Teachers Elect Miss Ann Couch

Miss Ann Couch, home economics instructor at Morehead City high school, has been elected vice-chairman of the Five-County Group of Vocational Home Economics Teachers.

Mrs. David Beveridge, home economics instructor at Beaufort school, was elected publicity chairman for Carteret.

The group evaluated the recent home economics conference at Woman's college and offered suggestions for next year's conference.

Harvey Smith's Home, New Jersey, Burglarized

The Harvey W. Smith home, Atlantic Highlands, N. J., was burglarized over the weekend. Mrs. Smith, who has been in Beaufort this summer, left yesterday for Atlantic Highlands.

It is the opinion of officers that the looting was the work of professional burglars.

Two Autos Collide at Crossover Wednesday

Two cars collided Wednesday on highway 70A. Patrolman J. W. Sykes said Walter Howell, route 1 Morehead City, was headed north on the crossover between highway 70 and 70A near the Blue Ribbon.

Howell, in a 1950 Buick, according to the patrolman, pulled out in front of a 1949 Plymouth headed east on highway 70A. The Plymouth was driven by Troy D. Smith, Newport. Damage to the Plymouth was estimated at $150. There was no damage to the Buick.
