Horne-Gould Vows Spoken

Mrs. H. Craig Horne

The marriage of Miss Mary Elizabeth Gould and H. Craig Horne, both of Newport, was solemnized at seven-thirty Saturday evening at St. James Methodist church, Newport.

The Rev. Ralph Fleming Jr., pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Miss Edith Locke, organist, and Mr. Robert K. Montague, soloist, presented a program of nuptial music. Mr. Montague sang Through the Years, Whither Thou Goest and Wedding Prayer.

The church was beautifully decorated with baskets of white gladiolas with greenery and seven-branched candelabras holding lighted cathedral tapers. Lighted tapers were also placed in the windows.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Charlie Gould Jr. She wore a floor length gown designed with fitted bodice of chantilly lace over net featuring a square neckline and long sleeves tapering to points over the hands. The voluminous skirt was covered with tiny ruffles of net.

Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls. She wore a fingertip veil of illusion which fell from a Juliet cap of chantilly lace embroidered in pearls. She carried a white purple-throated orchid on a white prayer book showered with lilies of the valley.

Miss Linda Garner attended the bride as maid of honor. She wore a tea length gown of lavender taffeta designed with a fitted bodice featuring a beauteous neckline in front dipping low in back and long fitted sleeves.

The bouffant skirt was accented at the waistline by a crushed cummerbund.

She wore a halo of matching lavender taffeta with circular veil and carried a nosegay of pink carnations tied with lavender ribbons.

Bridesmaids were Miss Peggy Jo Wallace, Miss Brenda Long, Miss Emma Lou Parrish and Miss Linda Edwards. They wore gowns of deep lilac identical in style to that of the honor attendant.

They wore matching taffeta halos with circular veils and carried nosegays of pink carnations tied with deep lilac ribbons.

The Misses Vicky Simmons and Marsha Simmons, cousins of the bride, were flower girls. Master Craig Wayne Clark of Morehead City was ring bearer.

The bridegroom had Joe Howard as his best man. Ushers were Tommy Howard, Berlyn Temple and Keith Mason, all of Newport, and Wayne Cheek of Greensboro.

The bride's mother wore a beige brocade dress with matching jacket. She wore matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The bridegroom's mother wore a beige faille suit with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the church educational building. Miss Lucile Gould, aunt of the bride, greeted guests and presided over the bride's book. Mrs. Lois Pringle poured punch and Mrs. Mendora Garner served the wedding cake.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie A. Gould Jr. of Newport. She is a graduate of Newport high school. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. McCroan of Durham. A graduate of Morehead City high school, he is employed by Fry Roofing Co.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Florida and upon their return will make their home in Newport.
