Cole-Baer Vows Spoken

Mrs. Edgar Earl Cole

Miss Edith Leona Baer became the bride of Edgar Earl Cole in a double ring ceremony Saturday, Feb. 20, at seven-thirty at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Levin T. Bennett.

The bride is the daughter of M/Sgt. and Mrs. Arthur E. Baer of Odenton, Md., but makes her home in Beaufort. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Burriss B. Cole of Beaufort and the late Mr. Cole.

The Rev. John Cline, pastor of Ann Street Methodist Church, performed the ceremony against a background of white gladiolas and carnations, fern and burning candles.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length gown of bridal satin with overskirts of net and chantilly lace. The fitted bodice was designed with a sweetheart neckline and short sleeves, embroidered with seed pearls and sequins.

The bouffant skirt of net fell from a pointed waistline and featured a redingote of lace.

She wore matching mitts applied at the elbows with lace embroidered with seed pearls and sequins. Her fingertip veil of hand-rolled illusion fell from a pleated tulle cap encrusted with seed pearls and sequins. She carried a white Bible topped with a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Lois Clark of Odenton, Md., was maid of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a floor length gown of pink net with an overskirt of white lace. The fitted bodice featured pencil shoulder straps.

She wore a matching headpiece and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnation.

Mr. James Holland of Beaufort served as best man for the bridegroom. The bride's mother wore a light blue chiffon dress and a corsage of pink carnations. The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Namon Nassef of Kinston, wore a blue crepe dress with a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home. Mrs. John Johnson presided at the bride's book. Mrs. Levin Bennett presided in the gift room.

Mrs. Christopher Dennis of Swansboro and Mrs. John LeFoe of Washington, D. C., poured punch and Mrs. James E. Crowe and Mrs. Vic Bellamah served cake.

The couple left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home at 113 Queen St., Beaufort.

The bride is a graduate of Arundel high school in Gambrills, Md., and is employed at Bowen's Moving and Storage Co., Morehead City. The bridegroom graduated from Beaufort high school and is employed as assistant manager at A&P Co., Beaufort.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Namon Nassef and son, Tony, and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Rouse of Kinston, Mrs. W. E. Cavett and son, David, of Havelock; Mr. and Mrs. William Ormond of Kinston, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Dennis of Swansboro, Mrs. James Holland Jr. of Marshallberg and Mr. and Mrs. John LeFoe of Washington, D. C.

Miss Lila Frances Tyndall Weds Simon Adrian Becton Saturday

Miss Lila Frances Tyndall of route 5 New Bern and Simon Adrian Becton of Bachelor were married in a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening at eight o'clock at Antioch Free Will Baptist church.

The Rev. Clinton L. Lupton, pastor, officiated, assisted by the Rev. James Lupton, pastor of Seven Springs Methodist Church. Nuptial music was presented by Miss Eloise Stille, organist, and Miss Sadie Louise Harris of Bachelor and Newport News, Va., soloist. Miss Harris sang Mine, Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life and I'll Walk With God.

The church altar was arranged with baskets of white gladiolas and carnations, palms, and white cathedral candles in seven-branched candelabra.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Kenneth Tyndall, the bride wore a floor length gown of peau de soie designed along empire lines. The rounded neckline dipped to a deep V in back and long fitted sleeves tapered to points over the hands.

Her fingertip veil of illusion edged in lace was attached to a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley, centered with white orchids.

Mrs. William T. Lyons of Roanoke, Va., was matron of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a gown of blue velveteen fashioned with a fitted bodice with round neckline and bracelet length sleeves, and a bouffant skirt.

She wore a matching velveteen headdress and carried a bouquet of tawny gold roses.

Christening Attended By H. B. Daniels Family

Mr. and Mrs. H. Burton Daniels were at Elon College last weekend for the christening of their first granddaughter, Jane Elizabeth Danieley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Danieley. They were accompanied by their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Valverta Garner of Newport, and their daughter, Patricia of Greenville.

Jane Elizabeth was christened Sunday at 11 a.m. in the new Elon College community church by the Rev. W. J. Andes, minister, assisted by Prof. A. L. Hook. Professor Hook assisted at the christening of the baby's brothers, Ned Daniels, 6, and Mark Samuel, 4.

The dress worn by the baby was the same one worn by her brothers at their christening. The goblet holding the christening water was a gift to Ned from his godfather, Dr. N. F. Brannock of Elon College.

Godparents for Jane Elizabeth are Dr. and Mrs. William P. Cavin of Spartanburg, S. C. In addition to Jane, Ned and Mark, Mr. and Mrs. Daniels have two other grandsons.

Dr. and Mrs. Danieley entertained thirty guests at a luncheon following the christening.

Davis Legion Auxiliary Meets With Mrs. Salter

Murphy-Willis Unit 295 of the American Legion Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Alonza Salter, Davis, Tuesday night. Miss Macy Mallard of Trenton, district president, was the guest speaker.

Mrs. Gerald Salter, president, presided. The group discussed plans to attend the district meeting in Swansboro March 7. Two members of the Davis unit will take part in the program.

Final plans were made to have a fundraising for a veteran's family. All members of the unit were asked to participate.

The hostess served open face sandwiches, cake, potato chips with dip and punch.

Mrs. Piner is Hostess To Tuesday Bridge Club

Mrs. Sammy Piner was hostess to her bridge club Tuesday night at her home. She had as guests Mrs. John Haynes, Mrs. John Jones and Mrs. Frank Langdale.

Prior to play the hostess served chocolate eclairs and coffee. During progressions she served colas and potato chips.

High score was won by Mrs. Haynes, second high by Mrs. Herman Autry and floating prize by Mrs. Ronald Earl Mason.

The next hostess will be Mrs. Glenn Willis Jr.
