Beaufort School Gains Teacher Due to Increase in Enrollment

Mr. Albert Gainey, Beaufort school principal, announced Tuesday night at the PTA meeting that the enrollment of the school had increased so that the 45th teacher, a public school music teacher, had been engaged.

Mrs. Albert Chappell asked about clearing broken glass from the grounds since a serious accident occurred recently. Mr. Gainey said that the grounds are cleaned daily.

Mr. George Herbert announced that Hancock Park residents had built a bridge on the approach to the school as a safety measure.

Mrs. L. J. Klein, president, presided at the meeting, the first of the year. Mr. Reginald Adams, treasurer, reported a balance of $491.04 in the bank.

Mrs. Klein introduced the members of her board. They are Mrs. David Taylor, chairman of the program committee; Mrs. Lyle Pasieneau, membership chairman; Mrs. Leonard Safrit, hospitality chairman.

Mrs. Donald Dudley, safety chairman; Mrs. Clarence Guthrie, health and welfare chairman; Mrs. Wiley Taylor Jr., publicity; Mrs. Billy Davis, room representatives; Mrs. William Cutrell, ways and means; Mr. Gene Smith, legislation; Mrs. Mayo Judy, magazines.

The president announced that state dues of the PTA had been raised 10 cents, but that rather than raise the local dues, the extra money would be taken from the treasury.

Following the meeting parents were invited to visit the teachers. The meeting was opened by Mrs. John Brooks, who gave the devotions.
