home from the Morehead City hospital last Sunday. He had been a patient there for the past three weeks with a broken shoulder. Mr. Louis H. Warren of Chicago arrived here last week to spend several days with his father, O. W. Warren, and other relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cartaway and daughter visited his uncle, Mr. W. J. Dall, and wife last week. Chief Morris Mitchell arrived here Saturday to take his family back to their home in Savannah, Ga. They had been spending several days with her mother, Mrs. Helen Arthur, until her husband could get things ready for them. Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hill spent Sunday in New Bern visiting her mother, Mrs. Jones, and other relatives. Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Pate and sisters, Miss Lizzie Pate and Mrs. Clara Garrish of Goldsboro and brother, Floyd Pate, of Lynchburg, Va., visited relatives here last Sunday afternoon. The Misses Patsy and Elaine Garner of Newport spent last week visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hill. Capt. Clyde W. Moore of Rockville, Md., arrived here last Thursday to join his wife and sons at her mother's, Mrs. Lottie Collins. They left Sunday morning for Alabama, where they will spend their vacation visiting friends. Mrs. Herman Smith and children of Norwood spent the weekend visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hill. Mr. Lloyd Smith is a patient in Sea Level hospital. We are hoping he will soon be better and able to return home. The North River MYF, after having been inactive for several months, was reorganized again Sunday night with new officers and counselor for the coming year. The pastor and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Mayo, met with them to help them get started again. The Rev. Leonard Mayo filled his regular appointment at our church Sunday night with a large attendance. The Rev. R. M. Poulk, a former pastor, was one of our visitors. Everyone was delighted to see him. The WPCS met last Monday night at the church with eleven members present. The president, Mrs. Mary Hill, called the meeting to order. The program was given by Mrs. Lottie Collins, assisted by several members. The topic was Light for Today's Children, which was very good. The business session was conducted by the president. There were many things of importance taken up and discussed. Next
