

CG Inspection Today Will Climax Reserve Training

USCG Reservists Train at Home

Climaxing a unique experiment in Coast Guard Reserve training will be inspection today at Fort Macon Coast Guard station of personnel and facilities by Cdr. Harold F. Lynch, Coast Guard Headquarters, Washington, D. C., and Cdr. Harold J. F. Wacker, Fifth Coast Guard District Reserve director.

From Sunday, June 5, members of the Morehead City Coast Guard Reserve unit (ORTUPS 05-758), commanded by Cdr. D. G. Bell, USCGR, have been on active duty training here at home.

As Reservists, the men in prior years have usually gone to Baltimore or some other station for two weeks of active duty. This year, instead, in a two-week program devised by Commander Bell and Commander Wacker, the men in the unit have undergone the training at Fort Macon station. The training period ends Sunday.

The training has consisted of classroom work, drills and actual duty at the Morehead City port. In case of emergency, the unit would take over port security work in this area.

This is the first time that anywhere in the nation a Coast Guard Reserve unit has undertaken a two-week program of on-site training.

Appraising the operation this week, Commander Bell said that the men have gotten much from the training, even though there have been many complications attendant to a "first time" operation. He said that if the program proves successful, it may be tried by other Reserve units in the country.

The Reserve unit consist of 41 men and six officers. All have been housed and fed at the Fort Macon station, in addition to the regular complement of Coast Guardsmen there.

The men have been on duty around the clock, separated into on-duty and off-duty sections. Local instructors, as well as instructors from Cherry Point and Civil Defense men from Raleigh have been conducting classes.

On Wednesday Marines from Cherry Point taught the Reservists techniques of unarmed defense. Yesterday, officials from Civil Defense headquarters in Raleigh gave instructions in detecting radioactivity and rules for protection from radioactive fallout.

Armor R. Frytle and Landis O. Briant, both of Raleigh, forfeited bond; William C. Gallagher, Cherry Point, $5 and costs; William S. Henderson, Cherry Point, $5 and costs.

Charles F. Miller, Cherry Point, costs.

The following were charged with public drunkenness plus the other charge listed: Jim G. Wells, Wilson, displaying whiskey in public, bond forfeited; Zaph Rochelle, High Point, disturbing the peace and disorderly conduct, $15 and costs.

L. M. Foster, profane language, paid costs and was ordered not to drink at Atlantic Beach for the next six months; Howard B. Price, Cherry Point, profane language, costs; James J. Randall Jr., public drunkenness and disturbing the peace, costs.

Howard E. Carlyle Jr., Wake Forest, charged with careless driving, $5 and costs.

Continued were three cases, Eugene Williams, Lenwood D. Williams and Gerry Allen Hardee, Greenville, all charged with public drunkenness and disturbing the peace.

Association Meets

Members of the North Carolina Bus association met Monday and Tuesday in Morehead City.

Beach Court Clears Heavy Docket Monday

A heavy court schedule was handled in Atlantic Beach mayor's court Monday night, since there was no court the week prior.

Three cases have been sent to county recorder's court: Ralph Edward Poe, Raleigh, charged with careless and reckless driving (Poe was involved in a three car accident at the beach June 5, according to chief of police Bill Moore); Oliver W. Kellum, Deep Run, charged with public drunkenness and breaking arrest; Bernard C. Willis, Beaufort, carrying concealed weapon in his automobile.

Four men whooping it up on a house party were finally arrested when they refused to heed warnings by officers to calm down. All forfeited bond for failure to appear.

They were Edward Allen Lee, Jack G. Dodd, Calvin W. Ferrell, and William M. Godwin Jr. All are from Raleigh and were charged with disturbing the peace and using loud and profane language.

Three were tried for drinking below the legal age. The policy of the court is that persons under 18 found consuming alcoholic beverages are restricted from the beach until they reach 18. Anthony G. Mosoril, New Bern, charged with public drunkenness and drinking under age, paid costs and was restricted from the beach until December.

Tom Fisher, Raleigh, charged with carrying beer outside a building and drinking beer under 18, forfeited bond. He was restricted until he reaches 18.

Brian McDewitt, Cherry Point, charged with public drunkenness and drinking under age, paid costs and was restricted from the beach until October.

The following were found guilty of public drunkenness: William Ludden, Cherry Point, paid costs; Edward Horne, Jacksonville, forfeited bond; Steve J. Eckmyer, Chicago, costs.

Armor R. Frytle and Landis O. Briant, both of Raleigh, forfeited bond; William C. Gallagher, Cherry Point, $5 and costs; William S. Henderson, Cherry Point, $5 and costs.

Charles F. Miller, Cherry Point, costs.

The following were charged with public drunkenness plus the other charge listed: Jim G. Wells, Wilson, displaying whiskey in public, bond forfeited; Zaph Rochelle, High Point, disturbing the peace and disorderly conduct, $15 and costs.

L. M. Foster, profane language, paid costs and was ordered not to drink at Atlantic Beach for the next six months; Howard B. Price, Cherry Point, profane language, costs; James J. Randall Jr., public drunkenness and disturbing the peace, costs.

Howard E. Carlyle Jr., Wake Forest, charged with careless driving, $5 and costs.

Continued were three cases, Eugene Williams, Lenwood D. Williams and Gerry Allen Hardee, Greenville, all charged with public drunkenness and disturbing the peace.

Association Meets

Members of the North Carolina Bus association met Monday and Tuesday in Morehead City.

Beaufort Principal Lists Faculty for Coming Year

Albert Gainey, principal of Beaufort school, has announced his faculty for 1960-61.

New teachers are James Lee Graham, an alumnus of Beaufort and Wake Forest, who will teach physics, general science and math; Mrs. Mabel G. Jones, Beaufort, who will teach French and math. Both are members of the high school faculty.

The other new teachers are in junior high school: Mrs. Colister Cleaver of Wayne county, will teach eighth grade, as will Mrs. Nancy Dunn, Beaufort. A seventh grade teacher will be Mrs. Marcia Bryce, Morehead City.

All other faculty members have taught at the school during the past year. The subjects or grades they will teach follow their names:

High school—Mrs. Mildred Lawrence, biology, chemistry, physics; Miss Lena Duncan, social studies, Latin and French; Mrs. Grace Ayscue, commercial subjects. Miss Carol Dee Boykin, English; George Banks, social studies, physical education; Curtis H. Lancaster, history, physical education;

Most of County Needs Showers

Other than erratic showers here and there throughout the county, there has been no rain since Tuesday, June 7, when less than a quarter of an inch fell.

Monday, June 13, brought conditions similar to a California smog, as the result of high winds and a concentration of dust and salt in the air.

Temperatures and wind direction from June 5 through Wednesday, June 15, as reported by E. Stamey Davis, weather observer, follow:

	Max.	Min.	Wind
June 5	85	74	SW
June 6	86	72	SSE
June 7	80	71	ENE
June 8	77	71	NE
June 9	74	67	NE
June 10	73	58	NE
June 11	78	62	SW
June 12	82	64	SW
June 13	84	74	SW
June 14	84	74	SW
June 15	84	74	SW

Beaufort Principal Lists Faculty for Coming Year

Albert Gainey, principal of Beaufort school, has announced his faculty for 1960-61.

New teachers are James Lee Graham, an alumnus of Beaufort and Wake Forest, who will teach physics, general science and math; Mrs. Mabel G. Jones, Beaufort, who will teach French and math. Both are members of the high school faculty.

The other new teachers are in junior high school: Mrs. Colister Cleaver of Wayne county, will teach eighth grade, as will Mrs. Nancy Dunn, Beaufort. A seventh grade teacher will be Mrs. Marcia Bryce, Morehead City.

All other faculty members have taught at the school during the past year. The subjects or grades they will teach follow their names:

High school—Mrs. Mildred Lawrence, biology, chemistry, physics; Miss Lena Duncan, social studies, Latin and French; Mrs. Grace Ayscue, commercial subjects. Miss Carol Dee Boykin, English; George Banks, social studies, physical education; Curtis H. Lancaster, history, physical education;

Club Women Make Final Parade Plans

Final plans for participation of Home Demonstration club women in the street parade during Beaufort's anniversary celebration were made Wednesday afternoon at a meeting of the Home Demonstration Club County council in Beaufort.

Club women, wearing costumes representing nations in the United Nations will parade and carry flags of UN nations.

The hat-making workshop, scheduled for June, has been postponed until the last of September. The crafts workshop at Manteo will be Aug. 16-18.

Mrs. Floy Garner, home agent, announced that a home agent trainee will be in the county from July 5 through August. The young woman will be a senior at East Carolina in the fall and is preparing to enter extension work as a home economics agent. She will attend club meetings throughout the county while here.

It was also announced that Mrs. Merle Swicegood has replaced Miss Florence Cox as district agent and Mrs. Swicegood will make her visit to the county today. Miss Cox has retired.

Mrs. G. T. Spivey, Beaufort, chairman of this district, Home Demonstration clubs, will attend the National Home Demonstration Council meeting at Denver, Colo., in the fall.

The major part of the meeting was devoted to planning the coming year's program. The vice-president of each club is a member of the program planning committee.

Mrs. E. C. McLawhorn is chairman. The committee will meet

See COUNCIL, Page 7

July 9 Clambake Menu Listed

The menu for the July 9 clambake in Beaufort, part of the town's anniversary celebration, was announced yesterday by Mrs. Ben Arrington, chairman of the clambake, floorshow and dance.

There will be boiled shrimp, half a chicken, sweet potatoes, Irish potatoes, onions, carrots, clams and clam juice. The supper will be served by Elmer Willis, the clam king.

Tickets for the whole affair, which will be held in front of the Beaufort school, are $2.50 each and are on sale now.

Assisting Mrs. Arrington are Mrs. Norwood Young, publicity; Carl Hattell and Jack Sewell, lighting; Jack Gardner and Adam Metz, scenery.

Mrs. Adam Metz, costumes; Jerry Darling, properties; Mrs. Grace Flowers, orchestra; and Mrs. Jack Sewell, food.

Tickets are available from Mrs. Arrington and Mrs. Carrie Lee Hancock, or by writing Box 273, Beaufort.

Unknown Seas Tickets Will Go on Sale June 20

Unknown Seas, the drama to be staged July 7 and 8 at Beaufort school during Beaufort's coming anniversary celebration, is now in rehearsal.

Tickets will be placed on sale June 20 and will be available at Duchess Beauty Shop in Beaufort and Eastman's in Morehead City. A diagram of the seating arrangement will be published so that the public may choose the section in which they desire seats.

The sections will be lettered A, B, and C. Seats in section A will be $2, in section B, $1.50, and in section C, $1.

Louis H. Russell, who pleaded guilty Monday in superior court to a series of break-ins throughout the county, was placed on five years' probation Wednesday. If terms of the probation are not complied with, Russell will serve four to six years in prison.

Russell, booked when caught red-handed in Eastman's Town and Sound shop last month as "Lewis" Russell, admitted to a series of thefts which included doctor's offices and insurance offices in Morehead City, service stations and stores throughout Carteret and the eastern end of Onslow county.

Junior Branton, charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor, was sentenced to two

W. Z. Emery Found Dead In Automobile

Coroner Says Death Due to Sleeping Pills

Burial to Take Place At Sag Harbor, N. Y.

The funeral service for William Zion Emery, 63, Morehead City, who was found dead in his automobile Wednesday morning, will be conducted today at Sag Harbor, N. Y.

Mr. Emery, brother of Mrs. B. W. Lewis, Morehead City, apparently died sometime Sunday morning, according to coroner David Munden. The coroner attributed death to an overdose of sleeping pills.

Mr. Emery, in his car, was found on one of the roads leading from highway 24 to Spooner's Creek harbor by a workman on the harbor development.

The sheriff's department was notified. Sheriff Hugh Salter, deputy Bruce Edwards and patrolman J. W. Sykes went to the scene, then notified the coroner.

Mr. Munden said that Mr. Emery left two letters, one to his nephew, George Lewis, Beaufort, relative to funeral arrangements, and another to George Lewis's son-in-law, Herbert Mason, Beaufort.

The coroner said that Mr. Emery was last seen about 8 o'clock Saturday night. An empty bottle that had contained sleeping pills was found under him on the front seat of the car.

Born at what was formerly known as Lupton, in the eastern part of the county, Mr. Emery lived most of his life in New York. He married May Hughes of Sag Harbor, N. Y. She died about two years ago, Mr. Munden reported.

Mr. Emery came to Morehead City a year ago and was living alone in a home he rented on Bogue Sound.

Surviving in addition to those mentioned are two brothers, Noe G. Emery, Morehead City; Clarence Emery, Miami, and a sister, Mrs. Catherine Evans, believed to be living in Fellows, Calif.

Troop 61, Newport, Receives Its Charter in Ceremonies Last Night

Civic Leaders To Meet June 23

Presidents and representatives of civic and service clubs in Morehead City will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday, June 23, at the civic center.

Purpose of the meeting, according to J. A. DuBois, manager of the Morehead City chamber of commerce, which is sponsoring the meeting is as follows:

To organize a Civic Advisory committee.

To co-ordinate the efforts of the various clubs and associations, so that their contribution to the progress of our community will be more effective.

To encourage advance planning of civic events and fund drives, eliminating the overlapping and duplication.

To consolidate community participation in certain annual events such as the Christmas parade and Armed Forces Day.

Mr. DuBois comments that co-ordination worked effectively before. It is important now that civic organizations resume coordination.

To Give Lecture
George Wilmott of Texas, speaker from the Dawn Bible Students Association of New Jersey, will speak Tuesday night at 8 at the civic center in Morehead City. The topic of his lecture will be Our Day in Prophecy. No offering will be taken. The public is invited.

Annual County Fire School Will Begin Monday, June 27

You Can Find Anything...

Capt. Jack Rose, right, and mate Gilbert Russell, aboard the partyboat Dolphin II, Morehead City, found this weather balloon floating about 20 miles offshore, three weeks ago.

The annual county fire school will begin Monday, June 27 and end Friday, July 1.

Plans for the school were made Monday night at the Morehead City fire station. Classes will be conducted nightly at 7:30 in Newport, Atlantic Beach, Beaufort and Morehead City.

The instructor will be W. O. Dowdy, captain of the Charlotte fire department. All fire department personnel in the county are invited. The training is free. At the conclusion of the course, each fireman who has attended the required sessions receives a card designating that he has successfully completed the course.

The county fire school will entertain firemen and their wives at a supper at 7:30 p.m. Friday, July 1, at the Morehead City fire station.

Attending the planning meeting were the following:

Chief William Barts and town clerk Milton Coyle, Atlantic Beach; mayor Leon Mann, assistant fire chief Bill Dugee and fireman Raymond Edwards, Newport.

Fire chief Lindsay Guthrie, assistant fire chief El Nelson, fire captain Doyce Rice, firemen Duffy Guthrie and Clyde Young, and Dan Swindell, secretary-treasurer, Morehead City fire department.

Grand Jurors Check Airport

This week's grand jury report took up where the last one left off—with the county airport.

The grand jurors, who reported to judge Malcolm Paul Wednesday during superior court, reported that arrangements have been made for debris to be moved from taxi strips and runways at the Beaufort-Morehead City airport by the town of Beaufort street sweeper.

They further stated that the entrance road to the airport has been taken over by the highway department and will be paved.

Fence sections, the report continued, are being repaired and the wind T is now in operating order. Further repairs to boundary lights, the report said, will be impossible until funds are available to make them.

The grand jurors found the courthouse and its departments, the county jail and the Newport prison camp in acceptable condition. County schools, the report said, were not inspected, because the schools are closed.

J. M. Davis, Morehead City, was grand jury foreman.

Gloucester Club Plans Barbecue

The Gloucester Community club discussed final plans for a chicken barbecue supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nat Smith Tuesday night.

The supper will be held July 23 at the community park with serving from 5 to 7 p.m. The chickens will be barbecued over an open pit. Tickets are $1.50 for adults, 75 cents for children and are available from any club member or by calling Bill Pigott at PA9-3176.

On each plate will be one-half a chicken, potato salad, slaw and hot rolls, with pie for dessert, and a drink.

Thirteen members attended the meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Norman were welcomed as new members.

Following the business session, Mrs. Smith served punch and cookies.

Car Stolen
A 1956 Studebaker belonging to William Moseley, Winston-Salem, was stolen at Atlantic Beach Wednesday night. It was reported found at Raleigh at 11:17 p.m. that night.

Troop 61, Newport, Receives Its Charter in Ceremonies Last Night

Civic Leaders To Meet June 23

Presidents and representatives of civic and service clubs in Morehead City will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday, June 23, at the civic center.

Purpose of the meeting, according to J. A. DuBois, manager of the Morehead City chamber of commerce, which is sponsoring the meeting is as follows:

To organize a Civic Advisory committee.

To co-ordinate the efforts of the various clubs and associations, so that their contribution to the progress of our community will be more effective.

To encourage advance planning of civic events and fund drives, eliminating the overlapping and duplication.

To consolidate community participation in certain annual events such as the Christmas parade and Armed Forces Day.

Mr. DuBois comments that co-ordination worked effectively before. It is important now that civic organizations resume coordination.

To Give Lecture
George Wilmott of Texas, speaker from the Dawn Bible Students Association of New Jersey, will speak Tuesday night at 8 at the civic center in Morehead City. The topic of his lecture will be Our Day in Prophecy. No offering will be taken. The public is invited.

D. G. Bell Wins CG Promotion

Commander Bell, a veteran of world war II, has been commanding officer of the Coast Guard Port Security training unit, Fort Macon, has been promoted to lieutenant commander in the Coast Guard Reserve.

While on active duty during the war, he was assistant captain of the port at Mobile, Ala., and held other port security jobs.

Commander Bell represents Carteret county in the general assembly and during the past year has served as chairman of the state commercial fisheries committee.

Tide Table

Tides at the Beaufort Bar
HIGH	Friday, June 17	LOW
2:47 a.m.		9:19 a.m.
3:27 p.m.		9:56 p.m.
Saturday, June 18
3:44 a.m.		10:11 a.m.
4:23 p.m.		10:49 p.m.
Sunday, June 19
4:43 a.m.		10:59 a.m.
5:16 p.m.		11:38 p.m.
Monday, June 20
5:37 a.m.		11:45 a.m.
6:04 p.m.

Defendant Fined $150 Monday

George Dewey McCarty, Cherry Point, was found guilty of assault with a car, and careless and reckless driving when he appeared in Morehead City recorder's court Monday. Judge Herbert Phillips gave him six months in jail, suspended on payment of $150 and costs.

Eleanore Carol Gillikin, Cedar Island, failed to appear to answer charges of giving worthless checks to El Nelson's grocery and Styron's department store. Final judgment against the bondsman was ordered.

Not prosecuted was a case charging Richard P. Jolliff, Morehead City, with operating a motor vehicle while drunk. Jolliff pleaded guilty to public drunkenness and was given 30 days, suspended on payment of $50 and costs.

Elijah Lewis, Morehead City, was found not guilty of his fourth public drunkenness offense in less than 12 months. Ruth Jones Bratcher, Beaufort, charged with speeding, forfeited bond for failure to appear.

Five cases were continued.

Power Firm Still Looks For Cause of Flickering

George Stovall, manager of Carolina Power and Light Co., said at 3 p.m. yesterday that linemen had been unable to locate the cause of the lights flickering off and on Wednesday night.

Mr. Stovall said every means possible was put into play to determine where the trouble was but it still remained a mystery. If anyone has seen any indication of trouble with the lines anywhere, they are asked to notify the power company.

Judge Puts Russell on Probation for Five Years

The case against Clyde Franklin Jones, charged with failure to surrender his operator's license, ended in mistrial; Carlton Pittman, charged with public drunkenness, was given four months in jail, suspended on condition he remain on good behavior two years and pay court costs.

Ronald Jordan pleaded guilty to issuing a worthless check and was given 30 days, suspended on condition he pay $25 and costs and the Colonial store be reimbursed.

Peggy Jordan, who also pleaded guilty to giving a worthless check, was given six months, suspended, providing the defendant makes the good bond and pay costs by 10 a.m. Monday.

Harry Foster Taylor pleaded guilty to driving without a license, drunken driving, and possession of non-taxpaid whiskey and was sentenced to eight months, the sentence to be served unless he pays $300 and costs by Aug. 1, 1960.

Judy Temple Baker pleaded guilty to two counts of check forgery and was sent to women's prison for eight months. Laura F. Guthrie, also charged with forgery of checks, pleaded guilty and was given eight months in prison, suspended on condition that she stay on probation five years.

She is to pay court costs and make restitution for the checks as directed by the probation officer. The state decided not to prosecute Dallas Harvell on a charge of seduction. Harvell waived a bill of indictment, pleaded guilty to bastardy and was given 12 months in jail suspended on condition he pay $15 a week for 40 weeks for the use of the minor, Joyce Ann Willis, and the grandfather of the child, Robert Willis.

Thereafter he is to pay $10 a week for the support of Joyce Ann Willis plus the costs of court, the latter to be paid within 30 days.

The jury found Amos Locklear not guilty of careless and reckless driving, no brakes, no insurance and driving drunk. Jurors were Gordon S. Becton, William B. Norris Jr., Calvin Mason, Alvin D. Howell.

Daniel W. Fulcher, David L. Freeman, Orville A. Willis, Edgar Cole, Pender A. Smith, Ulysses Piner, Braxton Adair and Vincent S. Becton.

The case of Andrew Davis, charged with failing to stop at a stop sign, was remanded to county recorder's court for judgment. William H. Neighbors was sentenced to 18 months in jail, suspended. He was charged with hit and run, careless and reckless driving, and driving drunk.

The sentence was suspended on condition that Neighbors pay a fine of $600, plus costs of court within ten days.