Seamon-Upchurch Vows Spoken

Miss Sue Ellen Upchurch and Jesse Lee Seamon Jr. were married in a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening at eight-thirty at First Baptist church, Morehead City.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Upchurch of Pine Knoll Shores, formerly of Raleigh. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Lee Seamon Sr. of this city.

Officiating at the ceremony was the Rev. John T. Bunn of Durham. Music was presented by Mrs. George Mizeko, organist, and Mr. Ralph E. Helms, soloist. Wedding selections were Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee, O Perfect Love, and Ave Maria.

The church was decorated with five floral arrangements of gladiolas, feverfew and chrysanthemums. The seven candelabras holding white tapers were set against a background of palms and greenery.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore her sister's wedding gown, fashioned of antique ivory satin. It featured an off-the-shoulder bertha of brussels lace and long fitted sleeves tapering to points over the hands.

The elongated bodice extended into a softly pleated skirt terminating in a cathedral train.

Her veil, edged also with hand-applied brussels lace, was attached to a double tiara of matching lace frosted with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of bride's roses, lilies of the valley and stephanotis.

The matron of honor was Mrs. John J. Carpenter, sister of the bride, and the maid of honor was Miss Henri Karl Fisher. Both are from Raleigh.

They wore floor length gowns of apricot silk organza over yellow taffeta, styled with portrait necklines and shirred bodices. The bell-shaped skirts were swept into bustle effects in the back.

They wore matching tiaras of organza and taffeta and carried cascades of bronze chrysanthemums, yellow daisies and talisman roses.

Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Helen Barden, Miss Sally Marshall Hayes, and Miss Virginia Anderson of Raleigh and Mrs. Kenneth Putnam Jr. and Mrs. John Aliyetti of Morehead City, twin sisters of the bridegroom.

They also wore floor length gowns of apricot silk organza over yellow taffeta. Their tiaras were of matching organza and taffeta and their bouquets were cascades of bronze chrysanthemums, yellow daisies and talisman roses.

Miss Cynthia Carpenter, who was the flower girl, wore a dress of white silk organza fashioned after the bride's gown and carried a lace basket of white rose petals.

Honorary attendants were Miss Betsy Faye Pierce, Miss Virginia Sears, Miss Jayne Jordan, Miss Lella Midyette and Miss Mary Clyde Wade. They were attired in pastel dresses and all wore white corsages.

The bridegroom's father was his best man. Ushers were Thurlow Wheaton, Kenneth Putnam Jr., Tommy Bennett and Robert Seamon of Morehead City, John Ferrell Carpenter of Raleigh, Robert Tyndal Jr. of Fuquay and Bert Brooks of Beaufort.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Upchurch wore a formal gown of asbes of zoes silk organza with a corsage of green cymbidium orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of dior blue lace and chiffon and a corsage of yellow hybrid orchids.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the Sea Level room of the Morehead Biltmore hotel. The bride's table was overlaid in imported white linen, centered with a silver epergne filled with white flowers and flanked by silver punch bowls and five-light candelabras. The table was encircled with garlands of southern smilax and beau de soie wedding bells caught at the corners with french tulle.

Assisting at the reception were Mr. and Mrs. George Tomlinson, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lamberson, Mrs. Jesse Lee Seamon Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grimmer, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Leonard and Miss Julia Brown.

For travel Mrs. Seamon wore a dress of navy blue textured silk with avocado green accessories and green cymbidium orchids. Following the wedding trip the couple will reside at 2100 Shepard St., Morehead City.

The bride attended Peace college and Florida State university, where she was a member of Delta Gamma sorority. The bridegroom attended the University of North Carolina and is part owner of Sanitary Fish Market and Restaurant, Morehead City.

Weds Local Man

Mrs. Denay T. Lawrence

Miss Patsy Rowe Conwell became the bride of Denny T. Lawrence in a simple ceremony Sunday at the chapel of Edenton Street Methodist church, Raleigh. Dr. Howard P. Powell officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garland Conwell of Rocky Mount and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Lawrence of Morehead City.

Vows were spoken before the altar with organ music furnished by Mrs. William Miller.

The bride is a graduate of Louisville college and is employed by the North Carolina Industrial Commission. The bridegroom is a graduate of Louisville college and will attend the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, in the fall.

After a wedding trip to the mountains the couple will make their home in Raleigh.

Miss Upchurch Hostess At Dinner Party Friday

Miss Sue Ellen Upchurch, who married J. L. Seamon Jr. Saturday evening at the First Baptist church, entertained her bridal attendants at a dinner party at her home on Pine Knoll Shores prior to rehearsal Friday night.
