The Valentine dessert bridge being sponsored by St. Mary's chapter of St. Andrew's Episcopal Auxiliary will be held Wednesday, Feb. 10, at the parish house, beginning at 1 p.m.

Table prizes and a door prize will be awarded and refreshments will be served. Tickets are $1 each and may be purchased from Mrs. Paul Branch, PA6-3467, or Mrs. H. K. Moore, PA6-4559.

Marriage Announced

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Ballou announce the marriage of their daughter, Beadie Joyce, to Arnold Sanderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Sanderson, all of this city. The marriage took place Thursday, Jan. 21, in Morehead City. The couple, who attended Morehead City high school, are making their home on Evans Street.

J. Gaskill McDaniel Addresses Literary-Art Group Wednesday

Mr. J. Gaskill McDaniel of New Bern, writer, humorist and newspaper editor, was the speaker at the Literary and Art Department meeting Wednesday night at the civic center. He was introduced by Mrs. Gus Davis, program chairman.

Mr. McDaniel is the originator of the Yuletide Review, America's oldest Christmas charity show. He is oldest of the beginning of the show and of persons who worked in the show and later became star performers, winning state and national recognition.

Children, he said, should be encouraged to express their interest in literature and art. He suggested that awards be given the most outstanding junior high and grammar students in these fields.

The speaker said talented youth should be sought out, stimulated and encouraged and told of the thrill of recognition.

Mr. McDaniel told several humorous stories and closed his talk by quoting a number of poems.

Guests welcomed by Mrs. Milton Roush, chairman, were Mrs. A. N. Murphy, Dr. Herbert Webb of Sea Level, Mr. Roush, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Salisbury, Mrs. David Menden and Cdr. and Mrs. John MacCormack of Atlantic.

It was announced that winners of the district music contest for high school seniors would compete in the state contest March 19 at Peace

College in Raleigh. The contest is sponsored by the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Roush discussed the city park, which has been adopted as a project by the general Women's Club. The department voted $18 to help beautify the park.

Mrs. Davis announced a bridge benefit, to be sponsored by St. Mary's Episcopal chapter Feb. 10 at St. Andrew's Episcopal Parish House.

It was announced that the general club meeting would be held Thursday night at the civic center.

Hostesses were Mrs. L. J. Norris, Mrs. S. T. Chadwick, Mrs. J. C. Taylor, Mrs. Milton Piner and Mrs. Vernon Paul. They served apple pie with cheese and coffee.

Mrs. Mannino Hostess To Members of Club

On Tuesday Mrs. Victor Mannino, Newport, had as her luncheon guests several members of the Newport Home Demonstration Club. An arrangement of white narcissus centered the table.

Guests included Mrs. Harvey Adams, Mrs. J. B. Kelly, Mrs. Claire Gagnon, Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Jim Kelly, Mrs. Doris Hughes, and Mrs. E. B. Comer.

Several guests remained after lunch and completed the club year-books for 1960.

Mrs. Daniel Gilmour Installed As President of Rosary-Altar

Rex Restaurant was the setting for the January meeting and installation of officers of the Rosary-Altar Society of St. Egbert's Catholic Church Wednesday night.

After the installation, the new president, Mrs. Daniel Gilmour, introduced committee chairmen for this year. Officers and chairmen are as follows:

Vice-president and visitation chairman, Mrs. Frank Marino; secretary, Mrs. Dom Femia; treasurer, Mrs. Fred Anthony; social chairman, Mrs. George Morris; publicity, Mrs. Lucy Freeman; church cleaning, Mrs. G. H. Peterson.

Father Walter Higgins gave the invocation and Mrs. T. C. Hyman, retiring president, called the meeting to order. Mrs. Mary Chapoton was welcomed as a new member.

Mrs. W. M. Brady and Mrs. William B. Reese, ways and means chairmen, announced that tickets would go on sale in February for a weekend for two at Oceanana Resort, Atlantic Beach. The winners will be announced at the St. Patrick's Day card party, planned for March.

Husband of Native Appointed Mayor's Aide

George Green, 36, husband of the former Bertie Willis of Morehead City, took office Jan. 11 as chief aide to John Collins, mayor of Boston, Mass.

Mr. Green has taken a four-year leave of absence from his job with the Metropolitan District Commission in Boston to accept his new appointment.

Mayor Collins, 40, and three of his four children were stricken with polio in 1955 and the mayor has been unable to walk since then. He is confined to a wheel chair. He was elected Nov. 4 by a 24,000 majority that rocked Boston's political parties. Mr. Collins was formerly register of probate in Boston.

Local Couple Attends Washington Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Scruggs were in Washington, D. C., this week attending a meeting of the National Association of Real Estate Boards. Mr. Scruggs is president of the Morehead-Beaufort board of realtors.

Monday morning those attending the convention had breakfast with President Eisenhower in the ballroom of the Hotel Mayflower. Monday night the North and South Carolina boards entertained congressmen and senators from the two states at a party at the Statler Hotel.

Welcome Son

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Delgado welcomed a 6 pound 1/2 ounce son, Michael Leo, Tuesday, Jan. 26, at Morehead City hospital. They have a daughter, Christine, 2 1/2. Mrs. Delgado is the former Frances Ann Guthrie of this city.

The business meeting was preceded by a dutch dinner. A Valentine motif was followed with white lace hearts, red hearts and valentine candies. Mrs. Shelby Freeman said grace prior to the meal.

Several guests remained after lunch and completed the club year-books for 1960.

Two Hostesses Entertain Miss Chadwick Friday

Mrs. Joe Rose Jr. and Mrs. Edward Faucette were hostesses at a shower Friday evening at the Faucette home honoring Miss Edna Chadwick of Straits, bride-elect.

Arrangements of camellias were used in the home. The shower motif was carried out with an umbrella decorated with silver ribbons, and wedding bells and candles. The honoree was presented a corsage of white carnations.

Several appropriate games were played. Prizes were won by Mrs. Jimmy Piner, Mrs. Walter Edwards, Mrs. Gene Bowen and Mrs. Cecil Lewis. Miss Chadwick was presented gifts from the fifteen guests.

Mrs. Faucette and Mrs. Rose served strawberry shortcake, nuts, mints and coffee.
