Sixth Graders

Visit Newspaper

Crissy Wright

Many of the women carried food and made coffee for the men on the beach during their watch. Time wore on, the men were help-less in their rescue attempts, and the cries of the ship's crew grew weaker and thinner, making it ob-vious that some had not survived their ill-fated plight. The Shackleford Banks residents

The Shackletord Banks residents kept watch on the ship from the time it was sighted at daybreak until late afternoon of the following day. It was this long before a rescue could be attempted, due to rough seas and high waves breaking on the shore. breaking on the shore.

Later the bodies washed ashore and were buried on the Banks. Three men were cut loose from the shrouds of another mast, frozen. One crew member had made his way out on the jib boom and workhis way into the folds of the on the boom, and stretched him-self out on top of the first man. He was the only survivor. Evidently the other members of the crew had lashed themselves to the shrouds to keep from being wash-mm and massaged nim until he had thoroughly thawed out. He was then taken to Mr. Tyra Moore's house at Wade Shore (grandfather of L. W. and E. O. Moore), where he spent the night.

The next day the steamer Nellie Dey, manned by Capt. Mark Ma-son, his sons, John Wash, Dick, ford, and after spending a few days, was sent to the hospital in

After a short while, word came to Beaufort that his mind had gone bad and he soon died. In the meantime, the four corpses were kept in the old Town Hall near the city dock for three days. Local people were trying to locate relatives, and failing to do so, they decided to have burial services for

The town fathers said they had no money for that purpose, so Capt. Mark Mason directed them to get the necessary lumber and he would pay for it. The timber was purchased, Mr. John Noe built the coffins, and they were buried in the church cemetery on Ann Street.

Ann Street.

Not too long after the burial, the captain's brother was located and came to Beaufort. He took the bodies of his brother and brother-in-law to their home in New York, leaving the remaining bodies in the old cemetery.

The legend of the Crissy Wright lives on. Whenever we have a hard lives on. Whenever we have a hard freeze people will say, "This is a Crissy Wright time." Further proof of the great catastrophe is portrayed by the mural in the Beaufort postoffice, depicting scenes of this tragedy.

It's well to note here that as a direct result of this, the the need for a Life Saving Station was fur-ther emphasized. One was begun the following year at Cape Look-out, and the first patrol boat was brought into use on Jan. 24, 1888.

Den 4 of Cub Scout pack 371 met Thursday. We opened the meeting with the Cub Scout promise.

After that we had refreshments.

Mrs. Herring, our den mother, gave us a piece of leather to make a neckerchief slide.

We played all-passover. The boys in the den are Rodney Hunter, Ar-tie Baugus, Durwood Daniels, Dewey Willis, Wayne Herring and Darryl Deibert.

Teen Topics

Morehead Chorus Travels To Smyrna High for Concert

By ANDREA MCKNIGHT

Well, it looks like spring has flown the coop." Just when every body was getting a good tan.

Taket, A Tasket. Boy, she can really take off running! "flows the coop." Just when every body was getting a good tan.
The Easter holidays spoiled most of us, because it is so hard to come back to school after a vacation. But only one more month and we will be out for three months'

Last Wednesday, April 13, the traveling chorus, under the direc-tion of Mr. Ralph Wade, visited Smyrna high school. The mem for the school at 10:30 a.m.

Among the songs they sang were the Processional Hymn; Halle-lujah, Amen; The King and I; Bugp Ride; Red Wing: 76 Trombones; Magic Moments. The girls' glee club sang four numbers: Little David, Play On Your Harp: The Swing; Ay, Ay, Ay; and I Hardly Think I Will.

The chorus thoroughly enjoyed being at Swyrns, we only hope.

being at Smyrna; we only hope they enjoyed our singing as much as we enjoyed visiting them. At lunch time, all the chorus members had a picnic on the ground after which they all joined

Straits Church Presents Drama

An Easter drama, A Great In

Mrs. H. D. McFarlane directed the play and planned the authentic costumes worn by the cast. Because of the death of her mother Mrs. McFarlane could not attend the last week of rehearsals, or the production Thursday night. Mrs. Ray West acted as substitute di-prompter and stage manager and Mrs. West acted as announcer. Miss Bobbie West read the scrip-ture and the Rev. Ray West gave the benediction. Mrs. Al Hubbard

The play took place at Abdon's home. The first two seenes took place in March, before the cruci-fixion of Jesus, and the last scene took place three days after the crucifixion. Characters were Abdon, the young ruler — Norman Chadwick; Tarzah, his wife—Mrs. Fate Chadwick; Hannah, his mother—Mrs. Ben Watson; Nicodemus, his friend and a follower of the Messiah—Bill Pigott; Abigail, a maid servant-Mrs. Gerald Whitehurst: Rhoda, a maid servant—Mrs. Wer-man Hansen; Cleophius, husband of the other Mary—James Mears.

5 p.m. EST on the Friday before a drill. Another leaves the Raleigh-Durham airport at 6 p.m. EST and the third leaves Woodrum field in Roanoke at 5:30 EST. All return to point of departure Sunday afternoon.

Former Marines interested in additional information should contact the Marine Air Reserve Training Detachment, Naval Air Station, Bldg LP-74, Norfolk, Va.

The town of Ystradgynlais in eibert.

Dewey Willis, Reporter watches and 5,000 clocks a week.

Menus Listed

Then Robert Eure, trying to be polite by throwing some paper in a waste paper busket, walked through some mud and left his sweet potatoes, cole slaw, pickles, cookies, rolls, milk. shoes behind him! His feet were made out of mud (or at least it looked as if they were). But it was all in fun! The chorus also sang for the MCHS students Friday, April 22. They presented the same numbers sweet potatoes, cole slaw, plums, cornbread, milk.

that they sang at Smyrna. audience tended to like B Ride the best because of the clopping"

The Alpha Tri Hi-Y met in the elementary library Wednesday to nominate officers for next year. Devotions were given by Virginia Thompson. The girls nominated sticks, cabbage slaw, fruit pie, homemade rolls, milk.

Friday: Luncheon meat, potato salad, cheese sticks, vegetable, vice-president, Doris Phillips and Elizabeth Taylor; and president, Sylvia Thompson and Pat Hum-

Business discussed concerned the white Bibles given to the seniors each year.

The meeting was adjourned with a Bible verse

And now to Mr. and Miss Senior of the Week.
This week Gloria Jeanne Byrd

is Miss Senior. Jeanne was de-livered to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Byrd, on Feb. 23, sticks, heritance, was given Thursday Mrs. Melvin Byrd, on Feb. 23, night at Straits Methodist church. 1942. She must have had a little The drama was a sequel to the Bible story of the rich young ruler her hair is even more beautiful. She has the color of hair you cannot pinpoint.

It is neither brown nor red Ru it isn't blond either. It is a rather becoming mixture of all three and naturally curly.

Jeanne stands 5'5" tall, weighs 112 lbs. and has brown eyes. She is a faithful member of the Parkview Baptist church. Like most southern girls she can eat fried chicken alright. Her favorite sport is football; subject, bookkeeping; singers, the Platters, and song, When You're Sincere.

When summer time comes Jeanne's hobby is going to the beach and it pays off because she ends up with a pretty tan for the winter. Her pet peeve is "people who don't want to do what I want to do." Are you one of her pet peeves? And her ambitton is to to do." Are you one of her pet peeves? And her ambition is to get rich.

Jeanne is an excellent typist and takes shorthand fast too. Her favorite saying is "words, words and more words." Being such a fine commercial student she is plancommercial student she is plan-ning on continuing her study so that she may serve in that field. During the four years she has been in high school, Jeanne has participated in the FBL and the students of the drive, which ended Easter Campaign letters mailed to resi-dents brought a return to

School Lunch

Monday: Peanut butter and pi

nento cheese sandwiches, vegeta-le-beef soup, cake with icing, milk.

Tuesday: Beef hash, sliced cheese, lettuce and tomato safad, peaches, hot biscuits, milk,

Wednesday: Barbagua Wednesday: Barbecue, candied

Thursday: Shepard pie, sliced

Camp Glenn School

Tuesday: Cheeseburgers, bage slaw, green lima beans, jello

Morehead City School

Tuesday: Hamburgers, buttered weet potatoes, string beans, fruit ello, bread, butter, milk.

Wednesday: Corned beef hash, cheese strips, pepper corn, snap and shell peas, cherry cobbler, bread, butter, milk. Thursday: Spaghetti with meat sauce, tossed salad, potato sticks, peaches, bread, butter, milk.

Friday: Fish sticks, cabbage slaw, buttered potatoes, carrot sticks, pound cake, bread, butter milk. Monday: Ham with big limas, pineapple salad, carrots, cuits, butter, candy, milk.

Beaufort School Tuesday: Chicken salad, lettuce and tomato, butter beans and corn bread, milk, dessert. Wednesday: Lunchmeat, cheese wedge, mashed potatoes, string beans, bread, milk, applesauce. Thursday: Baked ham, sweet potatoes, salad greens, bread, but-ter, milk, dessert. Friday: Barbecue on buns, slaw.

cheese sandwich, pickle

Chairman Gives Report on Funds Raleigh—"From the mountains to the sea" is the theme of the all-new State Highway color maps for 1960.

Final figures on the Easter Seal drive for Crippled Children's funds have been announced by Mrs. Thomas Noe, publicity chairman.

participated in the FBLA, Tri-Hi-with some letters still to be re-Y, FTA, Annual staff, Eagle staff, turned. Other amounts received tions are invited from ex-Marine officer pilots holding the rank of captain or below and staff NcO's ame time.

Whose hobby is watching television and getting homework at the civic center at 7:30. Dr. W. L. Will meet tomorrow night at the civic center at 7:30. Dr. W. L. Woodard will act as topic master, and his ambition is to get out of high school. Wayne has a cute pet to Norfolk makes driving impractical there are available three air-lifts in the Virginia-Carolina area. The first leaves Cherry Point at 5 p.m. EST on the Friday before a drill. Another leaves the Rallechapter of the Hi-Y and Library log into the navy after graduation of Faglie, Dr. T. R. Rice, and Kenneth Fischler. E. G. Phillips will act as master critic. will act as master critic.

Negro News

Birth at Morehead City Hospital: To Mr. and Mrs. John Simmons, Beaufort, a son, Tuesday, April 19.

Morehead City Hospital Admitted: Tuesday, Mr. Clennie Williams, Havelock; Mrs. Annie

Gillespie, Mrs. Annie White, More head City.

cheese, green peas, orange jello, bread, milk.

Friday: Fish sticks, candied Friday: Fish sticks, candied Easter with Mrs. White's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Chadwick. They returned home Saturday.

> Miss Florence Gorham spent the weekend at home from the Oxford Orphanage, where she is employ-

Symphony Society Sponsors Movie At City This Week

To raise emergency funds for the North Carolina symphony, the Request Made high schools.

Snow prevented the state symphony from fulfilling its complete schedule this winter. The season will end with a deficit unless more funds are raised. The Rev. C. Edward Sharp, president of the county symphony society, said each chapter has been asked to

State Issues New '60 Highway Maps

The front cover of this year's color map shows a view of western North Carolina, near Mount Mitchell, and the back cover features a coastal scene showing a fisher-man with his nets and two small

Campaign letters mailed to residents brought a return of $668, with some letters still to be returned. Other amounts recaired for feet the control of the co

Girl Scouts, Brownies Report Recent Activities

The second grade troop, 293, met ing at Camp Glenn school April 11 after school with its leader, Mrs. Ed Weeks.

We finished painting paper

News Briefs

To Convene Here

The North Carolina Education Association will hold its annual dinner meeting at Camp Glenn School, Friday, May 6, at 6 p.m. Dr. Amos Abrams of Raleigh, edi-tor of the North Carolina Education magazine, will be the speaker

Club to Meet

The Ladies Home Instruction club will meet Thursday night at 8 at the home of Mrs. Bernice Dunn, 519 Bayview Homes. All members are asked to attend

C. Club to Meet

Mr. George Jackson, Morehead City Classroom Teachers Association president, and Mrs. Julia Herndon, district CTA vice-president, both of Morehead City, attended the eastern district council meeting in Kinston Society.

Beaufort police are holding Leroy Sharp, 30, and his wife, who were arrested Saturday night for fighting and disturbing the peace.

Mrs. Sharp was also charged with assault on an officer. The pair is in the county jail.

They may be bought by contacting band and glee club members of the Beaufort and Morehead City high schools.

Easter gifts. Christine Reintjes, Scribe

Girl Scout troop 100 of Beaufort The meeting was called to by president Dawn Hassell. mache rabbits we have been mak-Mary Thompson served refresh-of cookies and chocolate milk

Ann Vick took up dues. Mary Thompson read minutes of our last meeting. Then we went outside to learn parts of trees. —Mary Thompson, Scribe

Brownie Troop 77 of Beaufort met Tuesday, April 19. Mrs. Smith served ice cream. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Young took us over to the beach to collect shells. Mrs. Smith took up our

-Norma Thompson, Scribe Girl Scout troop 121, Beaufort, met at Mrs. Vance Fulford's Wednes-day afternoon. The meeting was called to order and dues were collected. Committees were heard from

Hotel Damaged

Fire in an upstairs room damaged the Edgewater Hotel, Morethe North Carolina symphony, the Carterett symphony society will sponsor the movie, Seven Hills of Rome, this week.

The movie, Mario Lanza's last. The movie, Mario Lanza's last starts Thursday at the City theatre, Morehead City.

Advance tickets are on sale now. They may be bought by contacting the Corps of Engineers. Wilming.

Sixth graders of Beaufort school accompanied by their teacher, Miss Maud M. Green, and several mothers, toured THE NEWSTIMES plant Friday morning.
Making the tour were the follow-

Mrs. Norwood Young

Beatrice Jones

Barbara Dudley

Faye Styron Catherine Mason Tony Warren John Young Leslie Moore Julius Adair Susan Nelson Ginny Thomas Kay Lewis Patsy Chunn Barbara Williams Roy Piver Frank Joyner Robert McKee Mrs. Jane McKee Marsha Grant Sandra Tuck Mrs. Earl Lewis Robert Lewis Sherrie Garner Nancy Hooper Brenda Sewell Joseph Simpson Daniel Rumer Barbara Pittman Elsie Warlick Ricky Taylor Thompson Lewis James Dickinson Freddie Hunter Martin Cieszko

Lockwood Phillips

Leamon Hughes Garner of New port has had his driver's license revoked by the North Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles driving under the influence.

NOW! The only Club-Coach flights to

IDLEWILD · WASHINGTON · NORFOLK PHILADELPHIA · MIAMI · JACKSONVILLE

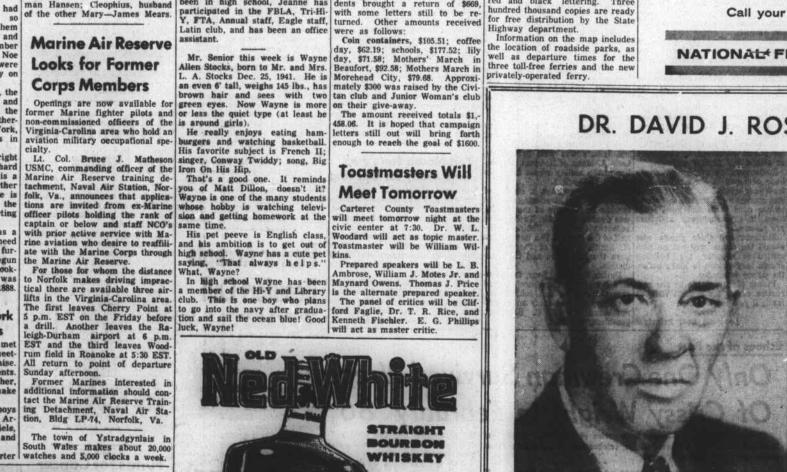

Also Coach Flights to CHARLESTON, S.C. · DAYTONA BEACH

Connections in Washington to CHICAGO · DETROIT · SAN FRANCISCO · LOS ANGELES all flights radar-equipped

Call your Travel Agent or MEIrose 7-5151

NATIONAL FIRST WITH JETS IN THE U.S.A.

DR. DAVID J. ROSE FOR CONGRESS

DR. DAVID J. ROSE

THE GROUPS LISTED BELOW HAVE PUBLIC-LY ENDORSED DR. DAVID J. ROSE FOR CON-

Goldsboro Board of Alderman Mount Olive Board of Aldermen Pikeville Board of Aldermen Wayne County Board of Commissioners Wayne County Bar Association Wayne County Rural Fire Protection Assn. Wayne County Medical Society Wayne County Dental Society Wayne County School Board Association Wayne County Pharmaceutical Society Wayne Democratic Executive Committee

It is evident that the years immediately ahead will be as critical as any in the history of Eastern North

The problems of education, health, conservation of forest, and water resources, and the plight of the small farmer and commercial fisherman will demand intelligent action.

To represent the people of the Third North Carolina Congressional District, we need a strong man of broad experience and sufficient specialized knowledge to be IMMEDIATELY listened to by the Members of Congress.

We respectfully submit to you that Dr. David J. Rose is the man who fits this need.

Paid for by Campaign Executive Committee for Dr. David J. Rose April, 1960 George Dewey - C. W. Peacock - Lindsay Warren, Jr.

FOR CONGRESS U. S. 3RD DISTRICT

Time dragged on, and finally when the seas subsided, the men launched the boat and made their way to the ship, only to find the crew dead except one. There were seven men on the Crissy Wright . . . a captain, mate, cook and four deck hands. Two men took to the shrouds of the mainmast, which broke off, and they fell into

A second man followed the firs

ed overboard or killed by lumber which was awash on the deck. The sole survivor, and the bod-ies of the other men were cut loose from the rigging and taken ashore to Diamond City. The sur-vivor had presence of mind nough to tell the men not to take him close to the fire, so they walked him and massaged him until he and Holloway, and possibly Capt. Sam Howland, picked up the bodies and brought them into Beau-fort. Residents crowded around at the shore, to behold a sight not to be forgotten easily.

The survivor was brought to Beaufort by the folks at Shackle-

Ann Street.

On Neckerchief Slides

ROBERT L STALLINGS,

VOTE FOR