

County Exceeds '59 Bond Quota

A treasury award was presented this week to Carteret county, through James R. Sanders, county US savings bond chairman. The award was for 107.4 per cent achievement in savings bond sales for 1959.

The quota for the year past for the county was $734,400. The sales were $788,917.18, according to treasury figures.

The citation reads: "In appreciation of patriotic service to the nation in the United States Savings Bonds Program." It is signed by Robert B. Anderson, Treasury secretary and W. H. Andrews Jr., Greensboro, who is state chairman of the bonds program.

Wade Hawkins, Raleigh, area manager of the savings bond division for eastern North Carolina, made the award to Mr. Sanders. In making the presentation, he stressed the appreciation of the treasury for "the cooperative effort of all banks in Carteret County" in making this achievement possible.

According to recent treasury figures, savings bond sales during the first quarter of 1960 took a turn upwards across the state.

A 4.4 per cent increase over the first quarter of 1959 was noted.

Carteret county sales have reached 29.1 per cent of the quota and a dollar volume for the period of $72,570.18, according to treasury totals.

A. R. Davis Will Design Building

Durham—A Durham architect, Archie Royal Davis, AIA, has been appointed by the Hospital Care Association to design its new Home Office Building, President B. R. Roberts has announced.

The selection was made by the association's board of directors from among several architects whose names were submitted by a building committee, headed by J. P. Richardson, a director and superintendent of Presbyterian hospital, Charlotte.

Construction of the proposed building for the Durham Blue Cross Plan will begin about January 1961. The two-story building, with around 30,000 square feet of floor space, will be located on two tracts of land the Association has purchased in the 800 block of South Duke Street.

Mr. Davis, a native of Durham City, has lived in Durham since 1936. He has a degree in architecture from NC State College and a degree in Engineering from the University of North Carolina.

Commercial and institutional designs to Mr. Davis' credit include Orange County courthouse, Hillsboro; buildings at State College (Patterson Hall, Field House, Bell Tower); Jefferson Hotel and First Methodist Educational building, Morehead City; Schraff's Country Inn, Durham; and Montgomery County hospital, Troy.

Smyrna Annuals Arrive; Seniors Give Television

By FRANCES PINER

Hi, folks! There are a number of cases of "arm cramps" around Smyrna these days. Annuals have arrived and students are either busily giving autographs to their friends or trying to get that "special someone's" autograph.

The 1960 annual was dedicated to Mr. Jimmie Parkin, baseball and basketball coach. Congratulations, seniors, on the wonderful job you have done. The annual is really beautiful.

The seniors also have something else to be happy about—the arrival of their caps and gowns. All have been busily trying on this garment they have been waiting for the chance to wear for the last 12 years.

The seniors seem to have the spotlight in the news this week. They have given the school a very useful and exciting gift—a television. The television is in the library. The agriculture boys made a fine cabinet to put the television in.

Now don't think we use the television for watching Huckleberry Hound and Captain Kangaroo! The television is to be used for educational purposes.

Mrs. Willis, French instructor, and Mr. Chadwick, science instructor, seem to be very happy, and for a very good reason. New equipment has arrived for the science lab; this includes 12 microscopes.

The French class has also a new tape recorder. This will be very useful in learning the correct pronunciation of French. We are sure this equipment will be of benefit to all.

Smyrna's entry in the dairy princess contest was Barbara Hill. She was sponsored by the FHA.

Miss Senior this week is Gloria Delain Wade, who was born Oct. 20, 1941, at Morehead City hospital. Gloria has green eyes and brown hair, is 5'7" tall and weighs 128 lb.

These are her favorites: actor, Rock Hudson; actress, Doris Day; singers, The Platters; song, Harbor Lights; sport, basketball; pastime, playing the piano.

Her pet peeve is taking exams. Gloria plans to take a business course at Morehead City this summer. These are her activities: FHA officer, FTA, 4-H Club, librarian, glee club, class officer.

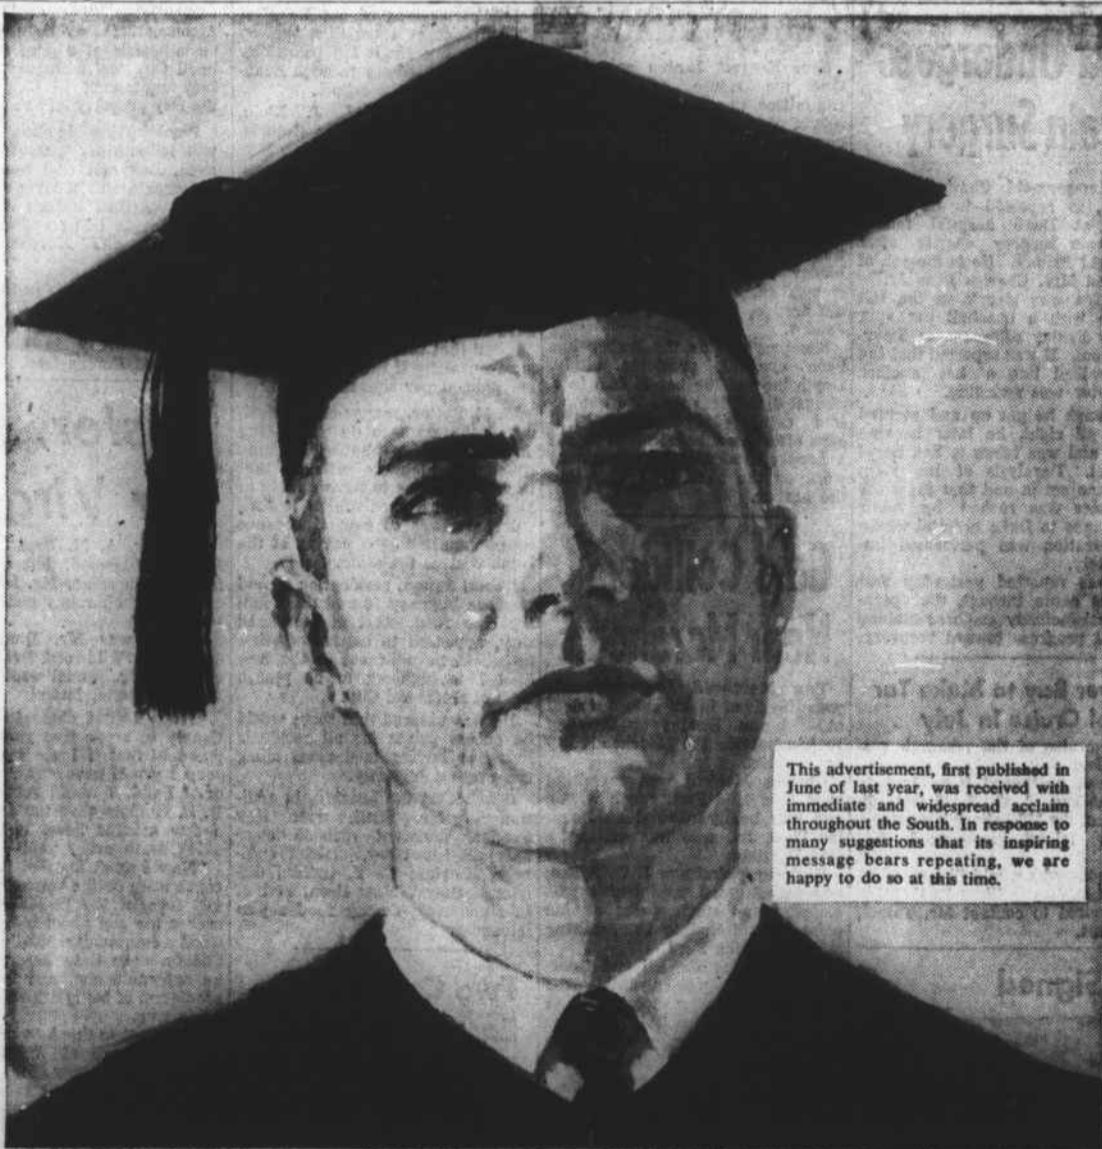

Muncie, Ind. (AP)—The end of the high school basketball season came just in time for a local judge. A divorced couple agreed on dividing all their property—except a couple of season tickets to Muncie Central's basketball games. They didn't want to sit next to each other.

This advertisement, first published in June of last year, was received with immediate and widespread acclaim throughout the South. In response to many suggestions that its inspiring message bears repeating, we are happy to do so at this time.

STAY SOUTH, YOUNG MAN!

WHERE WERE YOUR DREAMS for the future, on your glorious day of Graduation? Were they up in the clouds where they belong, because horizons are as limitless as the skies today for young men of character and competence, vision and faith?

Hold those dreams high, young man, and stay South to see them come true. For right here at home, in the South you know and live in and love, a great new opportunity-land is coming of age, where dreams that are born on the wings of a star can come down to earth and grow into reality.

A recent U. S. Department of Commerce report shows that since World War II the economic development of the South has outpaced the national rate of growth in almost every category you can name. Along Southern Railway lines alone, in the 8-year period 1952 to 1960, there have been 2,690 major industrial developments representing an investment of more than $4 billion.

Look ahead—stay South, young man. Stay South and grow with America's "youngster" opportunity-land.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY SYSTEM WASHINGTON, D. C.
