr. Carl Bell of Washington, D. C. spent the weekend with their mother, Mrs. A. N. Bell, and visited their brother, Mr. Clyde Bell, who is a patient in the Morehead City Hospital.

Miss Yvonne Hunter spent last Saturday night with Miss Catherine Smith at Bachelors.

Mr. David Bell and Mr. Roger Bell returned home last Sunday morning from Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., where they had been stationed with the US Army.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Small of Morehead City visited Mrs. A. N. Bell Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Temple and son spent Sunday at Swansboro.

Mrs. Kuch Williams, Mrs. Luke Garner, and Mrs. E. R. Bowlin visited Mrs. Pete Garner of Morehead City Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. O. Shirley has returned to his home in Snow Hill after spending several weeks with his daughter, Mrs. Gordon Becton, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Cook and family of New Bern spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. McLawhorn.

Mr. Will Connor is a patient at the Sea Level Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Becton and daughter and Miss Margaret Guthrie of Morehead City spent Sunday at Snow Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Shrake spent the weekend at Holly Ridge with relatives.

Mrs. A. N. Bell, Mr. David and Roger Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Kuch Williams, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Wilkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Tolson, Miss Sharon Wilkinson, Mrs. Luke Garner, Mrs. E. R. Bowlin, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Temple and family and Mr. Joe Molton visited Mr. Clyde Bell at Morehead City Hospital Sunday.

Mr. Gene Small has returned home from Alaska, where he had been stationed with the US Army.

Mr. Larry Bradshaw, USAF, stationed in Illinois is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Bradshaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Kuch Williams and daughter visited Mr. Oscar Salter at Bettie Sunday.

Mrs. A. G. Gaynor and daughter have returned home from Sea Level Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Graham and children of Havelock visited Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Connor Saturday night.

starring Rita Hayworth, Anthony Franciosa and Gig Young.

The Story on Page One, opening Sunday at the Morehead theatre, points out the inequity that exists today between the huge law-enforcement devices in the hands of the average district attorney in the United States and the comparatively meager resources at the command of the average accused citizen.

In a large metropolis, for instance, there may be hundreds of anonymous people aiding the District Attorney, in his burdensome chore of proving the defendant guilty. Opposing this huge machine there are often only one or two people working for the defense. Many times a man or woman on trial for life can't even afford that much.

This is the powerful and arresting theme developed by Odets in The Story on Page One. In fact, the author of such noted plays as Golden Boy, Country Girl, and Waiting For Lefty wrote the story originally and specially for the screen, rare in these days of adaptations. He also directed the picture which is even rarer.

The glamour, the gaiety, the drama and excitement of the circus are depicted to exciting advantage in the picture, Flying Fontaines, a Clover production in color starting Sunday at the City theatre. Michael Callan, Evy Norlund, Joan Evans and Rian Garrick are starred, playing circus aerialists who carry their turbulent passions aloft with them in soaring, breathless flight.

Callan, Garrick and Miss Norlund are dynamic young newcomers to the screen; Miss Evans is a talented young actress too-long absent from the screen. Callan, who made his film bow in They Came to Cordura, is the outspoken young trapeze artist of The Flying Fontaines, a youth determined to become the world's greatest "flyer."

Also playing on the same program with The Flying Fontaines is the cartoon figure of Mr. Magoo in a full-length motion picture, 1001 Arabian Nights.

Starting Wednesday at the Morehead theatre is The Nature Girl and the Slaver, starring the same girl you saw as Liana, the Jungle Goddess, Marion Michael.

Playing at the City theatre Wednesday and Thursday is Mademoiselle Striptease, starring Brigitte Bardot.

Ending the week at the City theatre is a double feature, From Hell to Texas and The Seventh Voyage of Sinbad with Kirby Grant.

Seniors Enjoy Party; Cheerleaders Get Gift

By JOANNE ALLEN

One-half of the year has passed and now we begin a new semester. Were you satisfied with your record for the past semester? If not, now is the time to put forth your biggest effort for the rest of the year. Remember, those who try the hardest reap the most returns.

While everyone was home wracking his brain studying for exams, many of the seniors were living it up at the "cow palace." It wouldn't be a party at the "cow palace" without an oyster roast, so George Huntley provided the essentials for this feast.

After everyone tired of dancing, the cards were brought out and a large variety of games were played. The girls seemed to be the better of the players. Clifford Lewis created quite a scare when he threw a fire-cracker in the fireplace. After that, he got a big charge out of threatening to do it again.

When it came time to leave, scores of people piled in Freddie Hooper's car, and went to the "brightest spot on the Atlantic Beach causeway" (says Joyce Leonard). Freddie said that it was the first time that the fuses on his car were not sticking up.

All of the home ec girls visited the gold medal home last week. Someday they hope to have a home like this of their own.

The cheerleaders have had a difficult time this year keeping spectators from taking their seats. Someone has come to their rescue. Mrs. Beveridge was asked to make a blanket for them to reserve their space on the bleachers. She made a very attractive one and it has been a great help at the games.

The cheerleaders appreciate this gift.

The Seadogs met their strongest competition of the season Friday night. Nevertheless, they edged Smyrna to maintain their undefeated record. The boys played very well, especially Butch Hassell, who had the highest scoring night of his high school career. The gym was packed and all the Beaufort fans were not disappointed in the outcome of the game.

After the game, the seniors sponsored a sock hop in the gym. There was a very poor crowd at the dance. It seems that no one is interested in school-sponsored dances. Those who do not attend these dances do not know what they are missing.

Everyone always complains about not having anything to do and then when recreation is planned, no one responds. Let's start having a little more interest in school-sponsored activities.

Miss Senior is Marjorie Amelia Schmeller Stoy. Better known as Amy, she was born to Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Stoy on Sept. 2, 1942. Amy has brown hair, hazel eyes, weighs 115 lb. and is 5'3" tall.

She enjoys listening to David Whitfield sing "When You Lose the One You Love." She also enjoys hearing Doris Day. Her favorite sport is basketball. As if everyone didn't know, her favorite pastime is talking.

She enjoys water sports in the summer. Plane geometry is her favorite subject. "Funny enough" is her most frequent expression. Her pet peeve is "somebody that slurps anything they eat or drink." She says that the trip to Jacksonville when we played Mt. Olive will always be remembered by her. Upon graduation, Amy plans to attend St. Francis College in Pennsylvania. While in high school she has participated in basketball, prayer group, president of 4-H, Lambda Chi, FHA.

Carlton Anthony Small is Mr. Senior. He is the son of Mrs. Edith Small. He was born on April 26, 1941. Carlton's hair and eyes are brown. He is 5'8" tall and weighs 160 lbs.

Why, by Frankie Avalon is his favorite song. He also likes Doris Day. Charcoal steak makes an excellent meal for Carlton. He enjoys watching football and studying economics. Figuring a way to make money is his favorite pastime.

His famous words are "Hey Man." Working on car models is his hobby. His pet peeve is someone who is always late. His most memorable event is the junior-senior.

His future plans are to attend college. While in high school he has been in band, 4-H, and bus driver.

Placed on a map of the United States, Ethiopia, the African kingdom, would stretch from Maine to South Carolina and from New York City to Iowa.
