Nuts, mints and colas were enjoyed during the game and the hostess served blueberry pie a la mode after play.

WCSB Meets The general meeting of the WCSB of St. James Methodist church was conducted recently in the educational building. Twenty-five members attended. The meeting opened with a musical selection for piano by Miss Edith Lockey.

The call to worship was given by Miss Nina Garner, followed by a meditation, Mountains of Noble Adventure. The hymn, Awake, Awake to Love and Work, was sung.

A talk on recruitment of missionaries, deaconesses and pastors was given by Miss Elsie Elliott.

Guest Claims Motel Manager Took Cash Ralph Davenport, a guest at the Broadway motel, Morehead City, has sworn out a warrant charging Duncan Murray, manager of the motel, with taking $25 and a pint of liquor from his room sometime between 3 and 9 p.m. Saturday.

Claude Perkins Smith, Newport, has also been charged with trespassing in Davenport's room. Patrolman J. C. Steele investigated. Murray posted $150 for his appearance in Morehead City recorder's court yesterday and Smith posted $100 bond.

A letter from a missionary in a foreign field was read by Mrs. Clarence Mills. After the closing hymn, God of Grace, the WCSB benediction was said in unison.

The business session opened with a prayer. The president, Mrs. J. H. Thrower Jr., presided. Minutes of the last meeting and the treasurer's report were heard. Reports from various committees were read. Plans for serving suppers during Youth Week were made.

Invitations were made for all members, especially officers, to attend the school of missions Aug. 8-12. The next study course, The Church's Mission in Town and Country, was discussed.

Mrs. Ada Allen gave a report on the church library, stressing the importance of prompt return of books borrowed. The meeting closed with prayer.
