

Garden Club to Furnish Flowers for Homes Tour

Members of the Beaufort Garden club will supply floral arrangements for each of the old homes to be toured during Beaufort's 251st anniversary celebration next month.

The committees were appointed at the garden club meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. R. M. Williams. Two members will be responsible for flowers in one home.

New officers were installed and Mrs. Adam Metz took over as president, replacing Mrs. Albert Chappell.

It was decided that the club will not meet during the summer, but will meet in October at the home of Mrs. Metz. It was voted to hold all meetings next year in the homes of members.

Mrs. Metz and Mrs. Chappell served delicious open face sandwiches, potato chips and colas during the social hour that followed the meeting.

From the Williams home the group went to the home of Mrs. Harvey Smith and were conducted on a tour of the home and gardens by Mrs. Smith. The hostess served refreshments of coffee and doughnuts.

Twenty members and two guests, Mrs. Rufus Butler of Morehead City and Mrs. Julius Dunn Jr., attended.

Mrs. Bill Ginn Graduates Cumme Laude in Florida

Mrs. William Ginn, the former Peggy Williams of Beaufort, received a bachelor of arts degree in social studies at the University of Florida, Gainesville, recently. She graduated cumme laude. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Williams.

Mrs. Ginn attended Meredith college, Raleigh, for two years. While a student there she was AA sports manager, a counselor, a member of the vespers committee, the 1958 May court, and Astro society.

She attended the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, for one year following her marriage and completed her studies at the University of Florida. While at Florida she was tapped for membership in Alpha Kappa Delta, national honorary sociological fraternity.

Mr. Ginn, who is studying medicine, graduated from the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, and interned on the University of Florida campus last year. He will begin specialized studies there July 1.

Forty Guests Attend Farewell Dinner Party

Capt. and Mrs. C. D. McFarland of Cherry Point, who are being transferred to France this month, were entertained at a dinner prior to the duplicate bridge tournament Friday night at Inlet Inn. Mr. and Mrs. Al Dewey were hosts to the forty guests.

North-south winners were Mrs. D. J. Lewis and Mrs. George Bisette, both of New Bern. Mrs. C. L. Beam and Mrs. Jack Windley were second and Mrs. Julia Tenney and Mrs. Don Martin were third.

East-west winners were Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Jones. Dr. and Mrs. Charles Duffy of New Bern were second and Mrs. C. C. McCuiston and Mrs. Jack Windley were third.

Receives Honor
Miss Judith Moore, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Moore, was named to the dean's list at Salem College, Winston-Salem, for the last grading period of this year. A rising junior, Miss Moore also earned class honors for the year.

Married in Sunday Ceremony

Mrs. Halsey Dail Paul Jr.

Miss Sheila Joyce Willis became the bride of Halsey Dail Paul Jr. in a double ring ceremony Sunday afternoon at three o'clock at Ann Street Methodist church.

Chaplain David Simmons, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, officiated, assisted by the Rev. John Cline, pastor of the church. Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Charles Hassell, organist, and Mrs. Jack Stewart, soloist. Wedding selections included The Sweetest Story Ever Told and O Promise Me.

The church was decorated with white gladiolas and white feverfew. Seven-branched candelabra were placed against a background of ferns.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal gown of chantilly lace and imported tulle designed with a basque bodice with sabrina neckline and long sleeves tapering to points over the hands.

The voluminous skirt of tulle featured a redingote of lace and a cascade of ruffles extended into a slight train in back.

She wore a fingertip veil of imported illusion which fell from an open crown of seed pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a prayer book showered with lilies of the valley and topped with a white orchid.

Mrs. Jerry Willis of Pascaougoula, Miss., sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a street length dress of powder blue nylon chiffon designed with grecian waistline and bouffant skirt. She wore long white gloves and carried a colonial nosegay of pink carnations and white shasta daisies tied with pink and white ribbons.

Bridesmaids were Miss Regina Pake, Miss Sue Simpson and Miss Sophia Dickinson of Beaufort, cousins of the bride, and Miss Guylene Guthrie of Morehead City.

They wore street length dresses of baby blue nylon chiffon identical in style to that of the honor
