Catherine Sabiston Speaks Vows With Elwood E. Jenkins Sunday

Mrs. Elwood Earl Jenkins

Miss Catherine Ann Sabiston of this city and Elwood Earl Jenkins of Newport were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at four o'clock in a double ring ceremony at First Baptist church.

The Rev. John T. Biddle, pastor of Parkview Baptist church, heard the vows. A program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Bernice Willis and Robert Vaughn of Raleigh, soloists, and Mrs. George Mizeko, organist. Vocal selections included Story of Ruth, Wedding Prayer and Because.

The church was beautifully decorated with baskets of white gladiolus, greenery, and nine-branched circular candelabras holding lighted cathedral tapers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of brussels lace over tissue taffeta. The portrait neckline was accented with hand-sewn sequins and pearls and long sleeves tapered to points over her hands.

The bell-shaped skirt extended into a chapel train and was accented at the back waistline by a flat bow.

Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion was attached to a crown of brussels lace, seed pearls and sequins. She carried a white satin prayer book topped with a white orchid and showered with lilies of the valley.

Mrs. L. A. Stillely Jr. of Newport News, Va., was matron of honor for the bride. She wore a cocktail length dress of beige brocade satin and chiffon over taffeta, designed with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt.

She wore a tiara with matching beige veil and carried a colonial bouquet of pink fringed carnations tied with pink satin ribbons. Miss Anna Willis, Miss Jeanette

Miss Bonnie Garner Weds

Mrs. Harry S. Sutton

Miss Bonnie Dale Garner of Newport became the bride of Harry S. Sutton of Vicksburg, Miss., in a double ring ceremony Friday evening at six o'clock at St. James Methodist church, Newport.

The Rev. Ralph Fleming Jr., pastor, officiated. Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Harold Chartley, organist, and Mr. Robert K. Montague, soloist. Selections by Mr. Montague were Because and I'll Walk with God.

The vows were spoken before a background of palms interspersed with candelabras holding lighted tapers and arrangements of white gladiolus.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of chantilly lace and bridal taffeta. The fitted bodice was designed with a scalloped sabbina neckline embroidered with sequins and pearls, and long sleeves tapering to points over her hands.

The voluminous skirt featured overlaid panels of lace on each side and a panel in the back forming a chapel train. The skirt was caught up on each side with an open fabric rose.

Her fingertip veil of imported illusion fell from a double tiara encrusted with pearls and sequins. She carried a white prayer book covered with a purple-throated orchid and showered with lilies of the valley.

Miss Clyde S. Mann attended the bride as maid of honor. She wore a street length gown of beige taffeta designed with bateau neckline dipping to a v in back, elbow length sleeves and a bouffant skirt accented with a crushed cummerbund at the waist.

She wore matching mitts and a headband with nose veil. Her bouquet was a nosegay of yellow and bronze carnations with matching ribbons.

Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Elizabeth Gould, Miss Cecelia Henderson, Miss Becky Robinson and Mrs. Roger Binnicker.

Miss Gould and Miss Henderson wore yellow gowns identical in style to that of the honor attendant with matching mitts and headbands, and carried nosegays of pink carnations. Miss Robinson and Mrs. Binnicker wore green gowns, mitts and headbands and carried nosegays of orchid carnations.

Miss Mary Virginia Stallings and Miss Brenda Kay Stallings, nieces of the bride, were flower girls. They wore beige taffeta gowns like those of the other attendants and carried baskets filled with petals. Roger Binnicker served the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were Robert Irvin Garner, brother of the bride, Archie Lee, John Compton and Charles Monroe Garner Jr. Master Ricky Joe Parrish, cousin of the bride, carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Garner wore a navy blue silk dress with white collar and pleated skirt. She wore white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church educational building. Mrs. Dale Parrish, aunt of the bride, greeted guests and presided at the bride's book.

Mrs. Neal Garner, aunt of the bride, served punch and Mrs. Dom Femia of Morehead City served the wedding cake.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Bennie R. Garner and Mrs. Opal Garner of Newport. She attended Newport school. The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon H. Sutton of Vicksburg, Miss., attended St. Aloysius high school in Vicksburg and Mississippi State college. He now holds the rank of sergeant in the United States Marine Corps.

For a wedding trip to Mississippi, the bride wore a pink linen dress with white accessories and the orchid from her bouquet. The couple will make their home in Jacksonville, Fla., where the bridegroom will be stationed.

Following the wedding rehearsal Thursday evening the bride's mother and Mrs. Don S. Ferguson entertained members of the wedding party in the educational building. Ice cream sodas, assorted sandwiches and cookies were served.
