Wed at Atlantic

Mrs. John Michael Smith

Miss Varena Joyce Meads of Greenville became the bride of John Michael Smith of Atlantic in a candlelight, double ring ceremony Saturday, Aug. 6 at 8 o'clock at the Missionary Baptist church in Atlantic. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John W. Privott of Enfield.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Raelene Smith, organist, of Davis, cousin of the groom, and Miss Theresa McDaniel of Fayetteville, soloist. Miss McDaniel sang Because, O Promise Me, and The Lord's Prayer.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Boyd L. Styron of Tampa, Fla. She wore a full length gown of silk organza and french rosepoint lace. The bodice was designed with a scalloped neckline sprinkled with seed pearls and sequins, elbow length sleeves and pointed waistline. The voluminous skirt featured a panel of lace down the front and lace flowerlets were applied over the skirt. A double panel of lace fastened at the waistline with seed pearls and formed a scalloped chapel train in the back.

She wore a fingertip veil of bridal illusion with applied lace matching the flowerlets on her gown, which fell from a high crown of pearls and rhinestones. She carried a white Bible topped by three white orchids and showered with satin ribbons tied with pearlized leaves and maline.

Mrs. John Caddy of Norfolk, Va., was matron of honor and Miss Victoria Ann Gorges of Atlantic, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. They wore identical gowns of pink silk chiffon over taffeta designed with scooped necklines and short sleeves featuring silk organza cumberbunds in darker shades of pink. They carried nosegays of deep pink carnations.

Honorary bridesmaids were Mrs. Brookie Singletary of Greenville, Miss Martha Ann Davis of Clayton, both sorority sisters of the bride, and Mrs. Guy Taylor Jr., Miss Jean Carol Fulcher and Miss Betty Lou Bell, all of Atlantic. They wore pale blue dresses and each carried a single long stemmed white rose.

Mr. Freddy Smith, brother of the groom, was best man. Grooms-men were Elmo Gaskill Jr., cousin of the groom, Philip Morris and Malcolm Fulcher, all of Atlantic.

The bride's mother wore a dress of beige chiffon with inserts of lace and satin and matching accessories. She wore a lavender orchid corsage. The mother of the groom wore a dress of pink silk organza over taffeta and pink accessories. She wore a lavender orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's mother entertained at a reception in the church fellowship parlor. Miss Betty Lou Bell presided at the bride's book and introduced the guests to the receiving line. Wedding cake was served by Mrs. Brookie Singletary and Miss Jean Fulcher presided at the punch bowl.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Eura Styron Meads of Greenville and the late William Marshall Meads of Great Bridge, Va., is a graduate of Great Bridge high school and East Carolina college, where she became a member of Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority. She will become a member of the faculty of Hillsboro school in September.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gaston Smith of Atlantic. He is a graduate of Atlantic high school and is a senior at the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill, where he is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon local fraternity.

After a wedding trip through the mountains of North Carolina and Virginia the couple will reside at Hillsboro.

Plans Fall Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Pittman of Merrimon announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Faye, to William Lloyd Cannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Cannon, also of Merrimon. A fall wedding is planned.

Pre-Nuptial Parties Honor Verena J. Meads

Miss Varena Joyce Meads of Greenville, who was married to John Michael Smith of Atlantic Aug. 6, was entertained at five parties prior to her wedding.

Mrs. John Caddy of Norfolk, Va., and her mother, Mrs. James Philpaw of Great Bridge, Va., entertained 15 guests at a bridal shower for Miss Meads at the home of Mrs. Philpaw.

On Monday evening, Aug. 1, Miss Meads was honored at a cola party for 14 friends by Mrs. Freddy Smith at her home in Atlantic. On arrival, the bride-elect was presented a corsage of white carnations, pink gladiolas and pink candles were used to decorate the house.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gaston Smith, parents of the bridegroom, entertained at a dinner party at the Sea Level Inn Friday, Aug. 5, immediately preceding the wedding rehearsal. A shore dinner was served to the thirty guests.

Immediately following the rehearsal, the bridal couple were guests of honor at a cake cutting at the church for the wedding party and friends, given by the bridegroom's parents.

On Saturday, Aug. 6, at noon, Mr. and Mrs. Brantly Morris and their son, Philip, entertained at a garden party and wedding breakfast at their home honoring the bridal couple, their parents, the attendants and out-of-town guests.

A menu of chilled tomato juice, baked ham, chicken salad, spiced crabapples, creamed asparagus, mixed pickles and olives, hot rolls, butter and iced tea was served from a table covered with a white organdy and lace cloth caught at the corners with lilies of the valley and white satin ribbons. An arrangement of white flowers was flanked by silver candelabra holding burning tapers, forming a centerpiece.

The guests ate from tables near the pool. Orange punch and cake were served in the garden.

Marriage Announced

Mrs. J. M. Brown

Miss Patricia Anne Chadwick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Chadwick of Raleigh, formerly of Straits, and Julian M. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julian M. Brown Jr. of Marshallberg, were married Saturday, Aug. 20, at Bridgeton Methodist church.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. H. Cash of Bridgeton, former pastor of the bridegroom.

The bride is a graduate of Smyrna high school. The bridegroom also graduated from Smyrna high school and received a degree from East Carolina college, Greenville.

The couple will reside in England, where the bridegroom will teach and coach basketball at England high school.

Finklea-Pittman Vows Spoken at Merrimon

Miss Jean Carroll Pittman of Merrimon and John Gary Finklea of Pamlico, S. C., were married in a ceremony Saturday at Merrimon Methodist church. The Rev. W. D. Caviness, pastor, officiated. Music was presented by Mrs. Grant Leonard of Beaufort, pianist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Carol Pittman of Merrimon. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gary I. Finklea of Pamlico.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a dress of lace and chiffon. The gown was designed with bouffant skirt and fitted bodice featuring pencil shoulder straps. A crushed cummerbund accented the waistline.

Covering the bodice was a waist length lace jacket with scalloped bottom, designed with round neckline and bracelet length sleeves with scalloped edge.

She wore a short veil attached to a band of blossoms and pearls. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and feathered carnations, centered with an orchid.

Miss Doris Ann McNeill, cousin of the bride, was the only attendant. She wore a dress of pink silk organza over taffeta with a matching headdress.

She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Ushers were Joseph C. Taylor of Narragansett, R. I., cousin of the bride, and Robert W. Finklea, brother of the bridegroom.

Following a wedding trip the couple will reside in Columbia, S. C.
