100 Attend Club Tea Wednesday Afternoon

Mrs. O. J. Morrow, publicity chairman for the Junior Woman's club, reports that nearly 100 persons attended the club's membership tea Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dick Parker.

Mrs. Roma Styron, Mrs. Harry Dobbins and Mrs. Parker greeted the members and prospective members at the door. The guests were reminded of the club's first meeting of the year, to be held Monday night at 8 at the civic center, and were invited to attend.

Arrangements of fall flowers were used throughout the Parker home. The table was centered with an arrangement of white daisies flanked with white tapers. At one end of the table was the tea service and at the other end was a coffee service.

Mrs. P. H. Geer Jr., Mrs. Coolidge Merrill, Mrs. Bobby Matthews and Mrs. Thomas Noe poured. Mrs. Roy Denkins, food chairman, served party sandwiches, cookies, cakes, nuts and mints. Mrs. Dick Spears was chairman of the tea. All club members took part in planning and preparing the event.

Two County Students Win ECC Scholarships

Two students from Carteret county have been awarded College Resources Scholarships of $100 each from East Carolina college. The recipients are Jeff Faucette of Morehead City and Susan Marie Lewis of Atlantic.

The college awarded 193 scholarships on the basis of good scholastic standing, promise of future success, excellent qualities of character and personality and need of assistance. Made available to the students were Pitt County Foundation scholarships as well as the college resources awards.

Churchwomen Plan Sale Of Plants this Month

St. Catherine's chapter of St. Andrew's Episcopal Churchwomen are taking orders again this year for pansy plants, which will be delivered in November.

The sale was discussed at the chapter meeting Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Jim Morrill. Mrs. Earl Deubler, chairman, asked Mrs. J. W. Piatt and Mrs. Chauncey Styron to report on the progress of the project.

In the absence of Miss Mary Walters, the treasurer's report was given by Mrs. W. L. Brady. It was decided that the work committees will take turns cleaning the parish house. Team number one will work this month.

Mrs. Mary Shockley reported that the Thrift Shop schedule for fall is in order. A weekly list of workers for the shop will be published she said.

The chapter voted to change its meeting date to the first Monday of each month. The menu for the PTA district meeting, which will be held at the parish house Oct. 12, was decided on. All teams will serve.

The Rev. E. Guthrie Brown, rector, asked for workers for the Sunday school and young churchmen's groups. The next meeting will be held Oct. 3 at the home of Mrs. Gus Davis with Miss Amie Klein and Mrs. Styron as co-hostesses.

Mrs. W. L. Brady gave a program on the United Thank Offering and requested a 100 per cent collection Nov. 1.

Refreshments were served.

Mrs. D. G. Bell Hostess To Guild Monday Night

Mrs. D. G. Bell was hostess to the Wesleyan Service Guild of First Methodist church Monday night at her home on Sunset Drive. There were twenty-nine members present. Mrs. Lela Chadwick was a guest.

Mrs. Fred Willis, treasurer, reported a balance of $112 in the treasury. It was voted to donate $10 to Mrs. Ira Long, to be used in the WSCS project of refurbishing the parsonage.

A letter was read from Mrs. Ben Royal, a former member, inviting the guild to meet at her home in January. The invitation was accepted. Mrs. Ethan Davis, chairman, presided.

Mrs. Betty Merion was in charge of devotions. The Purpose Becomes Action, telling of missionary work around the world, was given as the program by Mrs. Davis and several members.

The hostess served a pineapple iced drink, dutch apple cookies and cheese snacks.

Rotarians Get Storm Facts

Morehead City Rotarians heard talks last night by Frank Reeves of the Red Cross, W. W. Simpson, insurance adjuster, and Jack Savage, Civil Defense director, Atlantic Beach. The program was arranged by Bud Dixon to give Rotarians up-to-date information on activities connected with Donna.

According to Mr. Reeves, the Red Cross expenditure for hurricane Donna relief in North Carolina is expected to exceed $250,000. More than 1,400 North Carolina families have applied for help since the storm struck. This figure is expected to increase by several hundred more.

In a special dispatch to THE NEWS-TIMES yesterday, Earl F. Logan, of Red Cross disaster headquarters, New Bern, said that Donna relief operations of the Red Cross may exceed $3 million. Most of the funds will be issued in Puerto Rico and Florida.

Red Cross storm relief operations are under way in 29 North Carolina counties.

Mr. Simpson described the manner in which insurance companies are attempting to meet the heavy demands placed on them and explained the conditions under which insurance is paid.

Mr. Savage commented on Civil Defense preparations for an emergency and CD activity during a disaster.
